A Legacy of Hope, 1999

Democratisation in the 21st Century Mohammad-Mahmoud Ould Mohamedou, Timothy D. Sisk, 2016-10-04 The 2010 s was a critical period in the continuing established trend of the spread of democracy worldwide from the Arab Spring countries of Tunisia Libya Egypt and Yemen to the unfolding turmoil of Myanmar and Ukraine by way of the upheavals in Burkina Faso Senegal and Ivory Coast social mobilisation against autocratic corrupt or military regimes has precipitated political transitions that are characteristic of democratisation This book examines the state of democratisation theory and practice that reopens and revives the democratic transition debate exploring the factors that lead to the demise of autocracy the pathways and processes of change and the choice for an eventual consolidation of democracy For all its insights and shortcomings the framework of transitology a body of literature that has comparatively and through case study analysis examined common patterns sequences crises and outcomes of transitional periods has been largely eschewed The essays written by international democratisation specialists tackle the series of questions raised by a body of literature that remains highly useful to understand contemporary political turbulence and transformation considering numerous crucial issues This work will be of key interest to scholars students and practitioners of governance democratisation comparative politics international relations political science and more broadly history Land Stewardship in the 21st Century, 2000 Power in the 21st Century Enrico Fels, Jan-Frederik Kremer, Katharina Kronenberg, 2012-04-10 The study of power is the nucleus of political science and international relations As a shift of power from traditional industrial countries to emerging powers has been perceived since the turn of the century this book aims to present innovative theoretical and empirical approaches that can increase our understanding of this transition Scholars from the fields of international relations international political economy economics and security studies not only explore current theoretical debates on power and power shifts among entities but also provide fresh insights into relevant aspects of international power in the 21st century With a particular focus on aspects of international security trade and production new methods of identifying power and its sources are presented and their potential implications and challenges are discussed

The 21st Century Singularity and Global Futures Andrey V. Korotayev, David J. LePoire, 2020-01-02 This book introduces a Big History perspective to understand the acceleration of social technological and economic trends towards a near term singularity marking a radical turning point in the evolution of our planet It traces the emergence of accelerating innovation rates through global history and highlights major historical transformations throughout the evolution of life humans and civilization The authors pursue an interdisciplinary approach also drawing on concepts from physics and evolutionary biology to offer potential models of the underlying mechanisms driving this acceleration along with potential clues on how it might progress The contributions gathered here are divided into five parts the first of which studies historical mega trends in relation to a variety of aspects including technology population energy and information The second part is dedicated to a variety of models that can help understand the potential mechanisms and support extrapolation In turn the third part explores various potential future scenarios along with the paths and decisions that are required The fourth part presents philosophical perspectives on the potential deeper meaning and implications of the trend towards singularity while the fifth and last part discusses the implications of the Search for Extraterrestrial Intelligence SETI Given its scope the book will appeal to scholars from various disciplines interested in historical trends technological change and evolutionary processes
