Naven Or The Other Self A Relational Approach To Ritual Action:

Naven, Or, The Other Self Michael Houseman, Carlo Severi, 1998 This book proposes a novel approach to the analysis of ritual action Founded upon an in depth study of the transvestism naven ceremony of the Iatmul of Papua New Guinea it focuses on the relational and interactive forms entailed by ritual performance Theorizing Rituals Jens Kreinath, Michael Strausberg, 2006 Volume two of Theorizing Rituals mainly consists of an annotated bibliography of more than 400 items covering those books edited volumes and essays that are considered most relevant for the field of ritual theory Instead of proposing yet another theory of ritual the bibliography is a comprehensive monument documenting four decades of theorizing rituals Theorizing Rituals, Volume 2: Annotated Bibliography of Ritual Theory, 1966-2005 Jens Kreinath, J.A.M. Snoek, Michael Stausberg, 2007-09-30 Volume two of Theorizing Rituals mainly consists of an annotated bibliography of more than 400 items covering those books edited volumes and essays that are considered most relevant for the field of ritual theory Instead of proposing yet another theory of ritual the bibliography is a comprehensive monument documenting four decades of theorizing rituals Focus On: 100 Most Popular English Emigrants to the United States Wikipedia contributors, Growing Artefacts, Displaying Relationships Ludovic Coupaye, 2013-08-01 What gives artefacts their power and beauty This ethnographic study of the decorated long yams made by the Nyamikum Abelam in Papua New Guinea examines how these artefacts acquire their specific properties through processes that mobilise and recruit diverse entities substances and domains All come together to form the finished product that is displayed representing what could be an indigenous form of non verbal sociology Engaging with several contemporary anthropological topics material culture techniques arts aesthetics rituals botany cosmology Melanesian ethnography the text also discusses in depth the complex position of the study of technology within anthropology Women in Kararau Brigitta Hauser-Schäublin, 2019 The book offers a glimpse back in time to a Middle Sepik society the Iatmul first investigated by the anthropologist Gregory Bateson in the late 1920s while the feminist anthropologist Margaret Mead worked on sex roles among the neighbouring Tchambuli Chambri people The author lived in the Iatmul village of Kararau in 1972 3 where she studied women s lives works and knowledge in detail She revisited the Sepik in 2015 and 2017 The book the translation of a 1977 publication in German is complemented by two chapters dealing with the life of the Iatmul in the 2010s It presents rich quantitative and qualitative data on subsistence economy marriage and women s knowledge concerning myths and rituals Besides life histories and in depth interviews convey deep insights into women s experiences and feelings especially regarding their varied relationships with men in the early 1970s Since then Iatmul culture has changed in many respects especially as far as the economy religion knowledge and the relationship between men and women are concerned In her afterword the anthropologist Christiane Falck highlights some of the major topics raised in the book from a 2018 perspective based on her own fieldwork which she commenced in 2012 Thus the book provides the reader with detailed information about gendered lives in this riverine village of the 1970s and an understanding of the cultural processes and dynamics that have taken place since Names are Thicker than Blood Andrew Moutu, 2013-04-11 This is an ethnographic study of kinship and the nature and behaviour of ownership amongst the much studied Sepik River Iatmul people Written from the viewpoint of a Melanesian scholar this book seeks to re think anthropology s central assumptions about social relations Cultic and Further Orders: Semiotics of a Kabbalistic Culture Maurizio Mottolese, 2022-01-31 This book starts from the assumption that semiotics of culture and social anthropological studies can offer useful tools to understand large segments and lasting aspects of the kabbalistic tradition It attempts to study from this perspective the Sephardi Kabbalah by examining 16th century emblematic commentaries that collect rearrange and carry on the earlier kabbalistic interpretation of the rabbinic ritual system In this unusual light much kabbalistic culture appears as an ongoing semiotic intensification of deep structures governing the discourse and practice of the Jews so that for instance institutional cultic orders are integrated by other forms of order in imagination thought writing and experience Zoroastrian Rituals in Context Michael Stausberg, 2018-08-14

Rituals it is agreed play a prominent role in Zoroastrianism one of the oldest continuous traditions of mankind In this book scholars from a broad range of disciplines make the first ever collective effort to address this issue From a historical and geographical perspective texts and contexts studied in these pages range from antiquity to modernity all the way from Japan China India Iran Europe to California The essays touch on questions of theory ritual texts change and performances gender and professional religion priesthood lay people The rituals studied are placed in a broad scope of social and local settings ranging from the royal court to the needy from the rural village to the urban metropolis from the domestic to the public

Rethinking Relation-Substance Dualism Aurélie Névoit, 2024-01-16 This book analyses anthropological debates on relationism referring to methodological and theoretical issues and sets out to reconsider these discussions with regards to the notion of substance generally associated with the body Reflecting on the philosophical origins and implications of these two concepts the author aims to bring them to the heart of contemporary anthropological discourse and addresses the erasure or blurring of substance in favour of relation The argument put forward is that the conceptual pairing of substance relation should be substituted for the nature culture dualism that has been dominant in structural anthropology The chapters engage with the work of scholars such as Philippe Descola Eduardo Viveiros de Castro and Wang Mingming as part of a decentring and questioning of the tradition in which anthropology is rooted The book also considers the role that the anthropology of China plays in the re evaluation of the relationship between relation and substance The concept of submutance is introduced with Chinese ethnographic material to explore the possibility of moving beyond the relation substance dualism of Western heritage This is valuable reading for scholars interested in the theory and history of anthropology
