The first volume opens with introductory essays that provide snapshots of Christianity in the U S from pre colonial times to the present as well as a statistical profile and a timeline of key dates and events. Entries are organized from A to Z. The final volume closes with essays exploring impressions of Christianity in the United States from other faiths and other parts of the world as well as a select yet comprehensive bibliography. Appendices help readers locate entries by thematic section and author and a comprehensive index further aids navigation.

Extra volumes issued for special conventions: 1821 The Living Church, 1943 Many Parts, One Body. James Dator, Jan Nunley, 2010-02. The dioceses of San Joaquin, Pittsburgh, Fort Worth and Quincy voted to secede from the Episcopal Church. The bishop of Pittsburgh was deposed for abandonment of communion with several other bishops removed from ministry in the Episcopal Church after declaring their alignment with other provinces of the Anglican Communion. The diocese of Virginia is in the midst of protracted legal battles with parishes seeking to leave with property with Virginia lower courts issuing rulings reflecting minority interpretation of The Episcopal Church governance. What's going on, who's in charge and what about real property assets? In order to determine the locus of authority within the Episcopal Church, political scientist James Dator carefully analyzed the three main styles of constitutional government: confederal, federal and unitary and applied them to the Episcopal Church in his 1959 dissertation. Now working with religious journalist Jan Nunley who added current legal cases and canonical updates, Dr. Dator's research offers newfound currency and prescient applicability. Topics include a thorough examination of the Episcopal Church's Constitution and Canons, 1782 to present, plus the structure, executive powers and governing roles of its various parts.
