A Gift for My Son Mary Wuestefeld,2000 Many years ago I was one of those naive expectant mothers who thought that a simple formula of faith love and discipline would produce the perfect child Those who had a problem child I surmised either didn t have enough religion in their home didn t love their child enough or didn t discipline him her enough So when much to my dismay and perplexity my child began to display chronic problem behaviors I blamed myself To make matters worse the counselors we sought out for help blamed me also As I searched for answers during this difficult time however I discovered many things about myself my son human nature and God that profoundly changed my views on parenting and religion My discoveries also led to a better understanding of God s unconditional love and enabled me to give this most precious of all gifts to my first born child My life has been tremendously blessed by going through this most challenging experience and I hope as you read my story that your life and your parenting experience will be enriched also The Spectator ,1865
