The Elusive Eden Richard B. Rice, William A. Bullough, Richard J. Orsi, Mary Ann Irwin, Michael F. Magliari, Cecilia M. Tsu, 2019-09-13 California is a region of rich geographic and human diversity The Elusive Eden charts the historical development of California beginning with landscape and climate and the development of Native cultures and continues through the election of Governor Gavin Newsom It portrays a land of remarkable richness and complexity settled by waves of people with diverse cultures from around the world Now in its fifth edition this up to date text provides an authoritative original and balanced survey of California history incorporating the latest scholarship Coverage includes new material on political upheavals the global banking crisis changes in education and the economy and California s shifting demographic profile This edition of The Elusive Eden features expanded coverage of gender class race and ethnicity giving voice to the diverse individuals and groups who have shaped California With its continued emphasis on geography and environment the text also gives attention to regional issues moving from the metropolitan areas to the state s rural and desert areas Lively and readable The Elusive Eden is organized in ten parts Each chronological section begins with an in depth narrative chapter that spotlights an individual or group at a critical moment of historical change bringing California history to life The Cinema of Barbara Stanwyck Catherine Russell,2023-05-02 From The Lady Eve to The Big Valley Barbara Stanwyck played parts that showcased her multidimensional talents but also illustrated the limits imposed on women in film and television Catherine Russell s A to Z consideration of the iconic actress analyzes twenty six facets of Stanwyck and the America of her times Russell examines Stanwyck s work onscreen against the backdrop of costuming and other aspects of filmmaking But she also views the actress s off screen performance within the Hollywood networks that made her an industry favorite and longtime cornerstone of the entertainment community Russell s montage approach coalesces into an engrossing portrait of a singular artist whose intelligence and savvy placed her center stage in the production of her films and in the debates around women femininity and motherhood that roiled mid century America Original and rich The Cinema of Barbara Stanwyck is an essential and entertaining reexamination of an enduring Hollywood star Red Dead Redemption John Wills,Esther Wright,2023-03-30 While the Western was dying a slow death across the cultural landscape it was blazing back to life as a video game in the early twenty first century Rockstar Games Red Dead franchise beginning with Red Dead Revolver in 2004 has grown into one of the most critically acclaimed video game franchises of the twenty first century Red Dead Redemption History Myth and Violence in the Video Game West offers a critical interdisciplinary look at this cultural phenomenon at the intersection of game studies and American history Drawing on game studies western history American studies and cultural studies the authors train a wide ranging deeply informed analytic perspective on the Red Dead franchise from its earliest incarnation to the latest Red Dead Redemption 2 2018 Their intersecting chapters put the series in the context of American history culture and contemporary media with inquiries into issues of authenticity realism the meaning of play and commercial promotion and the relationship between the game and the wider cultural iterations of the classic Western The contributors also delve into the role the series development has played in recent debates around working conditions in the gaming industry and gaming culture In its redeployment and reinvention of the Western s myth and memes the Red Dead franchise speaks to broader aspects of American culture the hold of the frontier myth and the Wild West over the popular imagination the role of gun culture in society depictions of gender and ethnicity in mass media and the increasing allure of digital escapism all of which come in for scrutiny here making this volume a vital sweeping and deeply revealing cultural intervention

Creole Crossings Carolyn Vellenga Berman, 2018-07-05 The character of the Creole woman the descendant of settlers or slaves brought up on the colonial frontier is a familiar one in nineteenth century French British and American literature In Creole Crossings Carolyn Vellenga Berman examines the use of this recurring figure in such canonical novels as Jane Eyre Uncle Tom's Cabin and Indiana as well as in the antislavery discourse of the period Creole in its etymological sense means brought up domestically and Berman shows how the campaign to reform slavery in the colonies converged with literary depictions of family life Illuminating a literary genealogy that crosses political familial and linguistic lines Creole Crossings reveals how racial sexual and moral boundaries continually shifted as the century's writers reflected on the realities of slavery empire and the home front Berman offers compelling readings of the domestic fiction of Honor de Balzac Charlotte Brontë Maria Edgeworth Harriet Jacobs George Sand Harriet Beecher Stowe and others alongside travel narratives parliamentary reports medical texts journalism and encyclopedias Focusing on a neglected social classification in both fiction and nonfiction Creole Crossings establishes the crucial importance of the Creole character as a marker of sexual norms and national belonging

Applied Evolutionary Psychology S. Craig Roberts, 2012 This is the first book to overtly consider how basic evolutionary thinking is being applied to a wide range of special social economic and technical problems It draws together a collection of renowned academics from a very disparate set of fields whose common interest lies in using evolutionary thinking to inform their research

The Serial Killer Files Paul Simpson, 2017-05-18 There are many myths about serial killers that they are all dysfunctional loners all white males only motivated by sex that they all travel and operate across a wide area cannot stop killing are all insane or evil geniuses and that they all want to get caught Of course there are some serial killers who fit into these categories but the married Green River Killer was not a dysfunctional loner there are plenty of female and non Caucasian serial killers Dr Harold Shipman was certainly not motivated by sex many serial killings such as the Ipswich prostitute murders carried out by Steve Wright happen within a confined area the BTK Killer Dennis Rader stopped killing in 1991 but wasn't caught until fourteen years later Many serial killers may have a low animal cunning or be street smart but few of them are Mensa level geniuses Each of the thirty cases covered here is unusual in some respect perhaps in the way in which the killer carried out their crimes the choice of victims the way in which they were apprehended or the method of their execution The cases are presented alphabetically by country from Australia via Colombia Great Britain Indonesia Iran South Africa and elsewhere to the United States and then chronologically They come from across history and from all over the world The author has gone back as far as possible to contemporary source material newspaper accounts trial evidence interviews with perpetrators or survivors rather than rely on the increasingly blurred truth to be found online and in far too many collections

Investing in the Educational Success of Black Women and Girls Lori D. Patton, Venus Evans-Winters, Charlotte Jacobs, 2023-07-03 In the powerful essays that make up Investing in the Educational

Success of Black Women and Girls Black women and girls are listened to appreciated and valued in recognition of the unrelenting challenges to our existence in a world that continues to be committed to stifling our voices What these authors know intimately is that such stifling is not because what Black women and girls are saying isn't important It is precisely because it is This book names the challenges Black women and girls continue to experience as we pursue our education and offers implications and recommendations for practitioners teachers administrators and policymakers It needs to be read widely and deeply studied as much for its formations and beautiful representations of Black women and girls as its recommendations It is the truth telling we need today and a groundbreaking resource we need today and beyond Cynthia B Dillard Nana Mansa II of Mpeasem Ghana Athens Georgia and Cape Coast Central Region Ghana While figures on Black women and girls degree attainment suggest that as a group they are achieving in society the reality is that their experiences are far from monolithic that the educational system from early on and through college imposes barriers and inequities pushing many out of school criminalizing their behavior and leading to a high rate of incarceration The purpose of this book is to illuminate scholarship on Black women and girls throughout the educational pipeline The contributors all Black women educators scholars and advocates name the challenges Black women and girls face while pursuing their education as well as offer implications and recommendations for practitioners policymakers teachers and administrators to consider in ensuring the success of Black women and girls This book is divided into four sections each identifying the barriers Black girls and women encounter at the stages of their education and offering strategies to promote their success and agency within and beyond educational contexts In Part One the contributors explore the importance of mattering for Black girls in terms of redefining success and joy centering Black girl literacy pedagogies that encourage them to thrive examining how to make STEM more accessible to them and recounting how Black girls emotions and emotional literacy can either disempower them or promote their sense of agency to navigate educational contexts Part Two uncovers the violence directed toward and the criminalization of Black women and girls and how they are situated in educational and justice systems that collude to fail them The contributors address incarceration and the process of rehabilitation and reentry the outcomes of disciplinary action in schools on women who pursue college and describe how the erasure and disregard of Black women and girls leaves them absent from the educational policies that deeply affect their lives and wellbeing Part Three focuses on how Black women are left to navigate without resources that could make their collegiate pathways smoother covers how hair politics impact their acceptance in college leadership roles particularly at HBCUs illuminates the importance of social emotional and mental health for Black undergraduate women and the lack of adequate resources and explores how women with disabilities navigate higher education The final part of this book describes transformative approaches to supporting the educational needs of Black women and girls including the use of a politicized ethic of care intergenerational love and dialogue and constructing communities including digital environments to ensure they thrive through their education and beyond
