The French Colonial Imagination Nicola Frith, 2014-04-24 The Indian uprisings 1857-58 against British rule in India represent an iconic period within the history of anti colonial resistance. Numerous works have considered these historical events from British and Indian perspectives but none have yet questioned how they were viewed by Britain's foremost colonial rival in India the French. The French Colonial Imagination examines how the potential for Britain to lose its most lucrative colony at the hands of its own colonial subjects allowed French writers to envisage a world freed from British dominance. The uprisings offered the attractive possibility that France could undergo a colonial revival in the wake of British defeat thereby reversing the devastating losses inflicted upon France's former empire at the end of the Napoleonic Wars. Notable among these losses was Britain's decision in the Treaty of 1814 to permanently reduce France's presence in India to five small trading posts scattered around the periphery of British territory. The extent to which the French colonial imagination of the nineteenth century was shaped by the memories of such defeats forms a primary concern of this monograph. This investigation into French responses to the Indian uprisings reveals that French colonial discourse was determined as much by its visions of the colonized other as by the dominance of their British rivals. Drawing from journalistic, historical, political and fictional texts written during Louis Napoleon's Second Empire (1852-70) and in the early years of the Third Republic (1870-1944) The French Colonial Imagination shows how the uprisings gave French writers the opportunity to speak out against the rapacity of British colonialism and its treatment of colonized Indians while simultaneously constructing a competing colonial discourse that would justify further expansion in North Africa and South East Asia. Standing at a crossroads between the loss of Ancien Régime's empire and the Third Republic's ideological investment in overseas expansion, this understudied period of colonial history reveals the centrality of loss, fracture and political emasculation as core preoccupations haunting the French colonial discourse in its quest to regain cultural and ideological ascendancy over its greatest political enemy. French Cultural Studies Marie-Pierre Le Hir, Dana Strand, 2000-06-22 Addresses the theoretical and pedagogical implications of redefining French Studies as an interdisciplinary field while providing practical examples of the kind of criticism that such a shift would entail. Against Interpretation Susan Sontag, 2013-10-01 Includes the essay 'Notes on Camp' the inspiration for the 2019 exhibition 'Notes on Fashion Camp' at the Costume Institute of the Metropolitan Museum of Art. Against Interpretation was Susan Sontag's first collection of essays and is a modern classic. Originally published in 1966 it has never gone out of print and has influenced generations of readers all over the world. It includes the groundbreaking essays 'Notes on Camp' and 'Against Interpretation' as well as her impassioned discussions of Sartre, Camus, Simone Weil, Godard, Beckett, Levi Strauss, science fiction, movies, psychoanalysis and contemporary religious thought. This edition has a new afterword 'Thirty Years Later' in which Sontag restates the terms of her battle against philistinism and against ethical shallowness and indifference. Modes of Censorship Francesca Billiani, 2014-05-22 Modes of Censorship and Translation articulates a variety of scholarly and disciplinary perspectives and offers the reader access to the widening cultural debate on translation and censorship including cross national forms of cultural fertilization It is a study of censorship and its patterns of operation across a range of disciplinary settings from media to cultural and literary studies engaging with often neglected genres and media such as radio cinema and theatre Adopting an interdisciplinary and transnational approach and bringing together contributions based on primary research which often draws on unpublished archival material the volume analyzes the multi faceted relationship between censorship and translation in different national contexts including Italy Spain Great Britain Greece Nazi Germany and the GDR focusing on the political ideological and aesthetic implications of censorship as well as the hermeneutic play fostered by any translational act By offering innovative methodological interpretations and stimulating case studies it proposes new readings of the operational modes of both censorship and translation The essays gathered here challenge current notions of the accessibility of culture whether in overtly ideological and politically repressive contexts or in seemingly neutral cultural scenarios

A Thematic Approach to French Cultural Studies Marie-Anne Visoi, 2012 A Thematic Approach to French Cultural Studies Love Sex and Desire in French Literature and Cinema introduces a selection of major literary texts and film adaptations to students at the intermediate college and university level The goal of this book is to provide a theme based approach for teaching French Cultural Studies by enabling undergraduate students to contextualise and to think conceptually about French culture and its place in the Western culture and tradition One of the most noteworthy aspects of this book is that it includes a collection of effective hands on activities multimedia resources and teaching suggestions which will stimulate students to develop their cultural and literary competency The text based method is designed to encourage close reading of three representative novels in English translation and foster an independent approach to formulating problems and arguments related to specific cultural norms and patterns

French film directors Douglas Morrey, 2005-10-07 This volume offers a new

interpretation of one of the most innovative directors in the history of cinema It is the first book to cover the whole of Godard's career from the French New Wave to the recent triumphs of Histoire(s) du cinéma and Eloge de l'amour Drawing on a wide range of literary filmic and philosophical texts the book places Godard's work within its intellectual context examining how developments in French culture and thought since 1950 have been mirrored in and sometimes anticipated by Godard's films Numerous sequences from Godard's films are singled out for close analysis demonstrating how the director's radical approaches to narrative editing sound and shot composition have made the cinema into an analytical tool in its own right

French Women's Writing 1848-1994 Diana Holmes, 2000-01-12 A wide range of French women writers are surveyed including Sand Colette Beauvoir and Duras among the canonized and many marginalized or forgotten and contemporary names not yet widely known outside France These writers are seen within the political economic and cultural context of women's lives and how these have changed across a century and a half Underpinning the whole account is the relationship between gender and language between politics sexual and textual
