Natural Patterns Of Human Bonding A Me:

In Search of Human Nature Mary E. Clark, 2005-08-18 In this magisterial new work biologist Mary Clark argues that the Western view of human nature is built around highly atomistic and ideological framework that encourages us to think about the world and ourselves in the wrong way

Bonds of Imperfection Oliver O'Donovan, Joan Lockwood O'Donovan, 2004 Two of today's leading experts on the Christian political tradition plumb significant moments in premodern Christian political thought using them in original and adventurous ways to clarify, criticize and redirect contemporary political perspectives and discussions Drawing on the Bible and the Western history of ideas Oliver and Joan Lockwood O'Donovan explore key Christian voices on the political action, political institutions and political society Covered here are Bonaventure, Thomas Ockham, Wycliff, Erasmus, Luther, Grotius, Barth, Ramsey and key modern papal encyclicals The authors' discussion takes them across a wide range of political concerns from economics and personal freedom to liberal democracy and the nature of statehood Ultimately these insightful essays point to political judgment as the strength of the past theological tradition and its eclipse as the weakness of present political thought

Social Bonds as Freedom Paul Dumouchel, Reiko Gotoh, 2015-08-01 Central to discussions of multiculturalism and minority rights in modern liberal societies is the idea that the particular demands of minority groups contradict the requirements of equality, anonymity and universality for citizenship and belonging The contributors to this volume question the significance of this dichotomy between the universal and the particular, arguing that it reflects how the modern state has instituted the basic rights and obligations of its members and that these institutions are undergoing fundamental transformations under the pressure of globalization They show that the social bonds uniting groups constitute the means of our freedom rather than obstacles to achieving the universal
