

The background of the book cover is a deep blue, textured surface representing the Earth's atmosphere or the void of space. In the upper left, a bright, glowing sun or star is partially obscured by a large, dark, cylindrical satellite component. Several thin, dark lines representing cables or structural elements extend from this component across the frame. In the lower right, a small, detailed illustration of a fighter jet is shown in flight, angled upwards. The overall composition is dramatic and evokes a sense of exploration and technological achievement.

Nasa And The Exploration Of Space With Works From The Nasa Art Collection:

NASA & the Exploration of Space Roger D. Launius, Bertram Ulrich, 1998 An overview of the history of NASA and its role in modern space exploration accompanied by sketches and paintings from American artists National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) C. V. Anderson, 2002 National Aeronautics Space Administration Nasa Background Issues Bibliography Media, NASA, and America's Quest for the Moon Harlen Makemson, 2009 When Apollo 11 landed on the moon in July 1969 it capped not only the most remarkable engineering feat in history but also a decade long battle over how much access the press and public should have to the manned space program Now forty years after an awed world watched Neil Armstrong and Buzz Aldrin bounce across the surface of the moon this book tells the behind the scenes story of how NASA and the U S media were often at odds but ultimately showed extraordinary cooperation in bringing the story of lunar conquest to the world Drawing upon rich historical sources from NASA journalists and television networks this book sheds new light on how media shaped how we saw America s great adventure in space and raises contemporary questions about the role of information in a free society NASA/ART James Dean, Bertram Ulrich, 2008-10-01 Published in celebration of the space agency s fiftieth anniversary NASA Art 50 Years of Exploration presents an expanded selection of the works created for the NASA Art Program which was established in 1963 to document the history of the agency Essays by astronaut Michael Collins curator Tom D Crouch and novelist Ray Bradbury frame nearly 150 paintings drawings photographs and sculptures chosen from the archives of NASA and the National Air and Space Museum in Washington D C NASA Art stands as a lasting record of the impact of space exploration on the artistic imagination BOOK JACKET

Abandoned in Place Roland Miller, 2016-03-01 Stenciled on many of the deactivated facilities at Cape Canaveral Air Force Station the evocative phrase abandoned in place indicates the structures that have been deserted Some structures too solid for any known method of demolition stand empty and unused in the wake of the early period of US space exploration Now Roland Miller s color photographs document the NASA Air Force and Army facilities across the nation that once played a crucial role in the space race Rapidly succumbing to the elements and demolition most of the blockhouses launch towers tunnels test stands and control rooms featured in Abandoned in Place are located at secure military or NASA facilities with little or no public access Some have been repurposed but over half of the facilities photographed no longer exist The haunting images collected here impart artistic insight while preserving an important period in history Air & Space Smithsonian , 2006-04 Term Paper Resource Guide to Twentieth-Century United States History Ron Blazek, Teri Maggio, Robert Muccigrosso, 1999-05-30 Students will write more effective term papers with this guide to 500 term paper ideas as well as a listing of appropriate print and nonprint sources on twentieth century U S history This guide presents entries on 100 of the most important events and developments in twentieth century U S history organized in chronological order Each entry consists of a short description of the event followed by five specific suggestions for term papers about the event and a wide ranging annotated bibliography of 15 35 books articles videos and a web site appropriate for student research In every case the emphasis is on recent and up to date material as well as landmark works and primary sources Every entry contains a video and concludes with a recommended web site producing a multimedia approach designed to appeal to the current information gathering habits and preferences of young people From the Spanish American War to the creation of NAFTA the 100 events and developments cover political social economic and cultural issues The work has been designed to meet the needs of the U S history curriculum Term paper topic ideas offer students thought provoking suggestions that are challenging and develop critical thinking skills The annotated bibliography is organized into reference sources general sources specialized sources biographical sources periodical articles recommended videos and World Wide Web sites All items are readily available in school public and academic library collections This unique guide is valuable not only to students but to teachers and librarians who guide students in research and is an excellent purchasing guide for librarians who serve student needs

NASA Michael H. Gorn, 2005 The first illustrated history of NASA the U S National Aeronautics and Space Administration ever to be published this groundbreaking book tells the exciting story of space exploration from the early twentieth century to the present focusing on the personalities involved as much as the technological advances that have made space exploration possible Authoritatively and accessibly written by historian Michael Gorn NASA The Complete Illustrated History tells of the climate of discovery that has existed inside the NASA and its precursor NACA Here Michael Gorn describes the tools and techniques of research and development such as wind tunnels and test flights in the atmosphere and discusses the temperaments and personal ambitions of scientists and engineers pilots and astronauts
