The Principles of European Contract Law and Dutch Law: A Commentary Ewoud H. Hondius, H. J. Van Kooten, 2002-08-27 The topic of harmonisation of European private law and European contract law in particular is rapidly gaining in importance. The topic is not only widely studied by academics and students all over Europe and even beyond it is also on the political agenda of the European Parliament, the European Commission and the European Council. The most important achievement in this field is no doubt the Principles of European Contract Law (PECL) drafted by the Commission on European Contract Law. The European Commission considers the PECL to be a serious option for further harmonisation of European contract law within the European Union. This publication is the first to provide a systematic overview of the PECL in comparison with Dutch contract law as a whole. The book is concise and because of its structure it is easily accessible. Amongst the contributors there are many highly distinguished contract law specialists. It may be used at universities in courses on Comparative Law, European Private Law and European Contract Law. It may also be used by international practitioners, foreign students and academics interested in Dutch contract law who do not have access to Dutch contract law because they have no knowledge of the Dutch language. Last but not least, the book will be of interest to all jurists interested in the harmonisation of the European Private Law.

Principles of European Contract Law and Italian Law Luisa Antonioli, Anna Veneziano, 2005-01-01 To provide valuable legal service to persons in today's Europe, practitioners must be conversant in both national and transnational law. At the European level, the Principles of European Contract Law (PECL) are an increasingly important element of contract law together with national contract law as contained in Civil Codes and various national statutes. Accordingly, Kluwer Law International has initiated a series of volumes under the direction of Prof. Hondius of the University of Utrecht comparing PECL with the most important European legal systems. This volume on Italian law is the second in the series. Using a straightforward comparative method, the editors' analysis not only reveals a significant area of convergence between the PECL and Italian contract law but also highlights the main differences between the two bodies of rules. The reasons for these differences, both legal and non-legal such as historical, social, economic, are clearly set forth. The book provides complete texts with annotations of the PECL and the corresponding Italian rules. The presentation proceeds as follows: general provisions, scope of application, general duties, terminology, formation of contracts, general provisions on offer and acceptance, liability for negotiations, authority of agents, general provisions on direct and indirect representation, validity, interpretation, contents and effects, performance, non-performance and remedies in general, particular remedies for non-performance, right to performance, withholding performance, termination of the contract, price reduction, damages and interest. The editors' commentary includes extensive reference to case law and legal doctrine at all essential points. In this way, they provide a comprehensive description of the law in action as well as its evolving trends. In addition, incisive essays by two leading experts in the field of comparative law, Prof. Rodolfo Sacco and Prof. Michael Joachim Bonell, analyse the relationship of the PECL and Italian law and its wider framework in the harmonisation of private law at the European and international levels. The book is a valuable handbook and guide for both foreign and Italian lawyers For non Italian lawyers be they practitioners or academics it provides a concise but complete and up to date outline of current Italian contract law organized on the basis of a system PECL with which many European lawyers are familiar For Italian lawyers it offers a clearer insight into a wider European legal contract system whose importance in the evolution of a common European private law is growing rapidly Principles of European Contract Law Series 2 The Principles of European Contract Law, Parts I - III Student Edition Ole Lando,Hugh Beale,André Prüm,Eric Clive,Reinhard Zimmerman,2019-03-28 The Principles of European Contract Law provides the fundamental principles of contract law shared by the legal systems of the Member States and to have a concise comprehensive and workable statement of them The Principles of European Contract Law Parts I II covers the core rules of contract formation authority of agents validity interpretation contents performance non performance and remedies The subjects dealt with in Part III are plurality of debtors and creditors assignment substitution of new debtor and transfer of contract set off prescription illegality conditions and capitalization of interest The Principles have been drawn up by an independent body of experts from each Member State of the EU under a project supported by the European Commission and many other organisations The Principles are stated in the form of articles with a detailed commentary explaining the purpose and operation of each article and its relation to the remainder A particularly valuable feature is that each article also has extensive comparative notes surveying the national laws and other international provisions on the topic No self respecting contract lawyer in Europe can afford to ignore the Lando Principles They are not only a useful and convenient source of information about current laws in the countries of the European Union but also a possible blueprint for the contract part of a future European civil code They are a touchstone against which any discussion of contract law can be tested The principles of european contract law Commission on European Contract Law,2001 The Principles of European Contract Law Lando,2002 This is the third and last part of the Principles of European Contract Law prepared by the Commission of European Contract Law under the chairmanship of Professor Ole Lando Parts I and II were published in 2000 and have attracted great interest and acclaim and a growing volume of secondary literature This present volume follows the same pattern a set of proposed Articles drawn up by the Commission followed by comments and national notes containing a wealth of comparative law The subjects dealt with in Part III are plurality of debtors and creditors assignment substitution of new debtor and transfer of contract set off prescription illegality conditions and capitalization of interest No self respecting contract lawyer in Europe can afford to ignore the Lando Principles They are not only a useful and convenient source of information about current laws in the countries of the European Union but also a possible blueprint for the contract part of a future European civil code They are a touchstone against which any discussion of contract law can be tested The book will be particularly useful to those engaged in arbitrations with and international element to those concerned with comparative law and to those interested in the development of legal policy on contract law at national European or international level
