Review India June 2013 Masses and Man George Lachmann Mosse, 1987 The Nature of the Philosophical Enterprise Edward G. Ballard, Richard L. Barber, James K. Feibleman, Harold N. Lee, Paul Guerrant Morrison, Andrew J. Reck, Louise Nisbet Roberts, Robert C. Whittemore, 2012-12-06 Challenges to the American Founding Ronald J. Pestritto, Thomas G. West, 2005-01-01

Ronald J Pestritto and Thomas G West's earlier volume The American Founding and the Social Compact addressed the nature of the thought and philosophy of the men who shaped the American founding. In this second volume in a trilogy Pestritto and West examine the fate of the founders' principles in the nineteenth century when these principles faced their first great challenges. Support of slavery culminating in secession and civil war came from the South and after the war came positivism, relativism and radical egalitarianism which originated in Europe and infiltrated American universities where intellectuals repudiated the founders' views as historically obsolete and insufficiently concerned with true human liberation. In ten chapters covering major thinkers in nineteenth century American political thought contributors discuss the rise and resolution of ideological conflicts in the early generations of the American republic. In Challenges to the American Founding Pestritto and West have compiled an invaluable resource for the roots of the twentieth century departure in American politics from the political vision of the American founders.

The New Nature Writing Jos Smith, 2017-05-04

In the last decade there has been a proliferation of landscape writing in Britain and Ireland often referred to as The New Nature Writing. Rooted in the work of an older generation of environment-focused authors and activists, this new form is both stylistically innovative and mindful of ecology and conservation practice. The New Nature Writing: Rethinking the Literature of Place connects these two generations to show that the contemporary energy around the cultures of landscape and place is the outcome of a long-standing relationship between environmentalism and the arts. Drawing on original interviews with authors, archival research and scholarly work in the fields of literary geographies, ecocriticism and archipelagic criticism, the book covers the work of such writers as Robert Macfarlane, Richard Mabey, Tim Robinson and Alice Oswald. Examining the ways in which these authors have engaged with a wide range of different environments, from the edgelands to island spaces, Jos Smith reveals how they recreate a resourceful and dynamic sense of localism in rebellion against the homogenising growth of clone town Britain.
