

1974 ROGER MOORE

9

THE JAMES BOND 007™ COLLECTION

In this sixth glittering 007 spy classic, The Man With The Golden Gun turns out to be the unseen baddest Christopher Lee, who plays the evil Scaramanga. Bond is threatened with assassination by a golden bullet engraved with 007 which turns him into a deadly game of cat and mouse. The gun itself, once dismantled, appears to be innocent, everyday items including a cigarette case and a fountain pen - all made of gold. An achievement even Q himself might have been proud of.

The producers took out a two year option on an exclusive car stunt which has Bond's car flying off a ramp, turning 360-degrees in the air and landing on an opposite ramp right side up. Moore was allowed to perform this stunt in public for the first time protected. The first jump happened perfectly and we are presented with the total effect in slow motion.
