Die deutsche Literatur des 20. Jahrhunderts Hermann Wiegmann, 2005 Encyclopedia of Life Writing Margaretta Jolly, 2013-12-04 First published in 2001 This is the first substantial reference work in English on the various forms that constitute life writing As this term suggests the Encyclopedia explores not only autobiography and biography proper but also letters diaries memoirs family histories case histories and other ways in which individual lives have been recorded and structured It includes entries on genres and subgenres national and regional traditions from around the world and important auto biographical writers as well as articles on related areas such as oral history anthropology testimonies and the representation of life stories in non verbal art forms Jews, Germans, Memory Y. Michal Bodemann, 2025-10-01 How was it possible that a new and sizeable Jewish community developed after the Holocaust in Germany of all places Jews Germans Memory undertakes to assess the past present and future of German Jewish relations in the light of recent political changes and the opening up of historical resources This welcome new volume investigates how the groundwork was laid for the new Jewish community in the post war period with different objectives by Jewish leaders and German politicians Its contributors touch upon history literature the media ethnicity politics and social movements and attempt to answer the question of how Jews are socially constructed and how the glorious German Jewish past and the Holocaust have been remembered in the course of recent decades In recent years German Jewry has seen fundamental transformations with the influx from Eastern Europe and a new leadership in the community A new self definition even self assurance and reappraisal in Israel and elsewhere has evolved Historians scholars of cultural studies and those interested in debates on memory and ethnicity will all find something of interest in this diverse volume Jews Germans Memory joins in debate Michael Brenner Micha Brumlik Dan Diner Cilly Kugelmann and Martin L w Beer among the most prominent younger Jewish intellectuals in Germany today with others who have long observed Germany from both inside and outside Y Michal Bodemann John Borneman Andrei Markovits Robin Ostrow Moishe Postone Frank Stern and Jack Zipes Y Michal Bodemann is Professor of Sociology University of Toronto

Textual Responses to German Unification Carol Anne Costabile-Heming, Rachel J. Halverson, Kristie A. Foell, 2013-07-05 The unification of the two German states changed the geo political economic social and cultural borders of Germany and Europe This volume in three parts researches how East German and West German authors and directors reacted to these radical changes The basis of this research are fictional autobiographical journalistic and cinematic texts The authors and directors presented in this volume not only comment on the changes which they themselves experienced but also voice their changing attitudes to their own past within the divided Germany Splintered Innocence Peter Heintz, 2014-02-04 The consequences of war are well known yet the long term psychological impact on children of these traumatic experiences has been a neglected topic in therapeutic literature This book is Designed to help counsellors and therapists working with adults who have suffered war trauma in childhood Based on the author s own clinical practice Drawn on his innovative style of intuitive discovery and exploration of childhood war trauma Makes practical suggestions for mental health professionals working with such patients This book will be invaluable to all those working with Phantoms of War in Contemporary German Literature, Films and Discourse A. Fuchs, 2008-01-09 Phantoms of War in Contemporary German Literature Films and Discourse offers an up to date and comprehensive analysis of fundamental shifts in German cultural memory Focusing on the resurgence of family stories in fiction autobiography and in film this study challenges the institutional boundaries of Germany s memory culture that have guided and arguably limited German identity debates Essays on contemporary German literature are complemented by explorations of heritage films and museum discourse Together these essays put forward a compelling theory of family narratives and a critical evaluation of generational discourse
