

EXPOSITION

Answer - subject transposed into dominant

The first system of the musical score is in 4/4 time and B-flat major. The bass staff begins with the 'Subject' in the left hand, consisting of a sequence of eighth notes: B-flat, C, D, E-flat, F, G, A, B-flat. The treble staff is initially silent. In the third measure, the 'Answer' is introduced in the right hand, transposing the subject into the dominant (F major), with notes: F, G, A, B, C, D, E, F. This answer continues through the fourth and fifth measures. In the fifth measure, the subject is also transposed into the dominant and appears in the right hand, with notes: F, G, A, B, C, D, E, F, while the bass hand continues with the original subject.

The second system of the musical score continues the exposition. The treble staff features a complex texture where the subject and answer are intertwined, with some notes in orange and others in blue. The bass staff continues with the original subject in the left hand, providing a harmonic foundation for the upper parts.
