The one emotion that matters most to many people is the one about which social thinkers rarely speak love For many people love is the thing that matters most in their lives they are searching for love hoping to find in love a kind of happiness that they cannot find in their work or by surrounding themselves with material goods But where does this peculiar and powerful blending together of love and happiness come from and why do we find it such a compelling idea today In this short book Jean Claude Kaufmann offers a fresh account of the history of a feeling unlike any other The modern idea of love as passion was born in the 12th century but it was marginalized by the rise of a kind of instrumental calculating reason that became increasingly central to modern societies As calculating reason began to encroach on the personal domain many individuals sought to escape from it

searching for happiness elsewhere As our societies become dominated by calculating reason and selfish individualism we search elsewhere for the kind of happy love that will heal all our wounds This is why we experience so many changes of heart in our personal lives at times we are coldly calculating and then a few moments later we sacrifice ourselves to love without a second thought Written by one of France's leading sociologists this highly readable book sheds new light on love and happiness and will resonate with many readers

Gripes Jean-Claude Kaufmann,2009-12-14 We all know what it s like to be annoyed by little things that our husband wife or partner does leaving the cap off the toothpaste tube leaving the toilet lid up leaving dirty clothes on the floor and we know how easily these little grievances of everyday life can spin out of control In this brilliant new book the sociologist Jean Claude Kaufmann shows us how and why sparks can suddenly fly even in the most well adjusted couples They see themselves as being in total harmony but they are mistaken The clash between their uniquely individual attitudes to life rumbles on in silence until suddenly erupting in emotional outbursts each time an object or an attitude reveals for the thousandth time the unbearable and incomprehensible otherness of the partner When this occurs a whole panoply of tactics is deployed ranging from the combative secret acts of revenge through the neutral sulking to the subtly loving But these stormy episodes within relationships can have a happy ending for it is through learning to overcome these irritations and aggravations that love is ultimately strengthened
