Zachary Manis, 2019-06-03 Why would a perfectly good and loving God consign anyone to eternal suffering in hell In Sinners in the Presence of a Loving God R Zachary Manis examines in detail the various facets of the problem of hell considers the reasons why the usual responses to the problem are unsatisfying and suggests how an adequate solution to the problem can be constructed Historically there are four standard explanations of the nature and purpose of hell traditionalism annihilationism the choice model and universalism In Manis s assessment all are deficient in some crucial respect The alternative view that he develops and defends the divine presence model stands within the tradition that understands hell to be a state of eternal conscious suffering but Manis contends avoids the worst problems of its competitors The key idea is that the suffering of hell is not the result of a divine act that aims to inflict it but rather is the way in which a sinful creature necessarily experiences the unmitigated presence of a holy God Heaven and hell are not two places to which the saved and damned are consigned respectively but rather are two radically different ways in which different persons will experience the same reality of God s omnipresence once the barrier of divine hiddenness is finally removed Plato's Best Thoughts Plato, 1876 The Swedenborg Concordance John Faulkner Potts, 1898 Postmodern Ethics, Emptiness, and Literature Jae-seong Lee, 2015-12-24 This study advances contemporary postmodern poststructural critical theory literary criticism in particular with the help of Mahayana especially Ch an Seon Chinese and Korean Zen Buddhist thought The quest for the infinity of the Other West and Emptiness or the true I East contributes to the exploration of the contemporary critical issues of ethics and
