Preserving The Person A Look At The Human Sciences

C. Stephen Evans

Preserving The Person A Look At The Human Sciences:

Preserving the Person C. Stephen Evans, 2002 The human quest for self understanding is ancient It transcends sociology philosophy and theology Actually the quest is not essentially academic it is a human quest pursued by persons in every age With this in mind philosopher C Stephen Evans takes a look at the human sciences and their contribution to this self understanding Evans first presents a basic problem in these sciences today the attack on the concept of personhood He reviews the contemporary understanding of mind and brain Is a person only a thinking machine or a programmed organism Then he evaluates the impact of Auguste Comte Sigmund Freud J B Watson B F Skinner and Emile Durkheim on what Evans terms Preserving the Person C. Stephen Evans, 1979 Shaping a Digital World Derek C. Schuurman, 2013-05-02 Building on the work of Jacques Ellul Marshall McLuhan and Neil Postman as well as a wide range of Reformed thinkers Derek Schuurman provides a brief theology of technology rooted in the Reformed tradition and oriented around the grand themes of creation fall redemption and new creation Trinitarian Personhood Bill Ury, 2002-02-01 The concept of the person is a crucial yet elusive component in the development of Western thought Few concepts are as replete with definitional difficulty Equally important is the application of a proper definition to all major Christian doctrinal commonplaces This work recognizing the insufficiency of modern theology to offer a cogent concept of person proposes a thorough historical and theological evaluation of Trinitarian personhood presented in three critical paradigm shifts by which one can measure the development of the idea of true personhood presented The three watershed eras of discernment of divine personhood presented are seen here as first the Cappadocian position of the mutual indwelling perichoresis of the divine persons is contrasted with Augustine's view of the place of relations in defining divine persons Second the ideas of Richard of St Victor whose caritas consummata and its relational implications met the nemesis of the Thomistic category of subsistent relations And last as an example of this important discussion in modernity the German Heribert Mühlen's dynamic phenomenological approach to Trinitarian personhood is offered as a means of countering the implicit modalisms of Barth and Rahner If the personhood of God is in essence Being in Another then Christianity must apply that ontology to all sectors of reality to be fully Christian Making Sense of Your World W. Gary Phillips, William E. Brown, John Stonestreet, 2009-01-01 Making Sense of Your World offers a basic accessible introduction to biblical worldview that covers all of these aspects of world view thinking Part One compares the basic worldviews Part Two contrasts and seeks to defend the biblical worldview with the others and Part Three constructs a biblical worldview in four key areas This book is an overview the Christian thinker is invited to continue his or her study through the recommended readings at the end of each chapter an ongoing task Paul labels the renewing of our minds Romans 12:2 Gender Grace Mary Stewart Van Leeuwen, 1990-05-03 From brain structure and role models to the creation drama and the new covenant Mary Stewart Van Leeuwen helps us to understand more clearly the forces and the freedoms that shape our lives The Transforming Vision

Brian J. Walsh, J. Richard Middleton, 1984-10-12 Brian J Walsh and J Richard Middleton offer a vision for transforming economics politics technology and every part of contemporary culture McMaster Journal of Theology and Ministry: Volume 13, 2011-2012 Hughson T. Ong, 2013-02-08 The McMaster Journal of Theology and Ministry is an electronic and print journal that seeks to provide pastors educators and interested lay persons with the fruits of theological biblical and professional studies in an accessible form Published by McMaster Divinity College in Hamilton Ontario it continues the heritage of scholarly inquiry and theological dialogue represented by the College's previous print publications the Theological Bulletin Theodolite and the McMaster Journal of Theology Psychology & Christianity Gary R. Collins, Eric L. Johnson, Stanton L. Jones, 2000-01-01 This collection of essays edited by Eric Johnson and Stanton Jones offers four different models for the relationship between Christianity and psychology Argument for Action John Lawrence, 2019-01-15 First published in 1999 This book will help professions and professionals to identify their contribution to society and to understand the argument in which they must engage if they are to justify their conduct Because of their specialized expertise and power the task is both difficult and pressing The work is divided into two parts Part 1 discusses the concepts ethics and professional conduct indicating their dimensions and contested nature In each case following examination and analysis of relevant literature a conceptual framework or model is proposed for locating instances of in turn ethics and professional conduct In part 2 the model of ethical choice is used to discuss the ethical justification of professional conduct in the various forms locations and stages provided by its social setting In this way it provides grounding arguments for relevant action by professionals and others dealing with professionals The book concludes with a proposal for a national standing commission on the professions Heart of the Living God Michael G. Maness, 2004-06-23 Maness asks us to tie up our sneakers for we are going to have some fun as we hike into the Grand Canyon of Love Love is the treasure of life It is Love all the way Nothing else really matters outside of Love Best of all our Love will only get better in heaven The treasured ability to have loving relationships is God's gift to us in our Imago Dei the image of God we all share Likewise what we know of Love this side of heaven is but a dusty image of what God experiences I want to get personally involved says Maness Can we have a free will relationship with anyone even God if all of what we do and think is settled I don't think so Love is greater than that and I shall prove that and that is indeed a Grand Canyon Maness brings some of the brain splitting complexities of this to light with good humor introduces dynamic foreknowledge and challenges Classical Theism's avoidance of Love And he exposes some foul play in the process That's the first half of the book For those wanting to strike out on their own wanting to see more of the depth and diversity of the Grand Canyon the second half contains reviews of about 60 major authors a 4 000 Abysmal Bibliography and a huge index to just about everything in the book Maness has thrown a gauntlet before the Classical Theists So tie up your sneakers and take a hike with Michael G Maness as he walks with you into the Grand Canyon see more at www.PreciousHeart.net On the Way Les L. Steele, 1998-08-10 Understanding and Evaluating Autism

Theory Nick Chown, 2016-10-21 As it stands there is little crossover between theoretical knowledge on autism and Asperger syndrome and autism intervention This textbook provides the first guide to all theoretical output including mainstream and alternative as well as non specific theories that can be applied to autism and Asperger syndrome Wisdom and Humanness in Psychology C. Stephen Evans, 1997-12 This book discusses psychology and Christianity and makes the argument that Christian psychology is a possibility The Economic Person Peter L. Danner, 2002 This book emphasizes that analysis of broad economic changes treats people abstractly while a personalist view sees them as human agents who while needing and generating economic goods must still be responsive to others and be aware of values and goals beyond temporal well being Visit our website for sample chapters The Boundaries of Technique Andrew Yuengert, 2004-01-01 In this engaging and thought provoking new work Andrew Yuengert uses the moral philosophy of Thomas Aquinas to offer a fresh perspective on the sharp distinctions currently drawn between economics and ethics In contract to modern philosophical approaches which focus on the contrast between is and ought statements a Thomistic analysis begins with the actions of economic researchers This approach reconciles two popular extreme positions economics as ethical at every turn and economics as morally neutral Exploring recent controversies over the role of ethics in economics The Boundaries of Technique encourages scholars and students to discover and debate the ways in which economics is insulated from ethics and the ways in which it is dependent upon it Ultimately by bringing readers to a deeper awareness of the intrinsic involvement of the individual and the responsibility of moral choice Yuengert makes an invaluable contribution to the study and practice of economics "Education Has Nothing to Do with Theology" Edward J. Newell, 2006-08-01 Does education have any relation to theology How do the educator's worldview commitments speak to his or her practice of education James Michael Lee brought a definite answer to these questions a firm no to the relations question and an advocacy for empirical findings over and against any speculative or theoretical positions in reply to the commitments question Lee claimed to have a universal neutral metatheory for all religious education a theory that would apply to all religious educators in any and every religion But in proposing his theory he overlooked the way that empirical facts express worldviews This book is a detective story tracing commitments that lay underneath empirical neutrality In the process the reader will see avenues that unmistakably link education to theology Education turns out to be a thoroughly worldview conditioned process This new work is essential reading for professors and students in both religious and general education A Sword between the Sexes? Mary Stewart Van Leeuwen, 2010-02-01 What did C S Lewis really think about gender roles In this book a widely recognized expert on male and female roles evaluates Lewis's understanding and presentation of gender revealing that he ended his life thinking differently about gender than many of his followers assume This is the first book to provide a close examination of Lewis's thought on gender and what it means for today It addresses the tension between faith and science and offers insight into the continuing debate over gender relations egalitarianism and complementarianism The book will appeal to readers of C S Lewis and those who are interested in gender issues
