Natural Landscaping Designing With Native Plant Communities:

Natural Landscaping John Diekelmann, Robert M. Schuster, 2002 In response to demand from landscape architects and home gardeners Natural Landscaping returns to print in an updated and expanded second edition It is unique in its focus on plant communities it approaches landscape design as the establishment of natural ecosystems rather than mere planting of specimens Emphasizing the natural landscapes of the northeastern United States and eastern Canada this book o reviews landscaping principles and techniques o introduces native plant species for grasslands forests edge areas and small wetlands o illustrates how to evaluate a site and plan for visual effect and maintenance o presents the issues involved in restoring bogs ponds and other wetlands o offers practical advice on reducing chemical use while still combating invasive plants o addresses social legal design and planting problems often encountered on residential sites o discusses natural landscaping for public parklands civic buildings school grounds and corporate properties

The California Native Landscape Greg Rubin, Lucy Warren, 2013-03-05 Water shortages and water rationing are commonplace throughout California rendering expanses of lawn and thirsty nonnative plants unsustainable The California Native Landscape addresses both concerns by showing homeowners how to succeed with natives and showing them how lush colorful and thriving their landscape can be The authors stress the importance of smart garden design and combining the right plants to promote the natural symbiosis that occurs within plant communities Native plants also play an important role in creating fire resistant landscapes and this new book has cutting edge information on this crucial topic refuting the myth that natives are more fire prone than nonnatives With its unique combination of proven techniques environmental wisdom and inspiring design advice this is an essential resource for all California gardeners who want to create a beautiful ecologically appropriate and resource conserving home landscape

Planting in a Post-Wild World Thomas Rainer, Claudia West, 2016-02-04 This post wild landscape guide is an optimistic call to action to help gardeners create a harmonious environment by incorporating plant communities Chicago Tribune Over time with industrialization and urban sprawl we have driven nature out of our neighborhoods and cities But we can invite it back by designing landscapes that look and function more like they do in the wild robust diverse and visually harmonious Featuring gorgeous photography and advice for landscapers Planting in a Post Wild World by Thomas Rainer and Claudia West is dedicated to the idea of a new nature a hybrid of both the wild and the cultivated that can nourish in our cities and suburbs

Women in Landscape Architecture Louise A. Mozingo, Linda Jewell, 2011-12-22 While many fields struggle to specify feminine contributions the work of women has always played a fundamental role in American landscape architecture Women claim responsibility for many landscape types now taken for granted including community gardens playgrounds and streetscapes This collection of essays by leaders in the discipline addresses the ways that gender has influenced the history design practice and perception of landscapes It highlights women s relation to landscape architecture presents the professional efforts of women in the landscape realm examines both the perception and experience of landscapes by women and speculates on ways to re imagine gender and the landscape Landscaping with Native Plants of Michigan Lynn M. Steiner,2006 Energy-Wise Landscape Design Sue Reed,2010-04-01 An inspiring instructional handbook for transforming idealism into social change The pursuit of freedom and justice is a timeless one but new activists may not know where to begin while more experienced ones often become jaded or fatigued The task of constructing a new society free from oppression and inequality can be overwhelming Tools for facilitating motivation engagement and communication can mean the difference between failure and success for activists and social movements Educating for Action collects the voices of activists whose combined experience in confronting injustice has generated a wealth of key insights for creating social change This practical guide explores such topics as Community activism and direct democracy Conflict negotiation communication and rhetoric Law the educational system and lifestyle activism Social media skills conference planning and online organizing Written in an inspirational tone Educating for Action consciously straddles the line between street activism and classroom instruction Bridging the gap between these two worlds makes for an engaging and instructive manual for social justice helping students teachers and larger activist communities turn their idealism into action Jason Del Gandio is a scholar activist and assistant professor of rhetoric and public advocacy at Temple University He is the author of Rhetoric for Radicals A Handbook for 21st Century Activists Anthony J Nocella II is a scholar activist and senior fellow of the Dispute Resolution Institute at the Hamline Law School He is a long time anti racism youth justice prison abolition hip hop animal disability and Earth liberation activist and has published over fifty scholarly articles and book chapters and sixteen books
