Nobody Left To Ask A Memoir Of Family:

Nobody Left to Ask Phil Link,2001-06 Memoir of a Nobody Molly S. Hardwick,2024-12-06 In 1980 sixteen year old Molly and her mother move to a new town triggering her mum s already fragile mental health to spiral out of control Strangers in a strange place the townspeople do their best to help but the challenges run deep Molly s parents had separated when she was five leaving her older brother David as their mum s primary carer Both siblings endured bullying at school while weekends were spent working alongside their mother often unpaid The routine involved travelling to distant towns working through the day followed by wining and dining in the evening and then sleeping in the car Early the next morning the cycle would repeat with David and Molly bearing the brunt of their mother s erratic moods David rebellious and worn down eventually left home leaving nine year old Molly to become her mother s sole carer Now she must face the daunting task of managing her mother s instability alone How will Molly cope with the weight of her new responsibilities Will she and her mum receive the help they so desperately need And what role will her absent father play in their lives This deeply personal and poignant true story recounts Molly s highly unusual and challenging early life offering a raw and moving glimpse into resilience and survival The North Carolina Historical Review ,2003 A Partisan's Memoir Faye

Schulman, Faye tells her unforgettable story of heroism hardship and resistance Faye was an ordinary teenager when the Nazis invaded her town on the Russian Polish border She had a large loving family good friends and neighbours most of whom were lost soon after the horrors of the Holocaust began But Faye survived and the photographs she took testify to her experiences and the persecution she witnessed Decorated for heroism Schulman uses her biography to tell an extraordinary story not just of survival but of struggle and resistance against oppression She talks about escaping from the Nazis finding a partisan unit and proving her worth The photographs she took speak eloquently of her experience of surviving for years in the woods with the partisans There she learned to nurse the ill and wounded and took up arms against those who had decimated her world Heartbreaking Vanny Vorng,2022-08-01 Heartbreaking A Survival Memoir of a survivor of the killing fields of Cambodia is a story about a man from his childhood up to the present time It entails his struggles to survive many brutal events in Cambodia from the coup d etat of 1970 the fall of the Khmer Republic in 1975 and the Khmer Rouge regime in 1979 The Khmer Rouge Communist Party of Cambodia purged the cities and countryside of intellectuals rival politicians monks and teachers The extremeness of this group led to a country that had no religion no free market no schools no families and a closed border Citizens attempt to hide their old lives from ears outside the walls while food becomes dangerously scarce in the so called agrarian utopia The new party in charge invents ways of making families disappear It describes the events of each conflict as they unfold where each time he somehow manages to survive the ordeal to tell the story After the Vietnamese invasion of Cambodia in 1979 he found a way to provide for his family s needs Vanny and his family realized they would be better off leaving the land they called home for so many years He led his family and friends to the refugee camps in Thailand and the Philippines After that Vanny and his family were transported to America to start a new life Upon arriving in America he managed to work hard at his job while attending school

Nobody's Favorite Victoria Stott,2016-10-27 Victoria Stotts story begins with her early memories of being raised by her adoptive parents on Canadian Forces Bases during the 1970s Her older brother also adopted initiated a campaign of relentless torment and sexual abuse against Victoria that persisted for years and led her to contemplate suicide He bullied their parents as well and at one point Victoria thought that killing him would be the best solution for everyone A summer job working at a pool was the beginning of her breaking away from her family and the small town she lived in But pregnancy and marriage to a violent husband when she was just nineteen brought Victoria back into the cycle of abuse When her children were small she found out her husband was having secret affairs doing drugs and had maxed out all their credit cards She finally left her husband he later died in a car accident A subsequent marriage produced her fourth child Finally diagnosed with C PTSD from her years of family trauma the author begins her journey towards healing and hope

Kiss the Red Stairs Marsha Lederman, 2023-08-22 NATIONAL BESTSELLER For readers of All Things Consol'd by Elizabeth Hay and They Left Us Everything by Plum Johnson Kiss the Red Stairs is a compelling memoir by award winning journalist Marsha Lederman delves into her parents Holocaust stories in the wake of her own divorce investigating how trauma migrates through generations with empathy humour and resilience With compelling Holocaust stories deep research into trauma theory and a powerful personal narrative about family and motherhood the book brings together subjects readers are fascinated by with humour empathy and raw emotion Marsha was five when a simple question led to a horrifying answer Sitting in her kitchen she asked her mother why she didn't have any grandparents Her mother told her the truth the Holocaust Decades later her parents dead and herself a mother to a young son Marsha begins to wonder how much history has shaped her own life Reeling in the wake of a divorce she craves her parents help But in their absence she is gripped by a need to understand the trauma they suffered and she begins her own journey into the past to tell her family's stories of loss and resilience Kiss the Red Stairs is a compelling memoir of Holocaust survival intergenerational trauma divorce and discovery that will guide readers through several lifetimes of monumental change Nobody Asked for This Georgia Toews, 2025-03-25 A razor sharp dramedy following a twenty something comic as she navigates family grief dysfunctional friendship and a date gone very wrong Virginia is twenty three and a stand up comedian In between working the rounds of Toronto's small comedy club circuit and auditioning for paper towel commercials she is tiptoeing around her depressed roommate and childhood friend Haley and having biweekly dinners with her bereaved stepdad Dale while trying to manage her own grief at the loss of her mother She is also secretly working to get the green card that will be her ticket to LA and she hopes a glittering comedy career But when Dale tells her that he wants to sell their family home and when a date with a fellow comic turns into a shattering encounter she is forced to confront the limits of comedy and friendship Not every experience can be neatly packaged into a bit and not every friendship is meant to last By turns hilarious and heartbreaking Nobody Asked for This reaches into the messy depths of love friendship grief and trauma and like all the best jokes is utterly unpredictable From the Vilna Ghetto to Nuremberg Abraham Sutzkever, 2021-10-06 In 1944 the Yiddish poet Abraham Sutzkever was airlifted to Moscow from the forest where he had spent the winter among partisan fighters There he was encouraged by Ilya Ehrenburg the most famous Soviet Jewish writer of his day to write a memoir of his two years in the Vilna Ghetto Now seventy five years after it appeared in Yiddish in 1946 Justin Cammy provides a full English translation of one of the earliest published memoirs of the destruction of the city known throughout the Jewish world as the Jerusalem of Lithuania Based on his own experiences his conversations with survivors and his consultation with materials hidden in the ghetto and recovered after the liberation of his hometown Sutzkever's memoir rests at the intersection of postwar Holocaust literature and history He grappled with the responsibility to produce a document that would indict the perpetrators and provide an account of both the horrors and the resilience of Jewish life under Nazi rule Cammy bases his translation on the two extant versions of the full text of the memoir and includes Sutzkever's diary notes and full testimony at the Nuremberg Trials in 1946 Fascinating reminiscences of leading Soviet Yiddish cultural figures Sutzkever encountered during his time in Moscow Ehrenburg Yiddish modernist poet Peretz Markish and director of the State Yiddish Theatre Shloyme Mikhoels reveal the constraints of the political environment in which the memoir was composed Both shocking and moving in its intensity From the Vilna Ghetto to Nuremberg returns readers to a moment when the scale of the Holocaust was first coming into focus through the eyes of one survivor who attempted to make sense of daily life resistance and death in the ghetto A Yiddish Book Center Translation The Works of Daniel De Foe, with a Memoir of His Life and Writings. By William Hazlitt. [With a Bibliography.] Daniel Defoe, 1841 As Is Rachel Krentzman, 2025-03-27 Everything I had considered my path up until that point meant nothing anymore As I walked out closing the door to the women's section of the synagogue behind me I suddenly found myself out at sea without a buoy to swim to It was a strange and terrifying place to be but at least I wasn't willing to stay on the ship floating aimlessly to a destination predetermined by others Perhaps it was at that moment that I took up my quest for authenticity at any cost When recently married Rachel Krentzman's Orthodox rabbi father is arrested and imprisoned for drug trafficking it sets her on a path in search of a more authentic and fulfilling life Questioning her roots and religion in the cold constricted Jewish community of Montreal she attempts to recreate herself as a divorced single mother in carefree California She soon learns however that she can't run from her painful past or the beliefs that hold her captive When she discovers yoga Rachel begins an inward journey that leads her to move to Israel where she must finally come to terms with the family hypocrisy and intergenerational trauma that have left her trying to fill the emptiness inside As Is A Memoir on Healing the Past through Yoga is a story about reconciling with yourself imperfections and all and finding love and contentment regardless of your external circumstances Memoir of a Modernist's Daughter Eleanor Munro, 1989 In this memoir the author describes her complex relationship with her dominant father who was a Modernist philosopher and teacher whose theories on child development and art predominated Beyond Despair Hélène

Dumas, 2024-06-04 Winner Prix Pierre Lafue Winner Prix lyc en du livre d histoire des Rendez vous de l histoire de Blois In the archives of the main institution in charge of the history and memory of the genocide in Rwanda several bundles of fragile little school notebooks contain in the silence of accumulated dust the stories of around a hundred surviving children Written in 2006 at the initiative of a Rwandan survivors association as a testimonial and psychological catharsis these accounts by children who have since become young men and women tell the story of their experience of the genocide as well as of life before and life after The words of these children the cruel realism of the scenes they describe the power of the emotions they express provide the historian with an unparalleled insight into the subjectivities of the survivors and also enable us to take on board the murderous discourse and gestures of those who eradicated their world of childhood forever Far from abstract postulates on the unspeakable Beyond Despair offers a reflection on the conditions that make audible such an experience of dereliction in the twilight of the twentieth century This work received support for excellence in publication and translation from Albertine Translation a program created by Villa Albertine and funded by FACE Foundation Nobody's Children
