Nomads Of The Nomads Al Murrah Bedouin:

Nomads of the Nomads Donald Powell Cole, 1975 Bedouins of the Empty Quarter Donald Powell Cole, 2017-07-28 This volume describes Bedouins a tribal pastoral people in eastern Saudi Arabia This volume documents changes in their way of life beginning in the 1930s and continuing to the 1960s when this book originally appeared The Empty Quarter described here is a place inhabited by a people so thoroughly devoted to their pastoral pursuits that they are referred to as nomads of the nomads To the Al Murrah and other camel keeping pastoralists theirs is a rich and rewarding life For either to survive men and camels must live in close symbiosis The camels provide food fiber and transport man provides knowledge of available resources of which the most precious are water and the grasses that grow where rains have fallen In this work Donald Powell Cole shows us that this existence more complex and intricate There is the complex knowledge of the desert itself its varieties moods and resources Next there is the knowledge of the camels their needs capacities and the peculiarities of each animal These different kinds of knowledge must be brought together to fully use yet carefully conserve scarce resources As important is the structuring of social life The tribesmen must have a flexible social system that enables the individual household to operate alone when the environmental situation requires This necessitates a pattern of independence and equality The Al Murrah live according to ancient traditions but life is not unchanging In 1932 Saudi Arabia became a nation and intertribal raiding and warfare was brought to an end Cole highlights the adaptability of the Al Murrah as the desert became increasingly invaded by motor transport and oil rigs He sees their experience as prototypical man everywhere must attune his life to the requirements of his economy In a place like the Arabian Desert these adjustments are most insistent This work shows that even when these demands of the external world pervade behavior life can remain rich and rewarding

Bedouins of the Empty Quarter Donald Powell Cole, This volume describes Bedouins a tribal pastoral people in eastern Saudi Arabia This volume documents changes in their way of life beginning in the 1930s and continuing to the 1960s when this book originally appeared The Empty Quarter described here is a place inhabited by a people so thoroughly devoted to their pastoral pursuits that they are referred to as nomads of the nomads To the Al Murrah and other camel keeping pastoralists theirs is a rich and rewarding life For either to survive men and camels must live in close symbiosis The camels provide food fiber and transport man provides knowledge of available resources of which the most precious are water and the grasses that grow where rains have fallen In this work Donald Powell Cole shows us that this existence more complex and intricate There is the complex knowledge of the desert itself its varieties moods and resources Next there is the knowledge of the camels their needs capacities and the peculiarities of each animal These different kinds of knowledge must be brought together to fully use yet carefully conserve scarce resources As important is the structuring of social life The tribesmen must have a flexible social system that enables the individual household to operate alone when the environmental situation requires This necessitates a pattern of independence and equality The Al Murrah live according to ancient traditions but life is not unchanging In 1932 Saudi Arabia became a nation and intertribal raiding and warfare was brought to an end Cole highlights the adaptability of the l Murrah as the desert became increasingly invaded by motor transport and oil rigs He sees their experience as prototypical man everywhere must attune his life to the requirements of his economy In a place like the Arabian Desert these adjustments are most insistent This work shows that even when these demands of the external world pervade behavior life can remain rich and rewarding Donald Powell Cole is professor emeritus in the Department of Sociology Anthropology Psychology and Egyptology at The American University in Cairo Egypt He is author or co author of numerous works including Arabian Oasis City The Transformation of Unayah and Bedouin Settlers and Holiday Makers Egypt s Changing Northwest Coast The Rwala Bedouin Today William Lancaster,1981-09-03 Considered by many scholars to be one of the best modern ethnographies on Middle Eastern ethnic groups the highly regarded unromanticized account of Bedouin life offers a clear explanation of the kinship system in nomadic societies Nomadic Societies in the Middle East and North Africa Dawn Chatty,2018-11-12 A scholarly volume devoted to an understanding of contemporary nomadic and pastoral societies in the Middle East and North Africa This volume recognizes the variable mobile quality of the ways of life of these societies which persist in accommodating the nation state of the 20th and 21st century but remain firmly transnational and highly adaptive Composed of four sections around the theme of contestation it includes examinations of contested authority and power space and social transformation development and economic transformation and cultures and engendered spaces Suckling Fadwa El Guindi,2020-02-21 A ground breaking ethnographic study of suckling in the Arabian Gulf this book reenergises the study of kinship It analyses the misunderstood and marginalized phenomenon of suckling drawing on ethnographic fieldwork in Qatar over a seven year period Fadwa El Guindi situates suckling often given other names or subsumed under misleading classifications squarely in the analytical category of kinship with recognition that kinship is necessarily biological societal and cultural The volume takes kinship study beyond origins nature culture debates and social nurturing and relatedness and challenges claims of deterministic reductionist formulas As well as key reading for those involved in milk kinship research this book is valuable for anthropologists Middle East scholars and others with an interest in breastfeeding family and social organisation and religion Creativity and Conservatism: An Investigation into the Formation of Saudi Female Artistic Identity Fatemah Abdullah Alqahtani,2024-07-31 This book investigates the formation of Saudi female artistic identity within the context of religious and social values and customs It proposes a theory about the uniqueness of this identity in terms of how Saudi female artists push the boundaries of creativity in a conservative culture The book explores the influence of two main factors Islamic doctrines and sociocultural norms It examines how these factors relate to the temporal and spatial limitations placed on artists From a faith based perspective it analyses the ambivalent relationship between some Muslim scholars thoughts and the concept of creativity and how this ambivalence can be overcome The book also examines the intellectual and cultural factors that have shaped Saudis collective mindset about the arts incorporating significant events in Saudi history and their impact on artistic practice If you have questions about what factors shape female Saudi artistic identity or how these artists are challenging norms of representation this book helps uncover the answers

The Arab World Halim Barakat,1993-10-14 This wide ranging examination of Arab society and culture offers a unique opportunity to know the Arab world from an Arab point of view Halim Barakat an expatriate Syrian who is both scholar and novelist emphasizes the dynamic changes and diverse patterns that have characterized the Middle East since the mid nineteenth century The Arab world is not one shaped by Islam nor one simply explained by reference to the sectarian conflicts of a mosaic society Instead Barakat reveals a society that is highly complex with many and various contending polarities It is a society in a state of becoming and change one whose social contradictions are at the root of the struggle to transcend dehumanizing conditions Arguing from a perspective that is both radical and critical Barakat is committed to the improvement of human conditions in the Arab world

The Cohesion of Saudi Arabia Pbdirect Christine Helms,2020-07-26 Saudi Arabia is no longer regarded as quite the invincible pillar of Islam it so recently seemed Its authority within the Islamic world has been challenged by the Ayatollahs in Iran and its dominant position within Opec has been seriously eroded Most importantly the dramatic assault on the Mosque at Mecca has raised serious doubts about the internal security of the Saudi regime This study provides essential background to the contemporary problems of Saudi Arabia in its focus on the early years of the Saudi state and the way in which King Abd al Aziz first created a nation state and asserted his family s authority It argues that the geography of Central Arabia was a crucial factor in determining how he fused together the Bedouin tribes and the settled communities into a political entity First published in 1981 and based on extensive new research data this is the first study to examine more than simply a political or diplomatic history of Saudi Arabia and concerns itself with the attitudes and perceptions of the Arabs themselves towards political initiatives of that period

Technology, Tradition and Survival Richard Tapper,Keith McLachlan,2004-11-23 The contributors address the history originality variety and sophistication of traditional science technology and material culture in the Middle East and Central Asia their influence on the history of Europe and the West and the threat posed by modern Western technologies

Islam in Tribal Societies Akbar S. Ahmed,2013-10-16 A lively debate is currently being conducted in the social sciences around the concepts of tribe segmentary societies and Islam in society This wide ranging collection by thirteen distinguished anthropologists contributes to the debate by examining various segmentary Islamic tribal societies from Morocco to Pakistan bibliography covers the area from Mauritania in the West to Afghanistan in the East and from Turkey in the North to the Arab Peninsula and Northern Sudan in the South The majority of studies inserted has been written by anthropologists Besides a considerable number of studies related to anthropology but published by non anthropologists has been integrated as well The majority of the monographs and volumes has been annotated

Sustainable Lifeways Naomi F. Miller, Katherine M. Moore, Kathleen Ryan, 2012-02-24 Sustainable Lifeways addresses forces of conservatism and innovation in societies dependent on the exploitation of aquatic and other wild resources agriculture and specialized pastoralism The volume gathers specialists working in four areas of the world with significant archaeological and paleoenvironmental databases West Asia the American Southwest East Africa and Andean South America and contributing to research in three broad time scales long term spanning millennia medium term archaeological time spanning centuries or a few thousand years and recent ethnohistoric or ethnographic spanning years or decades By bringing an archaeological eye to an examination of human response to unpredictable environmental conditions informed by an understanding of contemporary traditional peoples the contributors to this volume develop a more detailed picture of how societies perceive environmental risk how they alter their behavior in the face of changing conditions and under what challenges the most rapid and far reaching changes in adaptation have taken place Sustainable Lifeways enhances our understanding of both the forces of conservatism and innovation which may have been in play in major transitions in the past such as the development of complex society and the expansions of early empires Studies present examples of cattle herders in East Africa hunter gatherers and pastoralists in the Levant South American fisher farmers and farmer hunters of the U S Southwest PMIRC volume 3

Cultural Anthropology of the Middle East, 1992 During the last two decades the number of anthropological studies on the Middle East has increased exponentially This partially annotated bibliography offers a comprehensive survey of studies written in English French and German and covers the period from 1965 to 1987

Saudi Arabia Sherifa Zuhur, 2012-01-05 This book describes all aspects of Saudi Arabia including its government economy society and culture as well as its role in the Middle East and its position internationally In this comprehensive introduction to the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia author Sherifa Zuhur reveals the fascinating people culture politics and economic development of the largest Arab country of the Middle East The book provides a detailed summary of Arabian history from the earliest settlements on the Arabian peninsula to the present day with a focus on the rise of the current Saudi regime It provides essential background on the oil politics of the Kingdom dating back to the discovery of oil in the late 1930s an account of Saudi Arabia's subsequent economic advancement and explanations of emerging societal issues such as labor importation and the changing roles of women Saudi Arabia also details the Kingdom's cultural and religious milieu including its music poetry architecture legal system and prominence in the Islamic world

A Bedouin Century Aref Abu-Rabia, 2001 The Bedouin in the Negev region have undergone a remarkable change of life style in the course of the 20th century within a few generations they changed from being nomads to an almost sedentary and highly educated population The author who is a Bedouin himself and has worked in the Israeli Ministry of Education and Culture as Superintendent of the Bedouin Educational Schools in the Negev for many years offers the first in depth study of the development of Bedouin society using the educational system as his focus Aref Abu Rabia teaches in the Department of Middle East Studies at the Ben Gurion University of the Negev

Tattooed Bodies James Martell,Erik Larsen,2022-01-20 The essays collected in Tattooed Bodies draw on a range of theoretical paradigms and empirical knowledge to investigate tattoos tattooing and our complex relations with marks on skin Engaging with diverse disciplinary perspectives in art history continental philosophy media studies psychoanalysis critical theory literary studies biopolitics and cultural anthropology the volume reflects the sheer diversity of meanings attributed to tattoos throughout history and across cultures Essays explore conceptualizations of tattoos and tattooing in Derrida Deleuze and Guattari Lacan Agamben and Jean Luc Nancy while utilizing theoretical perspectives to interpret tattoos in literary works by Melville Beckett Kafka Genet and Jeff VanderMeer among others Tattooed Bodies prompts readers to explore a few significant questions Are tattoos unique phenomena or an art medium in need of special theoretical exploration If so what conceptual paradigms and theories might best shape our understanding of tattoos and their complex ubiquity in world cultures and histories

Sustainable Development Paul Sillitoe,2014-08-01 With growing evidence of unsustainable use of the world s resources such as hydrocarbon reserves and related environmental pollution as in alarming climate change predictions sustainable development is arguably the prominent issue of the 21st century This volume gives a wide ranging introduction focusing on the arid Gulf region where the challenges of sustainable development are starkly evident The Gulf relies on non renewable oil and gas exports to supply the world s insatiable CO2 emitting energy demands and has built unsustainable conurbations with water supplies dependent on energy hungry desalination plants and deep aquifers pumped beyond natural replenishment rates Sustainable Development has an interdisciplinary focus bringing together university faculty and government personnel from the Gulf Europe and North America including social and natural scientists environmentalists and economists architects and planners to discuss topics such as sustainable natural resource use and urbanization industrial and technological development economy and politics history and geography

Legal and Political Reforms in Saudi Arabia Joseph A. Kechichian,2013 The fractious relationship between the United States and Saudi Arabia has long been a central concern in Washington In the aftermath of 9 11 and amongst ongoing wars the United States confronts an acute dilemma how to cooperate with Riyadh against terrorism whilst confronting acute anti Americanism Using information gathered from extensive interviews with a plethora of officials this book aims to analyze Saudi domestic reforms It addresses the significant deficiency of information on such diverse matters as the judiciary and ongoing national dialogues but also provides an alternative understanding of what motivates Saudi policy makers How these reforms may impact on future Saudi decision making will surely generate a slew of policy concerns for the United States and this study offers a few clarifications and solutions This book will be of interest to anyone seeking a new perspective on the motivation behind legal and political reforms in Saudi Arabia and the effects of these reforms beyond the Middle East Oman in the Twentieth Century J.E. Peterson, 2016-02-12 Oman was ruled by the Al Bu Sa'id for 250 years and during this period the fortunes of the state varied considerably But in July 1970 as a result of a palace coup the state abruptly turned away from isolation and traditions of the past The most obvious alteration was in the dramatic change in the outward appearance of the country particularly as exemplified by the rejection of the long era of stagnation and the parallel emphasis on socio economic development In the political realm however the shifting balance of power and the rapid growth and diversification of the state's administrative structure were based essentially on perennial themes in Omani politics The interplay between four of these themes forms the basis of this study first published in 1978 The role of the Sultan and the ruling family the development of the administration the exercise of tribal politics and the impact of external influences on the state are closely examined and the modifications they went in response to the various challenges of the twentieth century are discussed The constant flux in the relative importance of each of these themes illustrates the fragile nature of the traditional Omani political system for in the twentieth century the Al Bu Sa'id Sultanate found its precarious hold over the country challenged on a number of occasions These challenges ranging from the tribal and religious rebellion of 1913-20 to the Marxist Leninist revolt in Dhufar are also analysed in detail together with the response of the Sultanate to their impact
