Nature and Mind Frederick James Eugene Woodbridge, 1966 A collection of essays and addresses presented by Frederick Woodbridge covering a period from 1894 to when he addressed the Church Congress at Boston to 1936 when he contributed to the Journal of Philosophy Selected writings chosen by a small group of Woodbridge's former students show the changes and developments in a philosophy essentially constant and probably make more available a unified view of the author's constructive ideas and metaphysical position than any single one of his published writings Foreword of book by Editorial Committee

Nature and Selected Essays Ralph Waldo Emerson, 2003-05-27 An indispensable look at Emerson's influential life philosophy Through his writing and his own personal philosophy Ralph Waldo Emerson unburdened his young country of Europe's traditional sense of history and showed Americans how to be creators of their own circumstances His mandate which called for harmony with rather than domestication of nature and for a reliance on individual integrity rather than on materialistic institutions is echoed in many of the great American philosophical and literary works of his time and ours and has given an impetus to modern political and social activism Larzer Ziff's introduction to this collection of fifteen of Emerson's most significant writings provides the important backdrop to the society in which Emerson lived during his formative years For more than seventy years Penguin has been the leading publisher of classic literature in the English speaking world With more than 1 700 titles Penguin Classics represents a global bookshelf of the best works throughout history and across genres and disciplines Readers trust the series to provide authoritative texts enhanced by introductions and notes by distinguished scholars and contemporary authors as well as up to date translations by award winning translators
