Natural Supports in Action Dale DiLeo, Richard G. Luecking, Sandra Hathaway, 1995 Handbook of Research-Based Practices for Educating Students with Intellectual Disability Karrie A. Shogren, 2016-10-14 The Handbook of Research Based Practices for Educating Students with Intellectual Disability provides an integrated transdisciplinary overview of research based practices for teaching students with intellectual disability This comprehensive volume emphasizes education across life stages from early intervention in schools through the transition to adulthood and highlights major educational and support needs of children and youth with intellectual disability The implications of history recent research and existing information are positioned to systematically advance new practices and explore promising possibilities in the field Driven by the collaboration of accomplished nationally recognized professionals of varied approaches and philosophies the book emphasizes practices that have been shown to be effective through multiple methodologies so as to help readers select interventions based on the evidence of their effectiveness A Supported Employment Workbook Steve Leach, 2002-01-01 This workbook presents strategies based on real situations and includes example exercises throughout It is based on the principle of developing a client centred approach to job development and emphasizes the central importance of self determination ensuring that the individual makes their own choices to determine their future career The Impact of Supported Employment for People with Significant Disabilities , 1999 Supported Employment in Business Paul Wehman, 2001 More Than a Job Paul Wehman, John Kregel, 1998 This forward thinking text offers guidelines on helping people with disabilities identify interests decide which careers to pursue and work with professionals to identify options Research and Practice for Persons with Severe Disabilities , 2007 Mental Retardation , 2000 Federal Register , 1999-07-22 Beyond Borders Kathryn Anne Stiles, 1999 New Lenses on Intellectual Disabilities Jennifer Clegg, 2020-05-21 This book gathers together recent international research in intellectual disability ID examining the diverse modes of existence that characterise living with intellectual disabilities in the 21st century Ranging from people with no speech and little mobility who need 24 hour care to people who marry or hold down jobs this book moves beyond the typical person with ID imagined by public policy healthy with mild ID and a supportive family and living in a welcoming community The book is divided into three sections The first A richer picture of people and relationships expands our understanding of different people and lifestyles associated with ID The second section Where current policies fall short finds that Supported Living provides just as mediocre a form of care as group homes and concludes that services for people with challenging behaviour are unrelated to need The contributors research identifies no effective employment support strategies as well as technological and legal changes that prevent organisations from employing people with ID With nearly a quarter of this population in poor health the contributors reflect on whether social model approaches should be allowed to trump medical considerations The third section New thinking about well being reveals that being old poor and living alone

increases health risk and that medication administration is significantly more complex for people with ID Moving beyond 20th century certainties surrounding intellectual disability this book will be of interest to those studying contemporary issues facing those living with ID as well as those studying public health policy more widely The chapters in this book were originally published in issues of the Journal of Intellectual Developmental Disability
