Contemporary Irish Republican Prison Writing L. Whalen, 2007-11-26 As it traces the textual history of the works of authors like Bobby Sands and Gerry Adams this book analyses Republican resistance to disciplinary structures demonstrating the ways in which prisoners appropriate space through discursive strategies Readings in Syrian Prison Literature R. Shareah Taleghani, 2021-06-21 The simple act of inscription both minute and epic can be a powerful tool to bear witness and give voice to those who are oppressed silenced and forgotten In the eras of Hafiz al Asad and his son Bashar Syrian political dissidents have written extensively about their experiences of detention both while in prison and afterwards This body of writing largely untranslated into English is essential to understanding the oppositional political culture among dissidents since the 1970s a culture that laid the foundation for the 2011 Syrian Revolution The emergence of prison literature as a specific genre helped articulate opposition to authoritarian states including the Asad regime However the significance of Syrian prison literature goes beyond a form of witnessing expressing creative opposition and illuminating the larger cultural and historical backstory of the Syrian uprising Prison literature in all its diversity challenges the narrative structures and conventional language of human rights In doing so prison literature has played an essential role in generating the experimental shift in Arabic literature since the 1960s Taleghani's groundbreaking work explores prison writing's critical role in resistance movements in Syria the evolution of Arabic literature and the development of a global human rights

Prison Writing Julian Broadhead, Laura Kerr, 2002-06-01 Reviews of the previous edition A remarkable anthology which will interest everyone concerned with the fate of prisoners and anxious to see their conditions improved Michael McMullan Justice of the Peace This fascinating and very readable collection of fact fiction and verse is the fifteenth issue edited and produced by two probation officers from Sheffield We are fortunate that they have found a new publisher in Waterside Press to continue giving prisoners and others an opportunity to do something which all writers crave find an audience to communicate their feelings and experiences The contributors give deeply personal insights into the nature of their world and prove that imagination and talent are incapable of being destroyed if people are ready to develop them This anthology deserves to be read by everyone who is interested in new writers experimenting with the development of their talent Each piece is different and compelling David Underhill The Magistrate This 16th edition is an entirely new collection of writings by prisoners and other people connected with prisons from the United Kingdom and beyond Barred Between: A Study on Select Indian Prison Writing by/on Women Maria Mathews, 2023-11-08 Delve into the intricacies of female incarceration in Indian prisons as seen experienced and recounted by two former political activists turned writers This book juxtaposes their narratives with readings of Michel Foucault unveiling the complex subjectivities within prison walls where stories of hope and despair converge resulting in profound liminal experiences Irish Women's Prison Writing Red Washburn, 2022-11-16 This book explores 50 years of Irish women's prison writing 1960s 2010s connecting the work of women leaders and writers in Northern Ireland during the Troubles This volume analyzes political communications petitions news coverage prison files personal letters poetry and short prose and memoirs highlighting the personal correspondence autobiographical narratives and poetry of the following key women Bernadette McAliskey Eileen Hickey Mairead Farrell Seol Darragh Ella O'Dwyer Martina Anderson Dolours Price Marian McGlinchey formerly Marian Price and Eibhlín Ní Giolla Easpaig Ann and Eileen Gillespie Roseleen Walsh and Margaretta D'Arcy This text builds on different fields and discourses to reimagine gender and genre as central to an interdisciplinary and intersectional prison archive Centering Irish women's prison writings in order to challenge canonization in history and literature this volume argues that women's lives and words offer a different view of gender and nation as well as offer a fuller and more inclusive archive of Irish history and literature Additionally this book will point to the ways in which their politics of everyday life and their cultural work is a form of anti colonial civil rights feminism for it speaks truth to power in a world in which compliance and silence are valued Overall this text focuses on rethinking and recasting women's voices and words in order to document and promote the ongoing Irish freedom struggle from an abolitionist feminist perspective Prison Writing of Latin America Joey Whitfield, 2018-07-26 What happens inside Latin American prisons How does the social organisation of prisoners relate to the political structures beyond the walls Is it possible to resist corrupt penal regimes In Prison Writing of Latin America Joey Whitfield turns to those best placed to answer these questions people who have been imprisoned themselves Drawing on a century of material produced by Latin American prisoners from Mexico Cuba Costa Rica Colombia Peru Bolivia and Brazil Whitfield weaves readings of novels memoirs and testimonial texts with social and political analysis Rather than distinguishing between dictatorial and democratic periods of government he shows that from the point of view of the prisoner all states are authoritarian in nature

In the face of oppression however prisoners both political and criminal have found ways not only to resist but also to create alternative communities both real and imagined sometimes in collaboration with each other
