Hemenway,2010-07-09 To witness effectively and powerfully to Christian testimonies of care and compassion of justice and mercy of healing and wholeness it is necessary to foster awareness of the realities of the present system of retributive justice if there is to be any hope of transformation to a system of justice which is restorative Forget Them Not provides a history of the prison system as a means of punishment contrasting it with the relatively recent but growing practice of restorative justice Joanne Hemenway explores the concept of disconnection as radical evil as a separation from God who is the source of our being and shows how our present approach to punishment fosters this evil The present system with its motif of retributive justice generates shame rejection and loneliness which stokes the fires of anger and rage This breeds deep disconnection which only serves to fuel further cycles of violence Hemenway presents three vignettes designed to help explore forgiveness in the context of both retributive and restorative justice To promote healing and connection Forget Them Not introduces compassionate witnessing in prison ministry as a way to develop awareness and empowerment Deeply Felt, Reflections on Religion & Violence within the Anarchist Turn Karen Kennedy,2015-10-26 This book is a reflection upon the anarchist turn It takes three newish anarchists and interprets their work following the method of exegesis Two questions guide the work What can the anarchist turn tell us about revolution and nonviolence and what can it tell us about contemporary religion The protagonists are David Graeber Timothy Morton and Simon Critchley This book is of interest to anarchists activists and philosophers Indeed anyone doing and interested in interdisciplinary approaches to important cultural questions and the building of nonviolent cultures should find at least parts of this book interesting Mennonite Life ,1996 One Barrel At A Time Jack Carmichael,2013-08 In April 2005 two days after my 76th birthday I became the

Protestant Chaplain at California Correctional Center in Susanville California The warden hired me for the job of creating a Faith Based Rehabilitation Program taught by inmates supported by unpaid Outside Volunteers It was anticipated that it could be a rehabilitation program for the twenty six State Prisons in California as well a challenge for the myriad jails and prisons throughout the United States To overcome the warehousing model of incarcerating and housing inmate in prisons throughout most prison systems it is imperative that inexpensive programs be developed to counteract the chilling effect of sparse and ineffective free time support for the inmate population California recidivism rates in state prisons exceed 80% It is expected that is much the same across the United States Something needs to be done to counteract this and the CCC model is one attempt to do it Included in this book are anecdotal examples and testimonies which point to this possibility The challenges or barrels related in this attempt to change the recidivism rate at one institution tell us it won t be easy New ideas are hard to come by in prison the old and tried and failed to often have the upper hand As you follow my story you will see how and who are the advocates and foes of change in the way prisons are operated The story told here can benefit the families of the more than 1 000 000 inmates in the prisons and jails in America It can provide insights into the prison life for the students in the Correctional Curriculums in the colleges and universities of America If the book were read by the personnel in the Administration of State Prisons they might be challenged to work to change the climate in their jails and prisons Whether any of the above read it isn t as important as if you read it
