Library, 1979 The Black Mass Walter Brown, 2021-11-05 The Black Mass is a book about demonic worship and possession It is the lamentation of a man driven by the harshness of the times to enter into the folds of befouled magic and spells so that Abdul Nemrec could descend into the foul pits of the Iggigy and the Annunakis where he learned things that no one else could But the madness did not stop in the past old demons have ways of rising up This is true for in Harlem New York City there are several high school students who are friends and who also are into the infernal arts of black magic and the occult Soon they will find a bookstore whose proprietor has acquired a copy of the damnable arcane text known as the Necronomicon Once this book is in their hands they will seek to open the portals of history and summon both beasts and gods upon the earth They will take everyone around them to the threshold of the gates of madness and beyond Egypt Lehnert & Landrock, 1969 The Magic Lantern Maria Cristina Paganoni, 2020-10-28 The book provides an original investigation of the double trope as a central area of Dicken s writings in their relation to Victorian culture using this examination of the double to shed light on such issues as urban space and imperialism in the Victorian era Nashrat al-īdā', 1980-07 His Good Name Christina Geisen, Jean Li, Steven B. Shubert, Kei Yamamoto, 2021-03-20 The wish to affiliate with a specific cultural social or ethnical group is as important today as it was in past societies such as that of the ancient Egyptians The same significance applies to the self presentation of an individual within such a group Although it is inevitable that we perceive ancient cultures through the lens of our time place and value systems we can certainly try to look beyond these limitations Questions of how the ancient Egyptians saw themselves and how individuals tried to establish and thus present themselves in society are central pieces of the puzzle of how we interpret this ancient culture This volume focuses on the topic of identity and self presentation tackling the subject from many different angles the ways in which social and personal identities are constructed and maintained the manipulations of culture by individuals to reflect real or aspirational identities and the methods modern scholars use to attempt to say something about ancient persons Building on the work of Ronald J Leprohon to whom this volume is dedicated contributions in this volume present an overview of our current state of understanding of patterns of identity and self presentation in ancient Egypt The contributions approach various aspects of identity and self presentation through studies of gender literature material culture mythology names and officialdom
