Napoleons Surgeon:

A Surgeon in Napoleon's Grande Armée Calum Johnson, 2025-11-04 Pierre Fran ois Percy was Surgeon in Chief of Napoleon s Grande Arm e This is the first English translation of Baron Percy s notebooks containing his interesting revealing and informative testimony of the Revolutionary and Napoleonic campaigns in which he played an active role as the most senior surgeon in the French Army from 1799 1807 In his journal Percy writes intimately about his life on campaign He recounts his experiences across Europe particularly in Switzerland Helvetia Germany and Poland The journal shows Percy s delight at seeing his surgeons recognized for their work at Eylau and his notes express his shock at the brazen corruption of military officials and the indiscriminate pillaging to which the French army frequently resorted He recounts his audiences with Napoleon during which his pleas for more resources and a more professional military surgical corps frequently fell on deaf ears Details that may have seemed trivial to Percy s contemporaries about food accommodation dress and transport now offer a vital insight into the persistent struggles and occasional pleasures of those who followed Napoleon on his quest to conquer Europe Percy documents his experiences of some of the major battles of the period namely Jena Eylau and Friedland As a surgeon he witnessed the enormous scale of devastation wrought by these significant battles so often glorified in the historiography as tactical successes His descriptions are meticulous and personal injuries are described scientifically their stark details offering a vivid and horrifying picture of the aftermath of the fighting Percy s singular position living with the soldiers and sharing in their poor conditions while also being aware of the administrative decisions that governed and often negatively impacted their lives makes for an account that is simultaneously fascinating for the general reader and invaluable for scholars of military and surgical history Baron Larrey, Surgeon General to Napoleon's Armies Joseph A.
