Nachdenken Uber Christa T:

Christa Wolf Helga H. Pomps, 1973 The Quest for Christa T. Christa Wolf, 1979-11 When The Quest for Christa T was first published in East Germany ten years ago there was an immediate storm bookshops in East Berlin were given instructions to sell it only to well known customers professionally involved in literary matters at the annual meeting of East German Writers Conference Mrs Wolf s new book was condemned Yet the novel has nothing explicit to do with politics A New History of German Literature David E. Wellbery, Judith Ryan, Hans Ulrich Gumbrecht, 2004 A New History of German Literature offers some 200 essays on events in German literary history Literatur - Geschichte Lothar Köhn, 2000

Mimetic Desire Jeffrey Adams, Eric Williams, 1995 Reconsideration of the phenomenon of narcissism in the works of a number of important German writers This important collection of essays opens new psychological perspectives on writers such as Tieck Goethe Freud Thomas Mann Heidegger and Thomas Bernhard Psychological approaches to literature have grown rapidly in the last few decades new developments in literary psychoanalysis mirroring the reassessment of Freud in the psychoanalytic community particularly important revisions have come both from the Lacanian school and from the field of object relations and self psychology The latter studies narcissism not only as a pathological condition but as a healthy and universal aspect of all psychological reality Theorists such as Heinz Kohut have also suggested that the transformations of narcissism can be healthy and may contribute to the development of wisdom humour and creativity The articles in this volume consider the phenomenon of narcissism across a wide range of works several reflecting the current re evaluations of narcissism as a counter challenge to Freudian thought and attitudes Political Narratosophy Senka

Anastasova, 2023-09-29 Political Narratosophy offers a critically subversive rethinking of the political and philosophical significance of narrative and why feminist epistemology and feminist social theory matters for the meaning of the self and narrativity Through a re examination of the notions of democracy and emancipation Senka Anastasova coins the term political narratosophy a unique interpretation of the philosophy of narrative identification and disidentification developed in conversation with philosophers Jacques Rancière Nancy Fraser and Paul Ricoeur Utilizing the author s own identity as a feminist philosopher has lived in socialist Yugoslavia post Yugoslavia and Macedonia now North Macedonia Anastasova explores the fluctuating and disappearing borders around which identity is situated in a country that no longer exists She expertly reveals how the subject finds makes and unmakes itself through narrativity politics and imagination Political Narratosophy is an important intervention in political philosophy and a welcome contribution to the historiography on female authors who lived through twentieth century communism and its aftermath It will be of great interest to scholars and researchers in the fields of political theory philosophy women s studies international relations identity studies comparative literary studies and aesthetics studies Between Sarmatia and Socialism John P. Wiczorek, 2021-11-08 Interest in Johannes Bobrowski 1917 1965 has suffered from an impression of the complexity of his works and of the narrowness of his focus on The Germans and their Eastern European neighbours The current study re examines aspects of Bobrowski s Sarmatian works especially their chronological development but places them within the wider context of the whole of his oeuvre It looks at the long period of development before he discovered his theme in the early 1950s and examines his development after Sarmatische Zeit and Schattenland Str me seeing the volume Wetterzeichen as moving increasingly away from the past and towards more contemporary issues His short stories and novels are related to the issues confronting him in East Germany and develop increasingly into responses to immediate poetic and social problems Far from being a remote and backward orientated Sarmatian Bobrowski emerges as a writer attempting to communicate with a society which he felt threatened to ignore basic human needs and aspirations The study makes use of material from Bobrowski s Nachla to present a figure looking for and offering patterns for orientation in his East German society but with renewed relevance for post unification Germany

The German Historical Novel since the Eighteenth Century Daniela Richter,2016-12-14 The historical novel is a genre which has enjoyed widespread popularity in Germany from its beginnings in the eighteenth century At that time increased literacy among the middle and lower classes had resulted in a greater demand for reading material aimed at a general audience Because of its educational and entertaining characteristics the historical novel quickly became a dominant genre among other forms of popular literature To this day it constitutes a major sector on the German book market and is together with popular TV series documentaries and museum exhibits an important part of German Geschichtskultur This collection of essays looks at aesthetic and thematic continuities as well as changes in the development of the genre in Germany from the late eighteenth century to the present and gives insights into the novels political and socio cultural implications The articles investigate historical novels from writers such as Benedikte Naubert the mother of German historical fiction nineteenth century popular writers Georg Ebers and Hermann Sudermann modern writers such as Alfred Döblin Hermann Hesse and Hermann Broch post Wende works such as those by Thomas Brussig Christa Wolf and Ingo Schulze and contemporary historical fiction by Sabine Weigand Eveline Hasler and Petra Durst Benning

Metabiography

Caitríona Ní Dhúill,2020-03-09 This book explores the contradictions of biography It charts shifting approaches to the writing and reading of biographies from post hagiographical attitudes of the Enlightenment heroic biographies of Romanticism and irreverent modernist portraits through to contemporary experiments in politically committed and hybrid forms of life writing The book shows how biographical texts in fact destabilise the models of historical visibility cultural prominence and narrative coherence that the genre itself seems to uphold Addressing the fraught relationships between genre and gender private and public image and text life and narrative that play out in the modern biographical tradition Metabiography suggests new possibilities for reading writing and thinking about this enduringly popular genre

The Columbia Guide to the Literatures of Eastern Europe Since 1945 Harold B. Segel,2003 The Iron Curtain concealed from western eyes a vital group of national and regional writers Marked by not only geographical proximity but also by the shared experience of communism and its collapse the countries of Eastern Europe Poland Hungary Albania Romania Bulgaria and the former states of Yugoslavia Czechoslovakia and East Germany share literatures that reveal many common themes when examined together Compiled by a leading scholar the guide includes an overview of literary trends in historical context a listing of some 700 authors by country and an A to Z section of articles on the most influential writers
