Phenomenology and Treatment of Psychiatric Emergencies B.S. Comstock, W.E. Fann, A.D. Pokorny, Robert L. Williams, 2012-12-06 psychiatric treatment approaches there are opportunities for trial and error exploration and reconsideration revision of treatment approach and correction of errors Revisions and corrections are based on observations of progress and on response from patients about the impact of treatment efforts But emergency interventions usually are one time efforts involving a sequence of evaluation therapeutic intervention and referral out Response is limited or absent and there are no opportunities for corrections over time Therefore interventions and referrals must be made on the basis of first evaluations with positive conviction related to current best effort and despite the lack of guidance derived from tracking the patient's progress over time The staff must tolerate the risk taking required and must also be prepared to forego the gratification of seeing the beneficial results of the work done Even in programs structured to allow return visits and despite the occasional information provided by other agencies after referrals the majority of patients are lost to follow up The usefulness of specific interventions is hard to evaluate and the satisfaction of seeing a task completed is rarely available The emergency program staff must tolerate a considerable amount of stress in the environment Emergency care centers are collection points for an extraordinary volume of human suffering The anxieties and strains associated with persistent urgency of need alarm related to unexpected difficulties fearfulness about outcome closeness of death and presence of pain pervade the atmosphere Cumulated Index Medicus, 1995 Emergency Psychiatry Tony Thrasher, 2023 An excellent introduction to the field of emergency mental health issues with a focus on the best approaches and diagnoses one is most likely to encounter in the field This primer is a phenomenal resource for a myriad of healthcare professionals from the seasoned clinician to medical student looking to better prepare for a clinical rotation or internship Essentials of Mental Health Nursing BT Basavanthappa, 2011-08 Addiction Counseling Review Robert Holman Coombs, 2004-12-13 Addiction Counseling Review Preparing for Comprehensive Certification and Licensing Examinations offers a clear readable overview of the knowledge and skills those training as alcohol or other drug counselors need to pass their final degree program certification and licensing examinations It is organized into six sections Addiction Basics Personality Development and Drugs Common Client Problems Counseling Theories and Skills Treatment Resources and Career Issues Each chapter includes challenging study questions that enable readers to assess their own level of understanding including true false multiple choice and provocative discussion questions Each chapter also provides a glossary of key terms and in addition to references annotated suggestions for further reading and Web site exploration This book will be a resource to which students and trainees will go on referring to long after it has helped them through their examinations In addition faculty and established professionals will find it a useful one stop summary of current thinking about best practice Emergencies in Mental Health Practice Phillip M. Kleespies,2000-01-27 Focusing on acute clinical situations in which there is an imminent risk of serious harm or death to self or others this practical resource helps clinicians evaluate and manage a wide range of mental health emergencies Authors examine how to distinguish crises that are emergencies from those that are not and provide basic instruction in crisis theory and emergency interviewing The volume then provides guidelines for intervening with suicidal patients potentially violent patients and vulnerable victims of violence as well as patients facing life and death medical decisions with careful attention to risk management and forensic issues Also addressed are emergency related conditions including self mutilation alcohol and drug related crises adverse reactions to psychotropic medication and psychological symptoms of medical conditions Finally chapters consider the effects of emergency intervention on clinicians and offer suggestions for managing stress Epidemiology and Community Psychiatry P. Pichot,2013-03-14 The purpose of the World Psychiatric Association is to coordinate the activities of its Member Societies on a world wide scale and to advance enquiry into the etiology pathology and treatment of mental illness To further this purpose the Association organizes mono or multi thematic Regional Symposia in different parts of the world twice a year and World Congresses dealing with all individual fields of psychiatry once every five or six years Between these meetings the continuation of the Association s scientific work is assured through the activities of its specialty sections each covering an important field of psychiatry The programs of the World Congresses reflect on the one hand the intention to present the coordinating functions of the Association and on the other to open a broad platform for a free exchange of views Thus the VII World Congress of Psychiatry held in Vienna from July 11 to 16 1983 was composed of two types of scientific events those structured by the Association and those left to the initiative of the participants The first type comprised Plenary Sessions planned by the Scientific Program Committee and Section Symposia organized by the WPA sections the second embraced Free Symposia free papers video sessions and poster presentations prepared by the participants Altogether 10 Plenary Sessions 52 Section Symposia and 105 Free Symposia took place and 78 free papers and poster sessions and 10 video sessions were held
