Knowledge Society and Education in the Asia-Pacific José Ernesto Rangel Delgado, Antonina Ivanova Boncheva, 2021-07-21 This book explores recent trends in the knowledge based society and education field in Asia Pacific and discusses future challenges in the region It presents studies on the development of scientific thought in the field on the knowledge based society in the Pacific Circle This book explores the theoretical framework of the knowledge based society framed by the borders imposed by the Pacific Ocean particularly from the perspective of the Pacific Circle Consortium PCC in the face of a paradigm shift to satisfy the human needs that must be preserved to guarantee economic and human conditions that future development requires It analyzes how education relates to the knowledge society in the Asia Pacific region and considers global issues such as environmental degradation climate change pollution soil erosion growth of the population It discusses how these issues concerns parents educators civil societies and governments of the countries around the Pacific Circle This book explores the necessity of changing the current transformative paradigm to one that ensures environmental sustainability with the support of scientific education and research as an issue that must be integrated into the curricula in schools at all educational levels

Science and the Pacific War Roy M. MacLeod, 1999-12-31 In 1995 the fiftieth anniversary of the end of the Second World War occasioned many reflections on the place of science and technology in the conflict That the war ended with Allied victory in the Pacific theatre inevitably focussed attention upon the Pacific region and particularly upon the Manhattan project and its outcome It was in the Pacific that Western physics and engineering gave birth to the Atomic Age However the Pacific war had also proved a testing time and a testing space for other disciplines and institutions Extreme environments and operational distances and the fundamental demands of logistics required the Allies and the Japanese to innovate many scientific and technological practices Just as medicine and botany were called upon to fight tropical diseases and insect pests so engineers anthropologists and geographers were called upon to understand local conditions and climates and to work with local peoples whose traditional lives were changed forever by the experience At the same time the war played midwife to a host of new developments not least in scientific intelligence and in chemical and biological weapons which were to acquire far greater importance after 1945

Asia in the Pacific Islands R. G. Crocombe, 2007 A spectacular transition is under way in the Pacific Islands as a result of which all our lives will be radically different In the last fifty years or so Asia has begun to play a bigger and bigger role in all aspects of Islands life migration trade and investment aid and development information and media religion culture and sport It is replacing the West The process is irreversible With his trademark breadth and depth of knowledge and understanding of the region based on over half a century of experience study and deliberation Ron Crocombe documents the early connections between Asia and the Pacific details recent and continuing changes and poses challenging theories about the future Publisher

study is the first in depth analysis of the Fulbright exchange program in a single country Drawing on previously unexplored archives and oral history the authors investigate the educational political and diplomatic dimensions of a complex bi national program as experienced by Australian and American scholars The book begins with the postwar context of the scheme s origins moves through its difficult Australian establishment during the early Cold War the challenges posed by the Vietnam War and the impacts of civil rights and gender parity movements and late 20th century economic belt tightening How the program s goal of mutual understanding was understood and enacted across six decades lies at the heart of the book which weaves institutional and individual experiences together with broader geopolitical issues Bringing a complex and nuanced analysis to the Australia US relationship the authors offer fresh insights into the global significance of the Fulbright Program

Citizenship Curriculum in Asia and the Pacific David L. Grossman, Wing On Lee, Kerry J. Kennedy, 2008-08-31 Based on case studies of 11 societies in the world s most dynamic region this book signals a new direction of study at the intersection of citizenship education and the curriculum Following their successful volume Citizenship Education in Asia and the Pacific Concepts and Issues published as No 14 in this series the editors widely regarded as leaders in the field in the Asia Pacific region have gone beyond broad citizenship education frameworks to examine the realities tensions and pressures that influence the formation of the citizenship curriculum Chapter authors from different societies have addressed two fundamental questions 1 how is citizenship education featured in the current curriculum reform agenda in terms of both policy contexts and values and 2 to what extent do the reforms in citizenship education reflect current debates within the society From comparative analysis of these 11 case studies the editors have found a complex picture of curriculum reform that indicates deep tensions between global and local agendas On one hand there is substantial evidence of an increasingly common policy rhetoric in the debates about citizenship education On the other it is evident that this discourse does not necessarily extend to citizenship curriculum which in most places continues to be constructed according to distinctive social political and cultural contexts Whether the focus is on Islamic values in Pakistan an emerging discourse about Chinese democracy a nostalgic conservatism in Australia or a continuing nation building project in Malaysia the cases show that distinctive social values and ideologies construct national citizenship curricula in Asian contexts even in this increasingly globalized era This impressive collection of case studies of a diverse group of societies informs and enriches understanding of the complex relationship between citizenship education and the curriculum both regionally and globally Skills

Development for Inclusive and Sustainable Growth in Developing Asia-Pacific Rupert Maclean, Shanti Jagannathan, Jouko Sarvi, 2012-12-09 Focusing on the Asia Pacific region which in recent years has been the engine of global economic growth this volume surveys trends and prospects in technical and vocational education and training TVET with particular reference to achieving inclusive growth and the greening of economies Underlying the increasing pressure for new models of TVET provision is the rapid pace of technological change demand for a work force which is highly responsive to evolving needs and a transforming market place that calls for higher order skills and lifelong learning The book proposes a re engineered modernized TVET system that fosters an innovative approach which enhances the employability of workers as well as the sustainability of their livelihoods The book includes contributions from leading policy makers researchers and practitioners including those in the private sector in analyzing and forecasting the most urgent priorities in skills development The book argues for creative approaches to TVET design and delivery particularly with a view to improve job prospects and meeting the goals of inclusion sustainable development and social cohesion Addressing issues such as the chronic mismatches between skills acquired and actual skills required in the work place the volume proposes diversified approaches towards workforce development and partnerships with the private sector to improve the quality and relevance of skills development The new imperatives created by greening economies and responses required in skills development and training are addressed Developing TVET is a high priority for governments in the Asia Pacific region as they seek to achieve long term sustainable growth since the continued success of their economic destinies depend on it The volume also includes an emerging framework for skills development for inclusive and sustainable growth in the Asia and Pacific region

Australia, New Zealand, and the Pacific Islands since the First World War William S. Livingston, Wm. Roger Louis, 2014-08-04 Three forces dwindling British power rising American influence and nationalism in a variety of forms have transformed Australia New Zealand and the adjacent islands since 1919 In this volume some of the most distinguished scholars of the Pacific region assess these significant historical changes These essays deal with international relations politics changing social structures and literature since World War I The themes of the volume as a whole are social and humanistic they concern the evolution of both a regional identity and separate national identities in the Southwest Pacific The unique areal and thematic concentration of this book makes it essential reading for all those interested in the history politics and culture of the Pacific Hearings United States. Craig, 2004-10-25 An accessible concise reference source on Polynesia s complex mythology product of a culture little known outside its home Encounters with the West introduced Polynesian mythology to the world and sealed its fate as a casualty of colonialism But for centuries before the Europeans came that mythology was as vast as the triangle of ocean in which it flourished as diverse as the people it served and as complex as the mythologies of Greece and Rome. Students, researchers, and enthusiasts can follow vivid retellings of stories of creation, death, and great voyages tracking variations from island to island. They can use the book's reference section for information on major deities, heroes, elves, fairies, and recurring themes, as well as the mythic implications of everything from dogs and volcanoes to the hula, Easter Island, and tattooing invented in the South Pacific and popularized by returning sailors. Sailing Directions (planning Guide) for the South Pacific Ocean, United States. Defense Mapping Agency. Hydrographic/Topographic Center, 1982. South Pacific Islands Communication, Evangelia Papoutsaki, 2008. Bringing together scholarly contributions on communications issues across the South Pacific islands, this work aims to create a better understanding of what affects information flow and communication in smaller nations and how these impact on national development, governance, and the creation of more cohesive societies.
