The Works of Alexander Pope: Correspondence Alexander Pope,1871 The Works of Alexander Pope. Including ... Unpublished Letters and Other New Materials. Collected in Part by the Late Rt. Hon. J.W. Croker. With Introduction and Notes by ... Whitwell Elwin [and W.J. Courthope. The Life of Pope. By W.J. Courthope.] ... With Portraits and Other Illustrations Alexander Pope,1871 Global Perspectives on Probing Narratives in Healthcare Casal, Teresa,Cabral, Maria de Jesus,2023-06-01 There is often a communication disconnect between medical caregivers including doctors nurses therapists and other assistive medical personnel and the patient While medical staff usually understand a patient s symptoms causes and treatments communicating this understanding to a patient using industry terminologies can lead to confusion and misunderstanding and similarly patients may lack the vocabulary to effectively communicate their experiences back to their caregivers A new approach to communication must be bridged between these groups by individuals who have experience on both sides of the conversation Previous studies of doctors who end up in the role of the patient reveal how these individuals have a dual perspective on illness combining their medical knowledge with their own personal medical experiences Narratives including autobiographical accounts and fictional stories can help bridge the gap between experiential and academic knowledge of illness by expanding one s limited perspective and accessing others points of view Autobiographical and fictional narratives can both play a role in developing a more comprehensive understanding of illness beyond simply treating the disease It is necessary to further examine the ethical and methodological underpinnings of narrative based interventions in the education of healthcare professionals practitioners and patients Global Perspectives on Probing Narratives in Healthcare offers a multidisciplinary examination of theoretical and methodological uses of narratives in healthcare by bringing together medical aspects of healthcare and the study of arts and humanities This illustrates specific applications of narratives in healthcare settings including improvement of clinical skills performance of the caring role and self efficacy for building a true partnership in the patient s health journey through varied approaches up to date tools and resources that can be transferred and adapted to specific educational and healthcare contexts This diverse collection of expert knowledge and experience is led by editors with over 20 years of teaching experience Dr Teresa Casal of the University of Lisbon Portugal and Dr Maria de Jesus Cabral of the University of Minho Portugal Expertise featured in this book includes contributions from some of the most prestigious academic institutions including Columbia University in the United States King s College in the United Kingdom University of Padua in Italy and more It is an essential resource for healthcare and social science researchers academics advanced healthcare students health training and education departments healthcare practitioners and patients associations and policymakers in healthcare who are looking to broaden their scope of understanding of the patient experience Narratives on Prison Governmentality Marco Nocente,2023-09-01 Narratives on Prison Governmentality explores prison governmentality through the analysis of letters of prisoners The collection of testimonies represents the opportunities and difficulties of resisting in a place of power which in recent years has become more sophisticated and effective In recent years there has been a progressive individualisation of the prison population and a continuous erosion of solidarity The condition of prisoners is influenced by renewed governmental logic that has become more effective for management and even reproduced by the prisoners themselves Italian prison governmentality has been presented in its softest and hardest discursive forms and material regimes as part of a whole differentiated repertoire Through the narratives of prison letters the book shows the sophistication of these carceral logics from the perspective of prisoners engaged in the struggle Engaging theories of carceral geography and critical criminology the book focuses on space and time as the dimensions from which to observe power relations and governmentality Narratives on Prison Governmentality will be of great interest to students and scholars of Penology Narrative Criminology Carceral Geography and Critical Criminology

The Fruits of Their Labor Cindy Hahamovitch, 2010-06-23 In 1933 Congress granted American laborers the right of collective bargaining but farmworkers got no New Deal Cindy Hahamovitch's pathbreaking account of migrant farmworkers along the Atlantic Coast shows how growers enlisted the aid of the state in an unprecedented effort to keep their fields well stocked with labor This is the story of the farmworkers Italian immigrants from northeastern tenements African American laborers from the South and imported workers from the Caribbean who came to work in the fields of New Jersey Georgia and Florida in the decades after 1870 These farmworkers were not powerless the author argues for growers became increasingly open to negotiation as their crops ripened in the fields But farmers fought back with padrone or labor contracting schemes and work or fight forced labor campaigns Hahamovitch describes how growers efforts became more effective as federal officials assumed the role of padroni supplying farmers with foreign workers on demand Today's migrants are as desperate as ever the author concludes not because poverty is an inevitable feature of modern agricultural work but because the federal government has intervened on behalf of growers preventing farmworkers from enjoying the fruits of their labor
