Red Bird Mary Oliver, 2008-04-01 Red bird came all winter firing up the landscape as nothing else could So begins Mary Oliver's twelfth book of poetry and the image of that fiery bird stays with the reader appearing in unexpected forms and guises until in a postscript he explains himself For truly the body needs a song a spirit a soul And no less to make this work the soul has need of a body and I am both of the earth and I am of the inexplicable beauty of heaven where I fly so easily so welcome yes and this is why I have been sent to teach this to your heart This collection of sixty one new poems the most ever in a single volume of Oliver's work includes an entirely new direction in the poet's work a cycle of eleven linked love poems a dazzling achievement As in all of Mary Oliver's work the pages overflow with her keen observation of the natural world and her gratitude for its gifts for the many people she has loved in her seventy years as well as for her disobedient dog Percy But here too the poet's attention turns with ferocity to the degradation of the Earth and the denigration of the peoples of the world by those who love power Red Bird is unquestionably Mary Oliver's most wide ranging volume to date
