Nicholas Napoli, 2017-07-05 The Carthusian monks at San Martino began a series of decorative campaigns in the 1580s that continued until 1757 transforming the church of their monastery the Certosa di San Martino into a jewel of marble revetment painting and sculpture The aesthetics of the church generate a jarring moral conflict few religious orders honored the ideals of poverty and simplicity so ardently yet decorated so sumptuously In this study Nick Napoli explores the terms of this conflict and of how it sought resolution amidst the social and economic realities and the political and religious culture of early modern Naples Napoli mines the documentary record of the decorative campaigns at San Martino revealing the rich testimony it provides relating to both the monks and the artists expectations of how practice and payment should transpire From these documents the author delivers insight into the ethical and economic foundations of artistic practice in early modern Naples The first English language study of a key monument in Naples and the first to situate the complex within the cultural history of the city The Ethics of Ornament in Early Modern Naples sheds new light on the Neapolitan baroque industries of art in the age before capitalism and the relation of art architecture and ornament Josepe de Ribera 1591-1652 Alfonso E. Pérez Sánchez, Nicola Spinosa, Andrea Bayer, 1992 Nature and the Arts in Early Modern Naples Frank Fehrenbach, Joris van Gastel, 2020-09-21 The literary artistic and scientific culture of early modern Naples is closely linked to the natural topography of the city stretching from Iacopo Sannazaro's poetic evocation of the Campania landscape to Giambattista Vico's approach in which he anchors human civilization to the existential confrontation with natural forces With the open sea the rocky coastline and the menacing presence of Vesuvius the image of Naples more than any other city in early modern times is associated in the collective imagination with the forces of nature Even the populace was interpreted as a force of nature In this volume art literature and science historians investigate the convergence of culture and nature in a unique geographic context Neapolitan Baroque and Rococo Painting Bowes Museum (Barnard Castle, England), 1962 The Hound & Horn, 1929 Vol 1 includes Advance issue Bodily Extremities Florike Egmond, Robert Zwijnenberg, 2017-03-02 A strong preoccupation with the human body often manifested in startling ways is a characteristic shared by early modern Europeans and their present day counterparts Whilst modern manifestations of this interest include body piercing tattoos plastic surgery and eating disorders early modern preoccupations encompassed such diverse phenomena as monstrous births and physical deformity body snatching public dissection flagellation judicial torture and public punishment This volume explores such extreme manifestations of early modern bodily obsessions and fascinations and their wider cultural significance Agreeing that an interest in physical boundaries extreme physical manifestations and situations developed and grew stronger during the early modern period the essays in this volume investigate whether this interest can be traced in a wider range of cultural phenomena and should therefore be given a prominent place in any future characterization of the early modern period Taken as a whole the volume can be read as an attempt to create a new context in which to explore the cultural history of the human body as well as the metaphors of research and investigation themselves Amalfi Coast, Capri, and Naples Fodor's, 2010 NOW IN FULL COLOR Abundant color photos combined with thorough coverage bring one of Italy's most beautiful destinations to life Massimo Stanzione and Bernardo De Dominici Thomas C.
