The Photographic History of the Civil War in Ten Volumes: The navies, 1912 United States Naval History United States. Department of the Navy. Library, United States. Navy Department. Naval Operations Office, 1972 The navies Francis Trevelyan Miller, 1911 The Navies: The Photographic History of The Civil War, 1957 The Photographic History Of The Civil War: The Navies Anonymous, Two Civil Wars Katherine Bentley Jeffrey, 2016-04-11. Two Civil Wars is both an edition of an unusual Civil War era double journal and a narrative about the two writers who composed its contents. The initial journal entries were written by thirteen year old Celeste Repp while a student at St Mary's Academy, a prominent but short-lived girls school in midcentury Baton Rouge. Celeste's French compositions dating from 1859 to 1861 offer brief but poignant meditations, describe seasonal celebrations, and mention by name both her headmistress Matilda Victor and French instructor and priest Father Darius Hubert. Immediately following Celeste's prettily decorated pages, a new title page intervenes introducing An Abstract Journal Kept by William L. Park of the U.S. gunboat Essex during the American Rebellion. Park's diary is a fulsome three-year account of military engagements along the Mississippi and its tributaries, the bombardment of southern towns, the looting of plantations, skirmishes with Confederate guerillas, the uneasy experiment with contrabands, freed slaves serving aboard ship, and the mundane circumstances of shipboard life. Very few diaries from the inland navy have survived, and this is the first journal from the ironclad Essex to be published. Jeffrey has read it alongside several unpublished accounts by Park's crewmates, as well as a later memoir composed by Park in his declining years. It provides rare insight into the culture of the ironclad fleet and equally rare firsthand commentary by an ordinary sailor on events such as the sinking of CSS Arkansas and the prolonged siege of Port Hudson. Jeffrey provides detailed annotation and context for the Repp and Park journals, filling out the biographies of both writers before and after the Civil War In Celeste s case Jeffrey uncovers surprising connections to such prominent Baton Rouge residents as the diarist Sarah Morgan and explores the complexity of wartime allegiances in the South through the experiences of Matilda Victor and Darius Hubert She also unravels the mystery of how a southern youngster s school scribbler found its way into the hands of a Union sailor In so doing she provides a richly detailed picture of occupied Baton Rouge and especially of events surrounding the Battle of Baton Rouge in August 1862 These two unusual personal journals linked by curious happenstance in a single notebook open up intriguing provocative and surprisingly complementary new vistas on antebellum Baton Rouge and the Civil War on the Mississippi Photographic History of the Civil War ,2018-08-15
