

The background of the cover is a photograph of a vast, arid landscape in Western Tibet. The terrain is characterized by rolling hills and valleys, with a small white structure visible on a distant peak. The lighting is warm, suggesting a sunset or sunrise, which casts long shadows and highlights the textures of the land. The overall mood is one of isolation and the harsh beauty of the environment.

Nomads Of Western Tibet The Survival Of A Way Of Life:

Nomads of Western Tibet, 1990-01-01 this copiously illustrated book is a fascinating account of these remarkable people of their traditional way of survival In a world where indigenous peoples and their environments are vanishing at alarming rates the survival of this way of life represents an unexpected and heartening victory for humanity Ethnicity in Asia Colin Mackerras, 2003-09-02 A comparative introduction to ethnicity in East and Southeast Asia since 1945 Each chapter covers a particular country looking at core issues such as ethnic minorities and groups population language culture and traditional religion Tibetan Diary Geoff Childs, 2004-09-27 High in the Nepali Himalaya are a number of ethnic Tibetan communities Geoff Childs presents a portrait of Nubri Kutang in which he chronicles the daily lives of community members in all their tangled intricacies The Making of Modern Tibet A. Tom Grunfeld, 2015-02-24 An account of Tibet and the Tibetan people that emphasises the political history of the 20th century This book attempts to reach beyond the polemics by considering the various historical arguments using archival material from several nations and drawing conclusions focused on available documents The Tibet Journal (Vol. XLVIII, No. 1, Spring/Summer 2023), 2023-01-01 Nomadic Peoples and Human Rights Jérémie Gilbert, 2014-03-26 Although nomadic peoples are scattered worldwide and have highly heterogeneous lifestyles they face similar threats to their mobile livelihood and survival Commonly nomadic peoples are facing pressure from the predominant sedentary world over mobility land rights water resources access to natural resources and migration routes Adding to these traditional problems rapid growth in the extractive industry and the need for the exploitation of the natural resources are putting new strains on nomadic lifestyles This book provides an innovative rights based approach to the issue of nomadism looking at issues including discrimination persecution freedom of movement land rights cultural and political rights and effective management of natural resources Jeremie Gilbert analyses the extent to which human rights law is able to provide protection for nomadic peoples to perpetuate their own way of life and culture The book questions whether the current human rights regime is able to protect nomadic peoples and highlights the lacuna that currently exists in international human rights law in relation to nomadic peoples It goes on to propose avenues for the development of specific rights for nomadic peoples offering a new reading on freedom of movement land rights and development in the context of nomadism Sediments of Time Mark Elvin, Cuirong Liu, 1998-01-13 This collection of essays is the first relatively comprehensive survey of the environmental history of China Thriving Beyond Sustainability Andres R. Edwards, 2010-05-01 Turning challenge into opportunity a survey of successful sustainable ideas and practices from around the world A Change in Worlds on the Sino-Tibetan Borderlands Jack Patrick Hayes, 2013-12-19 A Change in Worlds explores the environmental economic and political history of the Sino Tibetan Songpan region of northern Sichuan from the late imperial Qing Dynasty to the early 21st century A historically Tibetan region on the eastern edge of the Tibetan Plateau with significant Han and Muslim Chinese populations Songpan played important roles in the development of western and modern China's ethnic relations policies forestry sector grasslands and environmental conservation and recent developments in eco and ethnic tourism as part of various Chinese states However in spite of close associations with various Tibetan and Chinese regimes the region also has a rich history of local independence and resilient nomadic semi nomadic and agricultural populations and identities The Sino Tibetan diversity in Songpan partly formed by unique ecological conditions conditioned all attempts to incorporate the region into larger and more centralized state homogenizing structures This historical study analyzes the social force of markets and nature in the Songpan region in concert with the political and social conflicts and compromise at the heart of changing political regimes and the area's ethnic groups It presents new perspectives on the social transformation and economies of Tibetans and Han Chinese from the late Qing Dynasty to Mao era and contemporary western China It not only allows for a new understanding of how the natural environment and landscapes fit into the imagination of the Sino Tibetan borderlands it also figures in the challenges of negotiating ethnic and market relations among societies The mix of complicated relations over natural environment resources politics and markets was at the heart of the region's social and political infrastructures with far reaching implications for both historical and contemporary China

Apparitions of the Self Janet Gyatso, 2020-11-10 Apparitions of the Self is a groundbreaking investigation into what is known in Tibet as secret autobiography an exceptional rarely studied literary genre that presents a personal exploration of intimate religious experiences In this volume Janet Gyatso translates and studies the outstanding pair of secret autobiographies by the famed Tibetan Buddhist visionary Jigme Lingpa 1730-1798 whose poetic and self-conscious writings are as much about the nature of his own identity memory and the undecidabilities of autobiographical truth as they are narrations of the actual content of his experiences Their translation in this book marks the first time that works of this sort have been translated in a Western language Gyatso is among the first to consider Tibetan literature from a comparative perspective examining the surprising fit as well as the misfit of Western literary theory with Tibetan autobiography She examines the intriguing questions of why Tibetan Buddhists produced so many autobiographies far more than other Asian Buddhists and how autobiographical self-assertion is possible even while Buddhists believe that the self is ultimately an illusion Also explored are Jigme Lingpa's historical milieu his revelatory visions of the ancient Tibetan dynasty and his meditative practices of personal cultivation The book concludes with a study of the subversive female figure of the Dakini in Jigme Lingpa's writings and the implications of her gender her sexuality and her unsettling discourse for the autobiographical subject in Tibet

Tibet Michael Buckley, 2006 Provides comprehensive information on the geography history wildlife governmental structure economy diversity peoples religion and culture of Tibet

Nomad-State Relationships in International Relations Jamie Levin, 2020-04-06 This book explores non-state actors that are or have been migratory crossing borders as a matter of practice and identity Where non-state actors have received considerable attention amongst political scientists in recent years those that predate the state nomads have not States however tend to take nomads quite seriously both as a material and ideational threat Through this volume the authors rectify this by introducing nomads as a distinct topic of study It examines why states treat nomads as a threat and it looks particularly at how nomads push back against state intrusions Ultimately this exciting volume introduces a new topic of study to IR theory and politics presenting a detailed study of nomads as non state actors

The Struggle for Modern Tibet: The Autobiography of Tashi Tsering Melvyn C. Goldstein, William R Siebenschuh, Tashi Tsering, 2015-02-24 This captivating autobiography by a Tibetan educator and former political prisoner is full of twists and turns Born in 1929 in a Tibetan village Tsering developed a strong dislike of his country's theocratic ruling elite As a 13 year old member of the Dalai Lama's personal dance troupe he was frequently whipped or beaten by teachers for minor infractions A heterosexual he escaped by becoming a drombo or homosexual passive partner and sex toy for a well connected monk After studying at the University of Washington he returned to Chinese occupied Tibet in 1964 convinced that Tibet could become a modernized society based on socialist egalitarian principles only through cooperation with the Chinese Denounced as a counterrevolutionary during Mao's Cultural Revolution he was arrested in 1967 and spent six years in prison or doing forced labor in China Officially exonerated in 1978 Tsering became a professor of English at Tibet University in Lhasa He now raises funds to build schools in Tibet's villages emphasizing Tibetan language and culture

Historical Dictionary of Tibet John Powers, David Templeman, 2020-10-22 Historical Dictionary of Tibet Second Edition is a comprehensive resource for Tibetan history politics religion major figures prehistory and paleontology with a primary emphasis on the modern period It also covers the surrounding areas influenced by Tibetan religion and culture including India China Nepal Bhutan Central Asia and Russia It contains a chronology a glossary an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 500 cross referenced entries on important personalities as well as aspects of the country's politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Tibet

On the Cultural Revolution in Tibet Melvyn C. Goldstein, Ben Jiao, Tanzen Lhundrup, 2010-10-28 This resource revisits the Nyemo incident which has long been romanticised as the epitome of Tibetan nationalist resistance against China The authors show that far from being a spontaneous battle for independence this event was actually part of a struggle between rival revolutionary groups and was not ethnically based

Climate Change Modelling for Local Adaptation in the Hindu Kush - Himalayan Region Armando Lamadrid, Ilan Kelman, 2012-06-28 This book presents a portrait of the social advantages and limitations of climate change related modeling in the Hindu Kush Himalayan HKH region It addresses the implied but largely uncritiqued relationships between scientific modeling knowledge and local adaptation responses It also presents theoretical perspectives on modeling and adaptation

Disasters, Culture, Politics Liu Mingxin, Elya Tzaneva, Fang Sumei, 2009-10-02 The articles in the volume contribute to a relatively new domain of scholarly research the ecological anthropology focusing especially on contemporary crises and disasters from different background natural social technological etc Based upon expanded field work in some cases from a terrain difficult to access the authors investigate a variety of disasters situations in two contemporary societies of the developing world China in Southeast Asia and Bulgaria in the Southeast European Balkans The forms of disasters researched include epidemics and health threats SARS AIDS Bird Flu rat disease small pox typhoid fever etc ecologically related disasters bio disasters social catastrophic events transition in political regime and towards reforming and opening also towards a market economy natural crises arid areas snow falls rain falls draughts Attention is paid to a full scale disasters life cycle from the creation and evaluation of a risk vulnerability individual and social reaction and coping strategies up to the relief management The articles investigate the interrelationships between cultural demographic political economic and environmental domains related to the disasters e g the social context of the crisis It is the authors understanding that this context defines the preparedness mobilization and prevention of disasters for each discrete group of people or society The volume applies a broad ethnological approach to the field of disasters study which interprets them comparatively contextually and in cross cultural perspective It is conceived as a first volume of a series investigation papers of a joint research team on this topic

Population and Society in Contemporary Tibet Rong Ma, 2011-01-01 This extensive survey documents Tibetan society over five decades including population structure in rural and urban areas marriage and migration patterns the maintenance of language and traditional culture economic transitions relating to income and consumption habits educational development and the growth of civil society and social organizations In addition to household surveys completed over twenty years the book provides a systematic analysis of all available social and census data released by the Chinese government and a thorough review of Western and Chinese literature on the topic It is the first book on Tibetan society published in English by a mainland China scholar and covers several sensitive issues in Tibetan studies including population changes Han migration into Tibetan areas intermarriage patterns and ethnic relations Ma Rong is a widely respected demographer and professor of sociology at Peking University He spent five years in Inner Mongolia during the Cultural Revolution and was one of the first Chinese students to study in the US after Deng Xiaoping's reforms receiving his doctorate degree from Brown University The academic study of Tibet still suffers from a lack of accurate data and restrictions on access to Tibet for research This very useful analysis will increase the quality of the discussion and help to correct many inaccurate Western impressions of Tibet Gerard Postiglione University of Hong Kong

Grasslands of the World Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, 2005-01-01 This book brings together information on the contrasting characteristics condition present use and problems of the world's main natural grasslands Since grassland is commercialized through the grazing animal particular attention is paid to the livestock production systems associated with each main type Grazing resources are more than simply edible herbage many other factors have to be taken into account notably water in all areas and shelter in winter cold climates Seasonality of forage supply is a characteristic of almost all grazing lands so the strategies for dealing with lean seasons are described The main problems of each type are mentioned and possible strategies for their sustainable management discussed taking into account their multiple functions not only livestock production The book is primarily aimed at agricultural scientists educationalists extensionists and decision makers with interests in responsible use of extensive grasslands The Tibetan Diaspora Tenzin Dolma,2019-01-01 The book is an anthology of hand picked articles written on Tibetan refugees livelihood in exile Each writer did a thorough research and their work clearly reflects their hardwork unique in its own way Backed by their study some shared their opinion and some synthesized different views and studies Without limiting to the socio political condition of Tibetan refugees the book touches large array of subjects the tradition culture most importantly their dedication The book will help you understand the struggle of Tibetan refugee from early stages to have become self reliant
