Hall,2012-03-29 Fostering faith in children is a shared privilege and responsibility of parents godparents and the church community We promise our children at baptism that we will support them in their faith formation in the formation of their relationship with God We need to take this promise seriously This book is intended to be an accessible and helpful resource for parents and other adults who seek to foster children s faith This book succinctly explores many ways we can support children s faith formation including our day to day interactions with children the images of God we share with them how we pray together the rituals we create service opportunities we provide music we share together the stories we tell and listen to our celebration of the sacraments and more While this book has a distinctly Roman Catholic orientation much of the content will be relevant for a wider Christian audience Lastly but perhaps most importantly this book is rooted in the conviction that the God we seek relationship with and that we hope to foster our children s relationship with is one who is infinitely loving welcoming and always yearning for deeper connection with us

Fifty MORE Homilies from the Deacon's Desk Deacon Rick Wagner, 2024-11-12. Deacon Rick was ordained a permanent deacon in the Catholic Church in 2012. He has delivered hundreds of homilies since that time. He preaches regularly at his home parish of St Pius X Catholic Church in Indianapolis, Indiana, as well as at school Masses at St Theodore Guerin High School in Noblesville, Indiana, where he serves as president. Deacon Rick believes scripture-based homilies should focus on one or more of the following: instruction, inspiration or practical application. As for his homilies, Deacon Rick says, "I will occasionally devote an entire homily to instruction, but the vast majority focus on practical application. In other words, how can we live out the gospel message in our everyday lives? I hope all my homilies offer a bit of inspiration. Deacon Rick's homilies capture the joys and challenges of being a husband, father and educator. He embraces his role as an evangelist and encourages all the faithful to do the same. His homilies offer them guidance on being God's storytellers as well."
