The Ancient World Frank N. Magill, 2003-12-16 Containing 250 entries each volume of the Dictionary of World Biography contains examines the lives of the individuals who shaped their times and left their mark on world history Much more than a Who s Who each entry provides an in depth essay on the life and career of the individual concerned Essays commence with a quick reference section that provides basic facts on the individual s life and achievements and conclude with a fully annotated bibliography The extended biography places the life and works of the individual within an historical context and the summary at the end of each essay provides a synopsis of the individual's place in history Any student in the field will want to have one of these as a handy reference companion Studies in Early Greek Philosophy Jaap Mansfeld, 2018-09-11 The collection of nineteen articles in Jaap Mansfeld's Studies in Early Greek Philosophy span the period from Anaximander to Socrates Solutions to problems of interpretation are offered through a scrutiny of the sources and also of the traditions of presentation and reception found in antiquity Excursions in the history of scholarship help to diagnose discussions of which the primum movens may have been forgotten General questions are treated for instance the phenomenon of detheologization in doxographical texts while problems relating to individual philosophers are also discussed For example the history of Anaximander's cosmos the status of Parmenides human world and the reliability of what we know about the soul of Anaximenes and of what Philoponus tells us about the behaviour of Democritus atoms Dictionary of World Biography Frank Northen Magill, Alison Aves, 2003-01-23 Containing 250 entries each volume of the Dictionary of World Biography contains examines the lives of the individuals who shaped their times and left their mark on world history Much more than a Who's Who each entry provides an in depth essay on the life and career of the individual concerned Essays commence with a quick reference section that provides basic facts on the individual's life and achievements and conclude with a fully annotated bibliography The extended biography places the life and works of the individual within an historical context and the summary at the end of each essay provides a synopsis of the individual's place in history Any student in the field will want to have one of these as a handy reference companion Heraclitus and Derrida Erin O'Connell, 2005 Famous for their enigmatic ambiguity the fragmentary texts of the Presocratic philosopher Heraclitus have puzzled and fascinated readers for over two millennia This comparative analysis of Heraclitus and Jacques Derrida reveals the ancient roots of Derrida's contemporary discourses on deconstruction logocentrism and difference It also demonstrates that reading Derrida enhances further elaboration of the arguments in the Heraclitean fragments An excellent resource for students of philosophy comparative literature and literary theory this groundbreaking study offers an accessible account of the ancient antecedent to a major trend in the contemporary theory of language literature and philosophy Peace Antony Adolf, 2009-03-16 How peace has been made and maintained experienced and imagined is not only a matter of historical interest but also of pressing concern Peace A World History is the first study to explore the full spectrum of peace and peacemaking from prehistoric to contemporary times in a single volume aimed at improving their prospects By focusing on key periods events people ideas and texts Antony Adolf shows how the inspiring possibilities and pragmatic limits of peace and peacemaking were shaped by their cultural contexts and in turn shaped local and global histories Diplomatic pacifist legal transformative non violent and anti war movements are just a few prominent examples Proposed and performed in socio economic political religious philosophical and other ways Adolf's presentation of the diversity of peace and peacemaking challenges the notions that peace is solely the absence of war that this negation is the only task of peacemakers and that history is exclusively written by military victors Without the victories of peacemakers and the resourcefulness of the peaceful he contends there would be no history to write This book is essential reading for students scholars policy shapers activists and general readers involved with how present forms of peace and peacemaking have been influenced by those of the past and how future forms can benefit by taking these into account

The Flower of Suffering Nuria Scapin,2020-04-06 Greek tragedy occupies a prominent place in the development of early Greek thought However even within the partial renaissance of debates about tragedy s roots in the popular thought of archaic Greece its potential connection to the early philosophical tradition remains with few exceptions at the periphery of current interest This book aims to show that our understanding of Aeschylus Oresteia is enhanced by seeing that the trilogy s treatment of Zeus and Justice Dik shares certain concepts assumptions categories of thought and forms of expression with the surviving fragments and doxography of certain Presocratic thinkers especially Anaximander Xenophanes Heraclitus and Parmenides By examining several aspects of the tragic trilogy in relation to Presocratic debates about theology and cosmic justice it shows how such scrutiny may affect our understanding of the theological tension and metaphysical assumptions underpinning the Oresteia s dramatic narrative Ultimately it argues that Aeschylus bestows on the experience of human suffering as it is given in the contradictory multiplicity of the world the status of a profound form of knowledge a meeting point between the human and divine spheres

Cosmological Aesthetics through the Kantian Sublime and Nietzschean Dionysian Erman Kaplama,2013-12-12 Erman Kaplama explores the principle of transition bergang from metaphysics to physics developed by Kant in his unfinished magnum opus Opus Postumum Drawing on the Heraclitean logos and Kant s notions of sense intuition Anschauung and reflective judgment Kaplama interprets transition as an aesthetic principle He revises the idea of nature phusis as the principle of motion referring to Heraclitus cosmology as well as Heidegger s and Nietzsche s lectures on the pre Socratics Kaplama compares the Kantian sublime and Nietzschean Dionysian as aesthetic theories representing the transition from the sensible to supersensible and as cosmological theories that consider human nature ethos as an extension of nature In light of such Nietzschean notions as the eternal recurrence and will to power the Dionysian is shown to trigger the transition by which nature and art are redefined Finally Cosmological Aesthetics employs the principles of transition and motion to analyze Van Gogh s Starry Night in an excursus
