Sex in Public Lauren Rosewarne, 2009-03-26 Despite decades of feminist awareness and activism women continue to be portrayed in outdoor advertising in a limited and sexist manner The fact that in public space audiences are exposed to such images without choice renders the issue an important public policy concern Sex in Public utilises a large outdoor advertising data collection to examine the contemporary outdoor advertising landscape documenting the routine portrayal of women as thin white young and idle This book examines why such portrayals are concerning for feminists as well as for public policy and explores the advertising self regulation systems that facilitate the display of such images This book criticises sexist outdoor advertising as a form of sexual harassment given that imagery often bearing very strong semblance to pin ups which would be outlawed in a workplace are readily displayed in public space reflecting a troublesome public policy double standard Understanding sexist outdoor advertising as a form of sexual harassment is a new framework that Sex in Public offers to understand critique and condemn such images

The Pre-Raphaelite Body J. B. Bullen,1998 Pre Raphaelitism was the first avant garde movement in Britain It shocked its first audience and as it modulated into Aestheticism it continued to disturb the British public In this fresh and original study Professor Bullen traces the sources of that shock to the representation of the human body By examining the discourses which were developed to denounce or to explain the new art forms he shows that the distorted maimed or eroticized body formed the principal focus of anxiety in nineteenth century criticism Using a truly interdisciplinary method he relates the painting of Millais and other early Pre Raphaelites to fears about cholera and Catholicism he demonstrates how the body of the sexualized female became an object of obsessive fascination in the painting and poetry of Dante Gabriel Rossetti and William Morris he locates the writing of Swinburne and Prater in the context of the debate over the Woman Question and he shows how the responses to the Aesthetic painting of Burne Jones were conditioned by the sexual psychopathology of mid nineteenth century mental science
