Narodnye Dukhovnye Stikhi:

Russkie narodnye dukhovnye stikhi F. M. Selivanov, 1995 The Sign of the Cross Daniel Rancour-Laferriere, 2017-09-08

This book presents a unique effort to create a new understanding of the Christian sign of the cross. At its core it traces the conscious and unconscious influence of this visual symbol through time. What began as the crucifixion of a Jewish troublemaker in Roman occupied Judea in the first century eventually gave rise to a broad spectrum of readings of the instrument used to accomplish such a punishment: a cross. The author argues that Jesus was a provocative, grandiose masochist whose suffering and death initially signified redemption for believers. This idea gradually morphed into a Christian sense of freedom to persecute and wage war against non-believers, however, as can be seen in the Crusades wars of the cross. Many believers even construed the murder of their savior as a crime perpetrated by the Jews, and this paranoid notion culminated in the mass murder of European Jews under the sign of the Nazi hooked cross, Hakenkreuz. Rancour Laferriere's book is expertly written and argued; it will be readable to a large audience because it touches on many areas of controversy, interest, and scholarship. The work is critical but not unfair; it employs psychoanalysis, art history, the study of the symbol of the cross in works of art, religion, and religious texts, and world history generally. The interweaving of these various themes is what gives this work its ability to draw in readers and will ultimately be what keeps the reader interested through the conclusion.

Last Judgment Iconography in the Carpathians John-Paul Himka, 2018-10-11. Few subjects in Christianity have inspired artists as much as the last judgment. Last Judgment Iconography in the Carpathians examines images of the last judgment from the fifteenth century to the present in the Carpathian mountain region of Ukraine, Poland, Slovakia, and Romania as a way to consider history free from the traditional frameworks and narratives of nations. Over ten years, John Paul Himka studied last judgment images throughout the Carpathians and found a distinctive and transnational blending of Gothic, Byzantine, and Novgorodian art in the region. Piecing together the story of how these images were produced and how they developed, Himka traces their origins on linden boards and their evolution on canvas and church walls. Tracing their origins with monks, he follows these images' increased popularity as they were commissioned by peasants and shepherds whose tastes so shocked bishops that they ordered the destruction of depictions of sexual themes and grotesque forms of torture. A richly illustrated and detailed account of history through a style of art, Last Judgment Iconography in the Carpathians will find a receptive audience with art historians, religious scholars, and Slavists.

Russell, 2021-02-08 The present volume is a collection of articles published by Professor James R Russell of Harvard University in various journals over the past decades James Russell has been one of the pioneers in the field of Armenian and Iranian Studies where he has demonstrated the importance of Iranian civilization for pre Christian Armenia The connection between the two civilizations has been part of the tireless work of Professor Russell and I hope this publication shows the immense importance of his work for both Armenian and Iranian Studies I would like to thank Professor Houri Berberian Director of the UC Irvine Armenian Studies Program as well as Mr Mamigonian and the National Association for Armenian Studies and Research NAASR for supporting the publication of this book This volume was previously published by the Jordan Center for Persian Studies University of California Irvine The New Third Rome Jarðar Østbø, 2016-05-03 Drawing on theories of political myth and concepts of nationalism Jarðar stb analyzes the content and ideological function of the myth of Russia as a Third Rome Through case studies of four prominent nationalist intellectuals stb shows how this messianic myth was used to reinvent Russia and its allegedly rightful place in the world after the collapse of the Soviet Union Though it exists in many radically different versions the Third Rome myth in general embodies particularism and rabid anti Westernism At best it portrays Russia as an essentially isolationist country At worst it casts the country as superior to all other nations divinely elected to rule the world Saints and Revolutionaries Marcia A. Morris, 1993-02-04 An examination of literary works spanning more than seven centuries this volume studies the ascetic hero and asceticism exploring the elusive interplay between religion politics and belles lettres in Russia The first part places works including the thirteenth century Kievan Crypt Patericon and Life of Avraamii Smolenskii Epifanii s Life of Sergii Radonezhskii and other lives written in the north of Russia in the context of crucial religious doctrines such as apocalypticism and deification The author shows how Old Russian literature plays a major cultural role in the continuing development of these doctrines on Russian soil The second part traces a revival of the Russian fascination with themes of apocalypse and perfectibility to the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Morris also documents the development of a divergence in ideological approach between Russian writers who continued to view apocalypticism and deification as religious phenomena and those who used them as tools of social and political struggle Works by Gogol Tolstoy Dostoevsky Chernyshevsky and Gorky as well as classic novels of the socialist realist tradition are analyzed as evidence of the underlying unity of the literary manifestations of this ostensibly bifurcated intellectual tradition
