Thomas Griffiths

Prisoner Of Zenda 1937:

The Prisoner of Zenda (1937): Shooting Script, 1937 The Film Daily Year Book of Motion Pictures, 1938 The Encyclopedia of Best Films Jay Robert Nash, 2019-10-23 This all inclusive A Z encyclopedia by one of the world's foremost experts on cinema provides comprehensive annotations of the best films produced from 1914 on. The work offers more than 5 000 three to five star entries: three stars good, four stars excellent, five stars masterpiece, and yes, author Jay Robert Nash has viewed every single one of them as well as many more that did not make the cut. In addition to a precis, each film's entry also includes a listing of the cast as well as the key principles involved in production from the director to the hair stylist. Especially unique to this book is a rating system that helps parents determine whether or not a film is appropriate for their children. Unlike the industry rating system which can be influenced by studio lobbying, Nash objectively evaluates each film and confers upon it one of four recommendations for viewing: recommended, acceptable, cautionary, and unacceptable. Backmatter includes a list of top films by genre: i.e. animated, drama, sports, mystery, adventure, etc., as well as an annotated name index listing all persons mentioned along with their dates of birth and death. Rounding out this essential volume for the film buff are over 500 still photos from the author's private collection.

Hollywood Musicals You Missed Edwin M. Bradley, 2020-06-22 Pre World War II Hollywood musicals weren't only about Astaire and Rogers, Mickey and Judy, Busby Berkeley, Bing Crosby, or Shirley Temple. The early musical developed through tangents that reflected larger trends in film and American culture at large. Here is a survey of select titles with a variety of influences: outsized songwriter personalities, hubbub over hillbilly and cowboy stereotypes, the emergence of swing, and the brief parade of opera stars to celluloid. Featured movies range from the smash hit Alexander's Ragtime Band 1938 to obscurities such as Are You There 1930 and Swing Sister Swing 1938 to the high grossing but now forgotten Mountain Music 1937 and It's Great to Be Alive 1933, a zesty pre Code musical, science fiction comedy mishmash. Also included are some of the not so memorable pictures made by some of the decade's greatest musical stars.

Swordsmen of the Screen Jeffrey Richards, 2014-03-26 This fascinating study of the genre of swashbuckling films received wide critical acclaim when it was first published in 1977. Jeffrey Richards assesses the contributions to the genre of directors, designers, and fencing masters as well as of the stars themselves and devotes several chapters to the principal subjects: if the swashbucklers, pirates, highwaymen, cavaliers, and knights. The result is to recall, however fleetingly, the golden days of the silver screen. Reviews of the original edition: An intelligent, scholarly, well-written account of adventure films; this work is sensitive both to cinema history and to the literary origins of the swashbuckler. Essential for any library with books on film; it may very well be the definitive book on its subject. Library Journal

"Movies Were Always Magical" Leo Verswijver, 2003-03-13 This work is a compilation of interviews with 19 film actors, directors, and producers who were all part of the studio system that made Hollywood such a powerful and illustrious city in the era of the 1950s.
