Non Aligned Storyteller:

The Non-aligned Storyteller Thomas McCarthy, 1984 Includes poems that develop both personal and public themes

Storytelling in Participatory Arts with Young People Catherine Heinemeyer, 2020-06-30 This book draws on the author's experience as a storyteller drama practitioner and researcher to articulate an emerging dialogic approach to storytelling in participatory arts educational mental health youth theatre and youth work contexts It argues that oral storytelling offers a rich and much needed channel for intergenerational dialogue with young people The book keeps theory firmly tethered to practice Section 1 Storyknowing traces the history of oral storytelling practice with adolescents across diverse contexts and brings into clear focus the particular nature of the storytelling exchange and narrative knowledge Section 2 Telling Stories introduces readers to some of the key challenges and possibilities of dialogic storytelling by reflecting on stories from the author's own arts based practice research with adolescents illustrating these with young people's artistic responses to stories Finally section 3 Story Gaps conceptualises dialogic storytelling by exploring three different gaps the gap between storyteller and listener the gaps in the story and the gaps which storytellers can open up within institutions The book includes chapters taking a special focus on storytelling in schools and in mental health settings as well as guided reflections for readers to relate the issues raised to their own practice

Contemporary Irish Poetry Elmer Andrews, 2016-04-30 Contains 14 essays dealing with the poetry that has come out of Ireland since the mid 1960s The first half of the book is devoted to general issues and themes and takes account of the interrelationships of contemporary Irish poetry The second half concentrates on the work of individual poets

Storytelling and Drama Hugo Bowles, 2010-01-27 How do characters tell stories in plays and for what dramatic purpose This volume provides the first systematic analysis of narrative episodes in drama from an interactional perspective applying sociolinguistic theories of narrative and insights from conversation analysis to literary dialogue The aim of the book is to show how narration can become drama and how analysis of the way a character tells a story can be the key to understanding its role in the unfolding action The book's interactional approach which analyses the way in which the characteristic features of everyday conversational stories are used by dramatists to create literary effects offers an additional tool for dramatic criticism The book should be of interest to scholars and students of narrative research conversation and discourse analysis stylistics dramatic discourse and theatre studies Winner of 2012 Esse Book Award for Language and Linguistics

Pandemonium Thomas McCarthy, 2016-11-15 Written in the wake of Ireland's 2008 economic collapse Thomas McCarthy's Pandemonium moves between lament and protest in search of a meaningful response in language Many of the poems were written during a period of retreat along Ireland's south west coast a landscape that imbues McCarthy's politics with geological intensity The Atlantic horizon where the sun lies down in the west to die is mirrored inland by corruption and rot a modern Ireland beset in the poet's eyes by financial and moral pandemonium McCarthy's subtle satiric wit and understated lyricism preserve raw outrage as historical document His poems register the moral ire of many during a pivotal era of Irish history leading with the poet's only weapon the word the ink trail that pain makes on the page
