Aaslestad,J. Joor,2014-10-29 Economic warfare during the Napoleonic era transformed international commerce redirecting trade and generating illicit commerce This volume re evaluates the Continental System through urban and regional case studies that analyze the power triangle of the French British and neutral powers and their strategies to adapt to trade restrictions Napoleon's navigation system Frank Edgar Melvin, Napoleon s navigation system A study of trade control during the continental blockade 1919 Imperial Russia and the Struggle for Latin American Independence, 1808-1828 Russell H. Bartley,2014-10-03 This study the first of its kind in English examines Russian responses to the independence movement in Latin America during the early nineteenth century From a strictly presentist perspective the investigation of this subject contributes to the historiography of colonialism and of Latin America s relations with the major world powers In addition it rounds out the story of foreign interests in the emancipation of Spanish and Portuguese America while at the same time shedding new light on the history of Russian overseas expansion The study probes the major determinants of Russian responses to the struggle for independence of colonial Latin America and evaluates from a European perspective the actual impact of tsarist policy on the course of those historic events Drawing on a wide range of printed materials and on hitherto unused manuscript sources from the archives and libraries of Spain Portugal

Brazil and the USSR it isolates Russian New World objectives during the first decades of the nineteenth century and relates those objectives to the formulation of tsarist policy toward the insurgent Iberian colonies Regeneration and Hegemony
Raymond Kubben, 2011-01-17 Providing a case study of relations between France and the Netherlands throughout the Revolutionary Wars this book offers a contribution to the debates on the relation between law and politics at the international level and on state centrism in international relations
