Prester Quest:

The Prester Quest Nicholas Jubber, 2005 In 1177 Pope Alexander III keen to secure a Christian ally from the other side of the Dar al Islam whose reputed wealth would prove invaluable to the Crusades wrote a letter to the elusive King of the Indies otherwise known as Prester John The person the Pope personally selected to deliver this letter into the hand of Prester John was a physician called Master Philip He was never heard of again Eight hundred and twenty four years later armed with a copy of Pope Alexander's letter and with a redoubtable travelling companion from his university days Nick Jubber set out from Venice with the express intention of somewhat belatedly completing Master Philip's mission Over the next four months he would travel by bus train tractor and horse drawn cart around the Eastern Mediterranean through the Middle East and North Africa before homing in on Ethiopia and the closely guarded tomb of a medieval king who legend links with the mythical mystical figure of Prester John From insights into medieval history and mysticism through observations on politics and religious tensions to accounts of eccentric customs ranging from the different names for the Middle Eastern water pipe to the unusual nature of Ethiopian time keeping and the day to day hurdles encountered while travelling through strange sometimes alien lands THE PRESTER QUEST is an ebullient eccentric erudite enlightening and extremely readable account of an extraordinary journey witness a lust for power that has not diminished with age The European Opportunity Felipe Fernández-Armesto, 2019-10-28 These 15 articles follow on from those in The Global Opportunity in that they examine how and why the Europeans expanded worldwide Part one explores the means in terms of science technology and material resources part two examines the motives primarily as a result of restricted resources in Europe while part three concludes with the reasons that the expansion continued and grew the momentum The Quest for Eastern Christians , The Quest for Eastern Christians Francis M. Rogers, 1962-10-11 The Quest for Eastern Christians was first published in 1962 Minnesota Archive Editions uses digital technology to make long unavailable books once again accessible and are published unaltered from the original University of Minnesota Press editions Most writers have considered that the great European explorations during the Age of Discovery were motivated primarily by a thirst for knowledge of other lands desire for international trade or missionary zeal Professor Rogers demonstrates that there was another significant reason why Europeans traveled to the East during the late medieval and Renaissance period This was the dream of a Christian Indies which in turn led to a quest for the Christians of the Farther East The author specifically seeks to establish a direct relation between the knowledge of Indian and Ethiopian Christians which was available in Jerusalem from early Christian times onward and which returning pilgrims disseminated in the West and the presence of the Portuguese in South India and the Ethiopian highlands in the early sixteenth century Throughout his presentation of the evidence for the chain of events which links Palestinian knowledge with Portuguese action Professor Rogers places emphasis on the early printed books and tracts which circulated both accurate information and rumor Specimen pages from some of these books are reproduced as illustrations and there is a double page chart showing the genealogy of the nations and the sects of the Christians There is a list of the early printed books which the author has used in his study as well as a bibliography Mappila Muslims Husain Raṇṭattāṇi, 2007 Historicizing Fiction/Fictionalizing History Nishevita J. Murthy, 2014-10-16 Historicizing Fiction Fictionalizing History brings together two authors Umberto Eco and Orhan Pamuk not frequently studied in comparison By focusing on their non fictional works to present a unique study of the methods and concepts of representation Murthy uses contemporary historical novels to examine fictional depictions of reality and provides a fresh perspective on representation studies in literature Written in an accessible style and tapping into fields as varied as literary and critical theory the historical novel postmodernism and historiography Historicizing Fiction Fictionalizing History considers the ways in which reality as discourse confronts a text external reality and how this confrontation affects the autonomy of the fictional space topics that remain persistently problematic areas within literary studies Eco's The Name of the Rose and Baudolino and Pamuk's My Name is Red and Snow with their topical concerns and methods of representation promise a rewarding comparative study This book provides an early critical framework for these four works placing them within the rubric of the postmodernist historical novel as creative works that also comment on the process of literary writing through their recreation of historical pasts In this respect Historicizing Fiction Fictionalizing History promises to be an engaging read in literary criticism and historiography as well as a handy companion for Eco and Pamuk enthusiasts

Medieval Ethiopian Kingship, Craft, and Diplomacy with Latin Europe Verena Krebs, 2021-03-17

This book explores why Ethiopian kings pursued long distance diplomatic contacts with Latin Europe in the late Middle Ages It traces the history of more than a dozen embassies dispatched to the Latin West by the kings of Solomonic Ethiopia a powerful Christian kingdom in the medieval Horn of Africa Drawing on sources from Europe Ethiopia and Egypt it examines the Ethiopian kings motivations for sending out their missions in the fifteenth and early sixteenth centuries and argues that a desire to acquire religious treasures and foreign artisans drove this early intercontinental diplomacy Moreover the Ethiopian initiation of contacts with the distant Christian sphere of Latin Europe appears to have been intimately connected to a local political agenda of building monumental ecclesiastical architecture in the North East African highlands and asserted the Ethiopian rulers claim of universal kingship and rightful descent from the biblical king Solomon Shedding new light on the self identity of a late medieval African dynasty at the height of its power this book challenges conventional narratives of African European encounters on the eve of the so called Age of Exploration
