Fighting Nazi Occupation Malcolm Atkin, 2015-09-18 Everyone knows about the Home Guard but what about the other Secret Intelligence Services SIS and M16 You can read about them in this book This England When Winston Churchill made his we shall never surrender speech in 1940 he was speaking in the knowledge that Britain's Secret Intelligence Service was planning a civilian British resistance movement to mobilize after the country had been occupied Britain's planning for clandestine warfare developed out of a fierce battle between the Secret Intelligence Service and the War Office for the control of guerrilla warfare and conflicting ideas over the legitimacy of armed civilians A multi layered system of secret organizations was the result The Auxiliary Units are the best known of these ungentlemanly forces but in this perceptive new study based on painstaking original research Malcolm Atkin clearly demonstrates that they were never intended as a resistance organization Instead they were designed as a short term guerrilla force whilst their Special Duties Branch was designed to spy on the British public as much as any Nazi invader Meanwhile deep in the shadows was the real resistance organization Section VII of SIS Malcolm Atkin's conclusions will cause controversy among military historians and will change our understanding of the preparations made in Britain to resist Nazi occupation in the Second World War A detailed yet accessible historical study ProtoView

Three German Invasions of France Douglas Fermer, 2013-11-20 Tension and rivalry between France and Germany shaped the history of Western Europe in the century from 1860 Three times that hostility led to war and the invasion of France in 1870 1914 and 1940 The outcomes of the battles that followed reset the balance of power across the continent Yet the German invasions tend to be viewed as separate events in isolation rather than as connected episodes in the confrontation between the two nations Douglas Fermer's fresh account of the military campaigns and the preparations for them treats them as part of a cycle of fear suspicion animosity and conflicting ambitions extending across several generations In a clear concise account of the decisive opening phase of each campaign he describes the critical decision making the manoeuvres and clashes of arms in eastern France as German forces advanced westwards As the 100th anniversary of the start of the Great War approaches this is a fitting moment to reconsider these momentous events and how they fit into the broad sweep of European history

The Polish Catholic Church under German Occupation Jonathan Huener, 2021-02-16 When Nazi Germany invaded Poland in 1939 it aimed to destroy Polish national consciousness As a symbol of Polish national identity and the religious faith of approximately two thirds of Poland s population the Roman Catholic Church was an obvious target of the Nazi regime s policies of ethnic racial and cultural Germanization Jonathan Huener reveals in The Polish Catholic Church under German Occupation that the persecution of the church was most severe in the Reichsgau Wartheland a region of Poland annexed to Nazi Germany Here Catholics witnessed the execution of priests the incarceration of hundreds of clergymen and nuns in prisons and concentration camps the closure of churches the destruction and confiscation of church property and countless restrictions on public expression of the Catholic faith Huener also illustrates how some among the Nazi elite viewed this area as a testing ground for anti church policies to be launched in the Reich after the successful completion of the war Based on largely untapped sources from state and church archives punctuated by vivid archival photographs and marked by nuance and balance The Polish Catholic Church under German Occupation exposes both the brutalities and the limitations of Nazi church policy The first English language investigation of German policy toward the Catholic Church in occupied Poland this compelling story also offers insight into the varied ways in which Catholics from Pope Pius XII to members of the Polish episcopate to the Polish laity at the parish level responded to the Nazi regime s repressive measures

The Forgotten German Genocide Peter C Brown, 2021-07-31 The Potsdam Conference officially known as the Berlin Conference was held from 17 July to 2 August 1945 at Cecilienhof Palace the home of Crown Prince Wilhelm in Brandenburg and saw the leaders of the United Kingdom the Soviet Union and the United States gathered together to decide how to demilitarize denazify decentralize and administer Germany which had agreed to unconditional surrender on 8 May VE Day They determined that the remaining German populations in Poland Czechoslovakia and Hungary both the ethnic Sudeten and the more recent arrivals as part of the long term plan for the domination of Eastern Europe should to be transferred to Germany but despite an undertaking that these would be effected in an orderly and humane manner the expulsions were carried out in a ruthless and often brutal manner Land was seized with farms and houses expropriated the occupants placed into camps prior to mass expulsion from the country Many of these were labor camps

already occupied by Jews who had survived the concentration camps where they were equally unwelcome Further cleansing was carried out in Romania and Yugoslavia and by 1950 an estimated 11.5 million German people had been removed from Eastern Europe with up to three million dead The number of ethnic Germans killed during the cleansing period is suggested at 500 000 but in 1958 Statistisches Bundesamt the Federal Statistical Office of Germany published a report which gave the figure of 1.6 million relating to expulsion related population losses in Poland alone Further investigation may in due course provide a more accurate figure to avoid the accusation of sensationalism
