Correia, 2012-08-21

There is no more important issue in theological study than the meaning of faith in the New Testament The perennial problem of the misunderstanding concerning the nature of faith has produced a variety of theological errors as well as pastoral problems for the church In a day of rampant theological confusion concerning justification by faith the nature of faith is paramount This book provides a penetrating examination through exegetical precision concerning the nature of faith For those who believe in faith alone in Christ alone this book will guide you into an understanding of what faith is and what it is not This is a book that needed to be written and a book that must be read Earl Radmacher ThD President Emeritus Western Seminary Most evangelical Protestants agree that salvation is by faith alone in Christ alone However what they cannot agree on is the meaning of faith Are there different kinds of faith in the Bible Is there saving faith and non saving faith Is faith a matter of the mind or the emotions or the mind emotions and will Is faith active or passive on the part of the believer Is it a gift of God or a work of man All these questions and many more are explored in depth by Chay and Correia They have done a commendable job of dealing with words studies grammatical nuances and debated passages Such a work is long overdue Dave Anderson PhD President and professor of Theology Grace School of Theology President Free Grace Alliance Belief - What is It? The Paradox of Human Nature and Religious Faith Christopher G. Smith, 2020-11-28

This is a book for our time The advent of Covid 19 is turning our world upside down and highlighting the paradoxical nature of human behaviour A minority of thoughtless people are indulging in selfish activities that threaten our safety whilst NHS workers heroically risk their own lives to save others In South Africa members of rival drug gangs who would normally kill each other without a second thought have called a truce and are now working together in order to ensure that food is distributed to needy families Human nature is paradoxical because it is capable of perceiving both the finite secular and infinite spiritual which are juxtaposed within the context of reality What makes this book different is that spirituality is not considered to be other worldly What we refer to as the secular and the spiritual are viewed as two sides of a coin that co exist as part of one reality within the context of temporality Both contribute to what we perceive to be a sense of self They are different perceptions of consciousness that influence human behaviour through conscious and subconscious processes The aim of this book is to consider the factors that contribute to the paradoxical nature of being human and to explore the issues that cloud our perceptions and cause confusion It proffers a vision of how a religious faith can be made intelligible at a time when the majority of people living in our postmodern age consider it to be irrelevant

The Primitive mind-cure. The nature and power of faith, or, Elementary lessons in Christian philosophy and transcendental medicine Warren Felt Evans, 1885
