

And I have felt A presence that disturbs me with the joy Of elevated thoughts; a sense sublime Of something far more deeply interfused, Whose dwelling is the light of setting suns, And the round ocean and the living air, And the blue sky, and in the mind of man; A motion and a spirit, that impels All thinking things, all objects of all thought, And rolls through all things.<sup>13</sup>

Presence Ranjan Ghosh, Ethan Kleinberg, 2013-10-11 The philosophy of presence seeks to challenge current understandings of meaning and understanding One can trace its origins back to Vico Dilthey and Heidegger though its more immediate exponents include Jean Luc Nancy Hans Ulrich Gumbrecht and such contemporary philosophers of history as Frank Ankersmit and Eelco Runia The theoretical paradigm of presence conveys how the past is literally with us in the present in significant and material ways Things we cannot touch nonetheless touch us This makes presence a post linguistic or post discursive theory that challenges current understandings of meaning and interpretation Presence provides an overview of the concept and surveys both its weaknesses and its possible uses In this book Ethan Kleinberg and Ranjan Ghosh bring together an interdisciplinary group of contributors to explore the possibilities and limitations of presence from a variety of perspectives history sociology literature cultural theory media studies photography memory and political theory The book features critical engagements with the presence paradigm within intellectual history literary criticism and the philosophy of history In three original case studies presence illuminates the relationships among photography the past memory and the Other What these diverse but overlapping essays have in common is a shared commitment to investigate the attempt to reconnect meaning with something real and to push the paradigm of presence beyond its current uses The volume is thus an important intervention in the most fundamental debates within the humanities today Contributors Bill Ashcroft University of New South Wales Mark Bevir University of California Berkeley Susan A Crane University of Arizona Ranjan Ghosh University of North Bengal Suman Gupta Open University Ethan Kleinberg Wesleyan University John Michael University of Rochester Vincent P Pecora University of Utah Roger I Simon      Wordsworth Solomon Francis Gingerich, 1908

Sacramental Presence Ruthanna B. Hooke, 2023-05-22 Drawing on performance studies and sacramental and liturgical theology Ruthanna B Hooke develops a theology of proclamation grounded in the body's experience of preaching The author explores the claim that preaching is a sacramental event of communion with the triune God by comparing the steps involved in voice production with the fourfold shape of the Eucharist This comparison yields a description of preaching as an event of self offering that allows space for the humanity of the preacher and as an encounter with the Holy Spirit that is communal and prophetic Preaching draws participants into Christ's dying and rising and hence into a mode of power known in vulnerability Calling hearers into the eschatological event of the resurrection preaching inherently moves toward proclamation on political and ethical issues Hooke uses this theological framework to offer ways of preaching on environmental crisis and on racism The author calls preachers to embodied engagement with preaching and describes a way for preachers to bear witness to Jesus Christ not only in the content of their proclamation but in their way of being in the preaching event

Žižek, 2009-10-19 No Marketing Blurb      Philosophy of History Jouni-Matti Kuukkanen, 2020-11-12 With a recent surge of interest in the field a volume taking stock of important theoretical shifts in the philosophy of history is greatly needed A Philosophy of History fills this gap by weaving together a range of perspectives on the field which finds itself at a crossroads and asks where it is headed in the 21st century The book takes a concerted effort to go beyond the customary three fold distinction between the speculative analytic and narrativist approaches in philosophy of history It considers what comes after the enduring narrativist turn Chapters incorporate cutting edge discussions on the relevance of contemporary political phenomena such as populism the relation between science and history pragmatism and the paradigmatic challenge of the Anthropocene It also re evaluates the continued relevance of major historical thinkers like Leibniz and R G Collingwood and the endlessly fresh insights they can offer to key debates in the field today Philosophy of History is a much needed reappraisal of the philosophy and theory of history offering an up to date overview of major developments in the field and addressing the pressing questions of where to go next in a post analytical post narrativist world      Polyglot Cinema Verena Berger, Miya Komori, 2010 Polyglot Cinema brings together a diverse group of scholars from Europe Canada and the US resulting in a dynamic account of plurilingual migrant narratives in contemporary films from France Italy Portugal and Spain In addition to the close analysis of key films the essays cover theories of translation and language use as well as central paradigms of cultural studies especially those of locality globality and post colonialism The volume marks a transdisciplinary contribution to the question of cultural representation within film studies      In Defense of Lost Causes Slavoj Žižek, 2009-10-19 The renowned philosophical sharpshooter looks for the kernel of truth in the fascist politics of the past offering an adrenaline fueled manifesto for universal values Is global emancipation a lost cause Are universal values outdated relics of an earlier age In fear of the horrors of totalitarianism should we submit ourselves to a miserable third way of economic liberalism and government as administration In this combative major work philosophical sharpshooter Slavoj Žižek takes on the reigning ideology with a plea that we should re appropriate several lost causes and look for the kernel of truth in the totalitarian politics of the past Examining Heidegger's seduction by fascism and Foucault's flirtation with the Iranian Revolution he suggests that these were the right steps in the wrong direction He argues that while the revolutionary terror of Robespierre Mao and the Bolsheviks ended in historic failure and monstrosity this is not the whole story There is in fact a redemptive moment that gets lost in the outright liberal democratic rejection of revolutionary authoritarianism and the valorization of soft consensual decentralized politics Žižek claims that particularly in light of the forthcoming ecological crisis we should reinvent revolutionary terror and the dictatorship of the proletariat in the struggle for universal emancipation We need to courageously accept the return to this Cause even if we court the risk of a catastrophic disaster In the words of Samuel Beckett Try again Fail again Fail better      The Individual and Community in African Traditional Religions Theo Sundermeier, 1998 The writer has done a careful scholarly and sensitive and very positive and fair study of African religion with particular reference to the individual and community Theo Sundermeier lets Africa speak for itself and on its own terms and in its own categories The concluding chapter is a necessary reading for all who would be on mission who would seek to live the ecumenical imperative and care to ensure that the pursuit of a religion does not result in dehumanization and degradation and marginalization of the other person Rev Canon Prof John S Pobee World Council of Churches Geneva Switzerland This book treats the subject of African religions in a creative and interesting way emphasizing that these religions are genuine authentic expressions of religiosity on a par with other religions including the so called world religions The author provides an excellent account of the nature interdependence between individual community society and the natural order an interdependence which these religions symbolize and express in ritual and belief Likewise the essentially personal nature of power as conceived in African culture is thoughtfully and interestingly analysed There are many other thought provoking ideas and interpretations in this volume including the deconstruction of the commonly held notions of the distinction between witchcraft and magic This is a most worthwhile contribution to the study of Africa s traditional religions and I am convinced all those with an interest in Africa who read it will gain much therefrom Professor Peter B Clarke Professor of the History and Sociology of Religion in the University of London at King s College and formerly Professor of African History at the University of Ibadan Nigeria Theo Sundermeier is Professor of the History of Religion and Missiology at the Ruprecht Karls Universit t Heidelberg translated by Elaine Griffiths Eleanor Jackson Marcel Proust Leo Bersani,2013-06-05 Oxford University Press published eminent literary critic Leo Bersani s first book on Proust in 1965 but the work has long been out of print This new edition comes in response to a recent renewal of interest among philosophers of literature among others and features a new preface from the author The Existence and Attributes of God Vol. 1 Stephen Charnock,2023-12-01 The Existence and Attributes of God is a significant theological book written in the 17th century by Stephen Charnock a Puritan preacher and theologian This edition of The Existence and Attributes of God Vol 1 is both current and legible with an eye catching new cover and professionally typeset manuscript Some stories are gruesome and bizarre while others softly creep up on you and pull you in This massive dissertation is divided into two parts with each volume delving into essential aspects of God s nature and qualities In the first volume Charnock conducts a thorough analysis of God s existence To establish the existence of an all powerful everlasting and transcendent Creator he digs into philosophical arguments historical viewpoints and scripture allusions The thorough examination of Charnock addresses problems about the origin of the universe and the requirement of a divine person Throughout the book Charnock s language is distinguished by a great reverence for God and a commitment to logical religion investigation He provides theological arguments in a systematic and logical manner that is understandable to both intellectuals and laypeople Companero Jorge G. Castañeda,2009-07-16 By the time he was killed in the jungles of Bolivia where his body was displayed like a deposed Christ Ernesto Che Guevara had become a synonym for revolution everywhere from Cuba to the barricades of Paris

This extraordinary biography peels aside the veil of the Guevara legend to reveal the charismatic restless man behind it. Drawing on archival materials from three continents and on interviews with Guevara's family and associates, Castaneda follows Che from his childhood in the Argentine middle class through the years of pilgrimage that turned him into a committed revolutionary. He examines Guevara's complex relationship with Fidel Castro and analyzes the flaws of character that compelled him to leave Cuba and expend his energies and ultimately his life in quixotic adventures in the Congo and Bolivia. A masterpiece of scholarship, Companion is the definitive portrait of a figure who continues to fascinate and inspire the world over.

Cotton's Queer Relations Michael P. Bibler, 2009-02-10 Finally breaking through heterosexual clichés of flirtatious belles and cavaliers, sinister black rapists and lusty Jezebels, Cotton's Queer Relations exposes the queer dynamics embedded in myths of the southern plantation. Focusing on works by Ernest J. Gaines, William Faulkner, Tennessee Williams, Lillian Hellman, Katherine Anne Porter, Margaret Walker, William Styron, and Arna Bontemps, Michael P. Bibler shows how each one uses figures of same-sex intimacy to suggest a more progressive alternative to the pervasive inequalities tied historically and symbolically to the South's most iconic institution. Bibler looks specifically at relationships between white men of the planter class, between plantation mistresses and black maids, and between black men, arguing that while the texts portray the plantation as a rigid hierarchy of differences, these queer relations privilege a notion of sexual sameness that joins the individuals as equals in a system where equality is rare. Indeed, Bibler reveals how these models of queer egalitarianism attempt to reconcile the plantation's regional legacies with national debates about equality and democracy, particularly during the eras of the New Deal, World War II, and the civil rights movement. Cotton's Queer Relations charts bold new territory in southern studies and queer studies alike, bringing together history and cultural theory to offer innovative readings of classic southern texts.
