Narrative Apparatus Ideology A Film Theory Reader:

Narrative, Apparatus, Ideology Philip Rosen, 1986 Anthology of film theory Narrative, Apparatus, Ideology Philip Rosen, 1986 This book includes many seminal articles by film scholars such as Christian Metz Jean Louis Baudry Stephen Heath Peter Wollen Laura Mulvey and Noel Burch Also included are articles by the era's leading cultural thinkers Roland Barthes Julia Kristeva and Jean Francois Lyotard to name a few Onscreen/Offscreen Constantine V. Nakassis, 2022-12-01 Based on over a decade of ethnographic fieldwork in the South Indian state of Tamil Nadu Onscreen Offscreen is an exploration of the politics and being of filmic images The book examines contestations inside and outside the Tamil film industry over the question what is an image Answers to this question may be found in the ontological politics that take place on film sets in theatre halls and in the social fabric of everyday life in South India from populist electoral politics and the gendering of social space to caste uplift and domination Bridging and synthesizing linguistic anthropology film studies visual studies and media anthropology Onscreen Offscreen rethinks key issues across a number of fields concerned with the semiotic constitution of social life from the performativity and ontology of images to questions of spectatorship realism and presence In doing so it offers both a challenge to any approach that would separate image from social context and a new vision for linguistic anthropology beyond the question of language Bigger Than Life Mary Ann Doane, 2021-10-18 In Bigger Than Life Mary Ann Doane examines how the scalar operations of cinema especially those of the close up disturb and reconfigure the spectator's sense of place space and orientation Doane traces the history of scalar transformations from early cinema to the contemporary use of digital technology In the early years of cinema audiences regarded the monumental close up particularly of the face as grotesque and often horrifying even as it sought to expose a character's interiority through its magnification of detail and expression Today large scale technologies such as IMAX and surround sound strive to dissolve the cinematic frame and invade the spectator's space immersing them in image and sound The notion of immersion Doane contends is symptomatic of a crisis of location in technologically mediated space and a reconceptualization of position scale and distance In this way cinematic scale and its modes of spatialization and despatialization have shaped the modern subject interpolating them into the incessant expansion of commodification On Screen and Off Anne Berg, 2022-02-22 On Screen and Off shows that the making of Nazism was a local affair and the Nazi city a product of more than models and plans emanating from Berlin In Hamburg film was key in turning this self-styled Gateway to the World into a Nazi city The Nazi regime imagined film as a powerful tool to shape National Socialist subjects In Hamburg those very subjects chanced upon film culture as a seemingly apolitical opportunity to articulate their own ideas about how Nazism ought to work Tracing discourses around film production and film consumption in the city On Screen and Off illustrates how Nazi ideology was envisaged imagined experienced and occasionally even fought over Local authorities in Hamburg from the governor Karl Kaufmann to youth wardens and members of the Hamburg Film Club used debates over cinema to define the reach and practice of National Socialism in the city Film thus engendered a political space in which local activists welfare workers cultural experts and administrators asserted their views about the current state of affairs articulated criticism and praise performed their commitment to the regime and policed the boundaries of the Volksgemeinschaft Of all the championed people s products film alone extended the promise of economic prosperity and cultural preeminence into the war years and beyond the city s destruction From the ascension of the Nazi regime through the smoldering rubble going to the movies grounded normalcy in the midst of rupture Desiring Truth Jeremy

Diamantis Panagiotopoulos,2012 What is the social role of images and architecture in a pre modern society How were they used to create adequate environments for specific profane and ritual activities In which ways did they interact with each other These and other crucial issues on the social significance of imagery and built structures in Neopalatial Crete were the subject of a workshop which took place on November 16th 2009 at the University of Heidelberg The papers presented in the workshop are collected in the present volume They provide different approaches to this complex topic and are aimed at a better understanding of the formation role and perception of images and architecture in a very dynamic social landscape The Cretan Neopalatial period saw a rapid increase in the number of palaces and villas characterized by elaborate designs and idiosyncratic architectural patterns which were themselves in turn generated by a pressing desire for a distinctive social and performative environment Iranian Cinema with Psychoanalysis Farshid Kazemi,2024-12-30 Combining Lacanian of Desires provides a groundbreaking analysis of the logic of desire and sexuality in key films of contemporary Iranian cinema arguing that there is a profound albeit surprising correlation between post revolutionary Iranian cinema and psychoanalysis that has remained unthought Looking through the prism of psychoanalysis Farshid Kazemi argues that censorship on the representation and expression of sexual desire in Iranian films has contrary to the desired effect produced a cinema of desire This book is the first to provide an analysis of the unconscious structure of desire and sexuality operative in post revolutionary Iranian cinema demonstrating that psychoanalytic literature is uniquely positioned to shed light on this aspect of film Kazemi uncovers the hidden libidinal economy of Iranian cinema by exposing the fact that despite the State censor s desire to suppress desire it has inadvertently inscribed desire in its formal structure The book offers a compelling and innovative examination of Iranian cinema through a psychoanalytic lens contributing significantly to the field of film studies Iranian Cinema with Psychoanalysis will be of great interest to academics and scholars of film studies psychoanalytic studies Lacanian theory film theory Iranian cinema global cinema Iranian studies and Middle Eastern studies Everyday Movies Haidee Wasson, 2020-11-10 Everyday Movies documents the twentieth century rise of portable film projectors It demonstrates that since World War II the vast majority of movie watching did not happen in the glow of the large screen but rather took place alongside the glitches distortions and clickety clack of small machines that transformed home classroom museum community government industrial and military venues into sites of moving image display Reorienting the history of cinema away from the magic of the movie theater Haidee Wasson illustrates the remarkable persistence and proliferation of devices that fundamentally rejected the sleek highly professionalized film show She foregrounds instead another kind of apparatus one that was accessible affordable adaptable easy to use and crucially programmable Revealing rich archival discoveries this book charts a compelling and original history of film that brings to light new technologies and diverse forms of media engagement that continue to shape contemporary life
