Principles of Art History Heinrich Wölfflin, 1950-01-01 Examines the style and method of representation in painting sculpture and architecture and sets the standards for defining historical transformations Principles of Art History Heinrich Wölfflin, 2015-05-07 Principles of Art History by Heinrich Wölfflin 1864 1945 a revolutionary attempt to construct a science of art through the study of the development of style has been a foundational work of formalist art history since it was first published in 1915 At once systematic and subjective and remarkable for its compelling descriptions of works of art Wölfflin's text has endured as an accessible yet rigorous approach to the study of style Although Wölfflin applied his analysis to objects of early modern European art Principles of Art History has been a fixture in the theoretical and methodological debates of the discipline of art history and has found a global audience With translations in twenty four languages and many reprints Wölfflin's work may be the most widely read and translated book of art history ever This new English translation appearing one hundred years after the original publication returns readers to Wölfflin's 1915 text and images It also includes the first English translations of the prefaces and afterword that Wölfflin himself added to later editions Introductory essays provide a historical and critical framework referencing debates engendered by Principles in the twentieth century for a renewed reading of the text in the twenty first

Principles of Art History: The Problem of the Development of Style in Later Art Heinrich Wölfflin, 2024-06-07 What are the fundamental differences between classic and baroque art Is there a pattern underlying the seemingly helter skelter development of art in different cultures and at different times What causes our entirely different reactions to precisely the same painting or to the same painter In this now classic treatise published originally in Germany in the early 1920s Professor Wölfflin provides an objective set of criteria to answer these and related questions Examining such factors as style quality and mode of representation in terms of five opposed dynamisms the linear vs painterly plane vs recession closed vs open form multiplicity vs unity and clearness vs unclearness the author analyzes the work of 64 major artists delving even into sculpture and architecture 150 illustrations of the work of Botticelli van Cleve Durer Holbein Brueghel Bouts Hals Rembrandt Velasquez Titian Vermeer and other major figures accompany Professor Wölfflin's brilliant contributions to the methodology of art criticism Whether you teach art study it or want to understand it purely for your own enjoyment this epoch making study will certainly increase your comprehension of and pleasure in the world's art heritage Print ed

Methods and Theories of Art History Anne D'Alleva, 2005 This is an analysis of complex forms of art history It covers a broad range of approaches presenting individual arguments controversies and divergent perspectives The book begins by introducing the concept of theory and explains why it is important to the practice of art history

Principles of Art History Heinrich Wölfflin, 1952 Principles of Art History Heinrich Wölfflin, 1965

Principles of Art History, 1929 Fifty Key Texts in Art History Diana Newall, Grant Pooke, 2013-03-01 Fifty Key Texts in Art History is an anthology of critical commentaries selected from the classical period to the late modern It explores

some of the central and emerging themes issues and debates within Art History as an increasingly expansive and globalised discipline It features an international range of contributors including art historians artists curators and gallerists Arranged chronologically each entry includes a bibliography for further reading and a key word index for easy reference Text selections range across issues including artistic value cultural identity modernism gender psychoanalysis photographic theory poststructuralism and postcolonialism Rozsika Parker and Griselda Pollock Old Mistresses Women Art Ideology 1981 Victor Burgin s The End of Art Theory Criticism and Postmodernity 1986 Homi Bhabha The Location of Culture Hybridity Liminal Spaces and Borders 1994 Geeta Kapur When was Modernism in Indian Art 1995 Judith Butler s Gender Trouble 1999 Georges Didi Huberman Confronting Images Questioning the Ends of a Certain History of Art 2004 Past Looking Michael Ann Holly, 1996 Michael Ann Holly asserts that historical interpretation of the pictorial arts is always the intellectual product of a dynamic exchange between past and present Recent theory emphasizes the subjectivity of the historian and the ways in which any interpretation betrays the presence of an interpreter In Past Looking she challenges that view arguing that historical objects of representational art are actively engaged in prefiguring the kinds of histories that can be written about them Holly directs her attention to early modern works of visual art and their rhetorical roles in legislating the kind of tales told about them by a few classic cultural commentaries of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Burckhardt s synchronic vision of the Italian Renaissance W Ifflin s exemplification of the Baroque Schapiro *s and Freud *s dispute over the meanings of Leonardo *s art and Panofsky *s exegesis of the disguised symbolism of Northern Renaissance painting The Expressionist Turn in Art History KimberlyA. Smith, 2017-07-05 During the period in which Expressionist artists were active in central Europe art historians were producing texts which also began to be characterized evocatively as expressionist yet the notion of an expressionist art history has yet to be fully explored in historiographic studies of the discipline This anthology offers a cross section of noteworthy art history texts that have been described as expressionist along with critical commentaries by an international group of scholars Written between 1912 and 1933 the primary sources have been selected from the published scholarship of both recognized and less familiar figures in the field s Germanic tradition Wilhelm Worringer Fritz Burger Ernst Heidrich Max Dvor Heinrich W Ifflin and Carl Einstein Translated here for the first time these examples of an expressionist turn in art history along with their secondary analyses and the book *s introduction offer a productive lens through which to re examine the practice and theory of art history in the early twentieth century
