The Voice of the Masters Roberto González Echevarría, 2010-07-05 By one of the most original and learned critical voices in Hispanic studies a timely and ambitious study of authority as theme and authority as authorial strategy in modern Latin American literature An ideology is implicit in modern Latin American literature argues Roberto González Echevarría a through which both the literature itself and criticism of it define what Latin American literature is and how it ought to be read In the works themselves this ideology is constantly subjected to a radical critique and that critique renders the ideology productive and in a sense is what constitutes the work In literary criticism however too frequently the ideology merely serves as support for an authoritative discourse that seriously misrepresents Latin American literature In The Voice of the Masters González Echevarría attempts to uncover the workings of modern Latin American literature by creating a dialogue of texts a dynamic whole whose parts are seven illuminating essays on seminal texts in the tradition As he says To have written a sustained expository book would have led me to make the same kind of critical error that I attribute to most criticism of Latin American literature I would have naively assumed an authoritative voice while attempting a critique of precisely that critical gesture Instead major works by Barret Cabrera Infante Carpentier Cortázar Fuentes Gallegos García Márquez Roa Bastos and Rodó are the object of a set of independent deconstructive and reconstructive readings Writing in the tradition of Derrida and de Man González Echevarría brings to these readings both the penetrative brilliance of the French master and a profound understanding of historical and cultural context His insightful annotation of Cabrera Infante's Meta End the full text of which is presented at the close of the study clearly demonstrates these qualities and exemplifies his particular approach to the text

The Future of the World Heritage Convention for Marine Conservation UNESCO, 2016-12-26

Second Language and Heritage Learners in Mixed Classrooms Patricia Bayona, Elena García-Martín, 2022-11-29 This book addresses the complexity of mixed language classroom learning environments in which heritage learners HL and second language L2 learners are concurrently exposed to language learning in the same physical space Heritage speakers defined widely as those exposed to the target language at home from an early age tend to display higher oral proficiency and increased intercultural proficiency but lesser metalinguistic and grammatical awareness than L2 learners The theoretical and pedagogical challenges of engaging both types of learners simultaneously without polarizing the classroom community dictates the need for well defined differentiated learning strategies in response this book offers best practices and reproducible pedagogical initiatives and methodologies for different levels of instruction The chapters address themes including translanguaging linguistic identity metalinguistic awareness and intercultural competence with contributions from Europe Africa and the United States
