Laurie Pippen's All Natural Colorants for Cosmetic, Culinary, and Textile Dyeing Laurie Pippen, 2015-06-17 Colorants are everywhere You can find dyes in your decor cosmetics food and in nearly every fabric in the home from your socks to your furniture Many of these dyes are made using chemical alternatives to the abundant selection of all natural colorants you can find cheaply and easily in your own backyard Whether you are hoping to make life more natural by creating your own homemade colorants or hoping to replace one or two synthetic colorants with all natural plant dyes you will find that coloring with natural choices is easy fun and yields amazing results A natural colorant is a colorant that comes from minerals plants or invertebrates The most common natural colorants come from plant sources like bark berries flowers leaves and roots Potential dyeing options are everywhere and this book only illustrates the most traditionally used colorants and the methods I have employed to obtain my desired results My favorite forms of natural dyes come from plant parts like berries flowers leaves nuts and roots After reading this guide and gaining some skill with natural dyes you should look around and experiment to see what new and creative natural colorants might be available in your own back yard Remember that natural colorants are not just for dyeing fabric You can use natural colorants to create homemade ink paint or even to dye Easter eggs Some of our countries oldest documents were written with ink made from natural colorants You can also use natural colorants to make meals more healthy and appealing Sometimes I like to use unusual colors to make mealtime fun for the whole family Purple mashed potatoes or glowing orange rice is always a fun surprise You can even use plant products when you make personal care products like make up soaps and hair colorant Many commercial cosmetics you purchase have their color roots in natural product dyes and with a little knowledge and a bit of practice you can become a master at making pleasing looking and smelling products for your family that actually have benefits to go with their attractiveness Nearly anything you work with that needs color is a potential choice for natural plant dyes Natural colorants come in every shade you might want You can even blend or tone the colors up and down to achieve the exact result you need for your project

Nature's Palette David Lee,2010-09-03 Though he didn't realize it at the time David Lee began this book twenty five years ago as he was hiking in the mountains outside Kuala Lumpur Surrounded by the wonders of the jungle Lee found his attention drawn to one plant in particular a species of fern whose electric blue leaves shimmered amidst the surrounding green The evolutionary wonder of the fern's extravagant beauty filled Lee with awe and set him on a career long journey to understand everything about plant colors Nature's Palette is the fully ripened fruit of that journey a highly illustrated immensely entertaining exploration of the science of plant color Beginning with potent reminders of how deeply interwoven plant colors are with human life and culture from the shifting hues that told early humans when fruits and vegetables were edible to the indigo dyes that signified royalty for later generations Lee moves easily through details of pigments the evolution of color perception the nature of light and dozens of other topics Through a narrative peppered with anecdotes of a life spent pursuing botanical knowledge around the world he reveals the profound ways that efforts to understand and exploit plant color have influenced every sphere of human life from organic chemistry to Renaissance painting to the highly lucrative orchid trade Lavishly illustrated and packed with remarkable details sure to delight gardeners and naturalists alike Nature's Palette will enchant anyone who's ever wondered about red roses and blue violets or green thumbs
