Preview, 1955 Erik Warman, 1955 Reagan, American Icon Robert Paul Metzger, 1989 Hitchcock and the Spy Film James Chapman, 2017-11-30 Film historian James Chapman has mined Hitchcock's own papers to investigate fully for the first time the spy thrillers of the world's most famous filmmaker Hitchcock made his name as director of the spy movie He returned repeatedly to the genre from the British classics of the 1930s including The 39 Steps and The Lady Vanishes through wartime Hollywood films Foreign Correspondent and Saboteur to the Cold War tracts North by Northwest Torn Curtain and his unmade film The Short Night Chapman's close reading of these films demonstrates the development of Hitchcock's own style as well as how the spy genre as a whole responded to changing political and cultural contexts from the threat of Nazism in the 1930s and 40s to the atom spies and double agents of the post war world The Defiant One Aubrey Malone, 2013-09-21 This new biography contains excerpts from interviews and articles by and about Curtis all the way from his teens in the Bronx to his death at 85 in 2010 Many of these are little known and provide insights into his complex relationship with fame family and females the three obsessions of his life The book also documents his many struggles with substance abuse his disenchantment with Hollywood when it failed to take him seriously the violent deaths of his two brothers the failure of four of his marriages a heart attack the death of a son from a drug overdose and most importantly the manner in which his resilient spirit saw him through these challenges and tragedies It's a revisionist biography which adds significantly to the received wisdom on his life and times not only through personal interviews but also revelations from two recent books not yet available in English one written by his daughter Allegra and the other by his ex wife Christine Kaufmann Classic French Noir Deborah Walker-Morrison, 2018-10-18 French film noir has long been seen as a phenomenon distinct from its Hollywood counterpart This book an innovative departure from conventional noir scholarship now adopts a biocultural approach to exploring the French genre through the years 1941-1959 Chapters reveal noir as a product of the social and cultural factors at play in occupied liberated and post war France marked by malaise at military defeat Nazi collaboration and the impact of industrialisation Furthermore the book uncovers the evolutionary mechanisms of sexuality and reproduction beneath the national context that drive gendered behaviour on screen During this period for example the emerging urgent demand for population growth coupled with the severe shortage of eligible males rendered the mating game particularly perilous for traditional women beginning to enter the workplace This explains the cynical yet seductive behaviour of the femme fatale Deborah Walker Morrison focuses on the dangerous often deadly desires of an array of male and female character types moving past the celebrated fatal femme to tragic heroines psychopathic narcissists fatal hommes and gangster anti heroes The book re-examines productions by directors such as Henri Georges Clouzot Jacques Becker and Jules Dassin and pulls together strands of sociological biological psychological and evolutionary science to create an illuminating study of the intense human passions underlying the cut throat world of noir Boxing

Herbert G. Goldman, 2012-02-06 This four volume reference work covers the history records and lore of boxers and boxing Part I the longest section presents alphabetical entries of bare knuckle boxers and the transitional and Queensberry Rules eras with more than 2 600 fighters from the latter Each entry includes dates of birth and death place of birth nicknames a list of fights and career statistics Part II covers non boxers including referees promoters publicists managers trainers cut men announcers and others Part III contains records of world title bouts from 1878 through 2010 Part IV lists various records and champions both amateur and professional including the all time leaders in many statistical categories Part V describes the organization of the sport tracing the history of weight divisions world titles and halls of fame Part VI is an overview of boxing in history and culture champions of ancient Greece equipment gymnasiums radio and television literature drama the arts etc An appendix offers a timeline of boxing and a bibliography concludes the work J. Arthur Rank and the British Film Industry

Geoffrey Macnab, 2013-01-11 Presiding over the golden era of the British Film Industry from the mid to late 1940s J Arthur Rank financed movies such as Oliver Twist The Red Shoes Brief Encounter Caesar and Cleopatra and Black Narcissus Never before and never since has the industry risen to such heights J Arthur Rank charts every aspect of the robust film culture that Rank helped to create Having started out with relatively little knowledge of the cinema Rank s sponsorship was to bring about astounding progress within the industry and by establishing an organization comparable in size to any of the major Hollywood studios Rank briefly managed to reconcile and consolidate the competing demands of art and business an achievement very much absent from today s diminished and fragmented film industry Macnab goes on to explain the eventual collapse of the Rank experiment amidst the economic and political maelstrom of post war Britain highlighting the problems still facing the industry today By meshing archival research with interviews with Rank s contemporaries and members of his family this definitive study firmly restores Rank to his rightful place at the hub of British film history Gloria Grahame, Bad Girl of Film Noir Robert J. Lentz, 2014-01-10 A marvelous actress Gloria Grahame 1923 1981 was also an iconic figure of film noir Her talents are showcased in several classic motion pictures of the 1940s and 1950s including It s a Wonderful Life Crossfire In a Lonely Place The Greatest Show on Earth The Big Heat Oklahoma and The Bad and the Beautiful for which she earned an Academy Award This comprehensive overview of Gloria Grahame s life and work examines each of her feature films in detail as well as her made for television productions her television series appearances and her stage career Also discussed are the varied ways in which Grahame s acting performances were affected by her tumultuous personal life which included four marriages the second to director Nicholas Ray and the fourth to Ray s stepson Anthony Box Office ,1956

Popular music on screen John Mundy, 2024-07-30 Popular Music on Screen examines the relationship between popular music and the screen from the origins of the Hollywood musical to contemporary developments in music television and video Through detailed examination of films television programs and popular music together with analysis of the economic technological and cultural determinants of their production and consumption the book argues that popular music has been increasingly influenced by its visual economy Though engaging with the debates that surround postmodernism the book suggests that what most characterizes the relationship between popular music and the screen is a strong sense of continuity expressed through institutional structures representational strategies and the ideology of entertainment Changing Tunes: The Use of Pre-existing Music in Film Robynn Stilwell, 2017-09-08 The study of pre existing film music is now a well established part of Film Studies covering classical music and popular music Generally these broad musical types are studied in isolation This anthology brings them together in twelve focused case studies by a range of scholars including Claudia Gorbman Jeongwon Joe Raymond Knapp and Timothy Warner The first section explores art music both instrumental and operatic it revolves around the debate on the relation between the aural and visual tracks and whether pre existing music has an integrative function or not The second section is devoted to popular music in film and shows how very similar the functions of popular music in film are to the supposedly more elite classical music and opera Case studies in part 1 Eyes Wide Shut Raging Bull Brief Encounter Detective The Godfather Part III three versions of the Carmen story DeMille s Preminger s and Rosi s Amadeus The Birth of a Nation M Eine Stadt sucht einen MA rder Needful Things Rat Race Case studies in part 2 various films by AlmodA 3var Young Frankenstein Pulp Fiction Trainspotting Amelie High Fidelity Ghost World Heavenly Creatures The Virgin Suicides and the video Timber by Coldcut Let's Go London 16th Edition Let's Go Inc., 2007-11-27 Let s Go London on a budget travel guide Eleanor Parker Doug McClelland, 2003 This is the first book on enduring Hollywood star Eleanor Parker long underrated despite three best actress Academy Award nominations Caged 1950 Detective Story 1951 Interrupted Melody 1955 Parker was a beauty as well as a versatile actress and her achievements approach those of more publicized colleagues Bette Davis and Katharine Hepburn With Parker s blessing and her son Paul Clemens cooperation Doug McClelland has written one of the most thorough examinations of a film star s career The book is valuable to librarians academics and film enthusiasts for its extensive documentation and analyses of all of Parker s work for the bibliographies of her coverage in books and periodicals for the portrait of a glamorous creative era in filmmaking and for the insights into the careers of Eleanor Parker s associates many among the most heavily researched motion picture artists of cinema s Golden Age The book contains a forward by noted screenwriter William Ludwig who won an Academy Award for Parker s Interrupted Melody and afterword by Marjorie Lawrence the opera singer whom Parker portrayed in Interrupted Melody and photos of Eleanor Parker that show her in many of her thousand faces The Cool and the Crazy Peter Stanfield, 2015-04-08 Explosive Amazing Terrifying You won t believe your eyes Such movie taglines were common in the 1950s as Hollywood churned out a variety of low budget pictures that were sold on the basis of their sensational content and topicality While a few of these movies have since become canonized by film fans and critics a number of the era s biggest fads have now faded into obscurity The Cool and the Crazy examines seven of these film cycles including short lived trends like boxing movies war pictures and social problem films detailing the sordid and violent life of teenagers as well as uniquely

1950s takes on established genres like the gangster picture Peter Stanfield reveals how Hollywood sought to capitalize upon current events moral panics and popular fads making movies that were ripped from the headlines on everything from the Korean War to rock and roll As he offers careful readings of several key films he also considers the broader historical and commercial contexts in which these films were produced marketed and exhibited In the process Stanfield uncovers surprising synergies between Hollywood and other arenas of popular culture like the ways that the fashion trend for blue jeans influenced the 1950s Western Delivering sharp critical insights in jazzy accessible prose The Cool and the Crazy offers an appreciation of cinema as a pop medium unabashedly derivative faddish and ephemeral By studying these long burst bubbles of 1950s pop Stanfield reveals something new about what films do and the pleasures they provide

Postcards from the Road Jonathan Day, 2014-05-01 Walker Evans said in his 1958 introduction to Robert Frank's The Americans For the thousandth time it must be said that pictures speak for themselves wordlessly visually or they fail The images revolutionized post war American photography With their candid images of men and women from all classes and walks of life the photographs presented a very different story than that portrayed by the wholesome caricature of midcentury prosperity pervading American photography at the time Although initially dismissed by his peers for his pioneering work Frank was ultimately credited with changing the course of the art form and his photography holds a secure status in the history of twentieth century art And he did all this without words It seems appropriate then and not a little overdue that Jonathan Day has created a book that expounds explores and examines Frank's work pictorially Taking Frank's iconic images as his point of reference Day shot new photographs that commented on the road and contemporary America Here these images are paired with critical commentary that details the aspects of the work that are visually expounded and explained in Day's complementary images A visual entryway to the photographs and themes of this iconic book in the history of photography Postcards from the Road represents an innovative carefully considered departure from standard photographic textbooks

Elia Kazan Brian Neve, 2008-12-08 In 1999 Elia Kazan 1909 2003 received an honorary Oscar for lifetime achievement it was a controversial award for in 1952 he had given testimony to the HUAC Committee for which he was ostracized by many That Oscar also acknowledged Kazan's remarkable contribution to American and world cinema making such films as On the Waterfront and A Streetcar Named Desire Kazan's life in the cinema is due a reassessment one that is presented expertly and gracefully by Brian Neve in this book drawing on previously neglected and some hitherto untapped sources Focussing in particular on the producer director's post On the Waterfront New York based independent work and on his key artistic collaborations including those with Tennessee Williams John Steinbeck and Budd Schulberg Neve gives a fascinating reassessment of Kazan's famed technique with such actors as Marlon Brando and James Dean and his lifetime concern to provoke and photograph authentic behaviour He reveals a pattern through the films of personally resonant themes relating for example to ethnicity and the American immigrant myth He reviews Kazan's style from the colour and wide screen of East of Eden to the creative use of location in his American South films including Baby Doll. He debates the reception of Kazan's work and the controversy which dogged his career of his 1952 Congressional testimony. These elements and more make this a very readable and memorable fresh portrayal of the film career of this ever fascinating director. Charles McGraw Alan K. Rode, 2012-08-28. The iconic actor Charles McGraw appeared in over 140 roles on films and television including the classic noir pictures The Killers 1946 and The Narrow Margin 1952. Whether portraying tough cops or sadistic killers McGraw brought a unique authenticity to the screen. Emphasizing his impact on the film noir style this comprehensive biography examines McGraw's lengthy career against the backdrop of a changing Hollywood. Through numerous personal interviews with his surviving intimates, close acquaintances and co-workers his tumultuous personal life is detailed from his earliest days to his bizarre accidental death. Also included are an extensive critical filmography of McGraw's feature film career, a complete list of television appearances and previously unpublished film stills and personal photos. Catalogue R.L. Creative Canada, 1971-12-15. Did he ever play Hamlet? Has she worked in television? What was the title of his first novel? Under whom did she study? How many children has he? Answers to such questions about contemporary Canadian artists have often been difficult even impossible to find. This series has been created to provide the answers. It covers creative and performing artists who have contributed as individuals to the culture of Canada in the twentieth century. Each volume in the series presents a cross section of many different kinds of artists: authors of imaginative works, artists and sculptors, musicians, performers, composers, conductors and directors, and performing artists in ballet, modern dance, radio, theatre, television and motion pictures, directors, designers and producers in theatre, cinema, radio, television and the dance, choreographers and for cinema, cartoonists and animators. Within each category of art is included a selection of those who have achieved national and international recognition, those who have been recognized locally and some now deceased who markedly influenced their contemporaries locally, nationally or internationally. This is not a critical compilation; rather it is an objective and factual reference work for those interested in contemporary Canadian culture. Information was collected by painstaking research in a wide variety of sources and wherever possible it has been verified by the artist to make each entry as accurate and comprehensive as possible. In re Williams Estate; Ziarko v.
