Prisoner Without A Name Cell Without A Number:

Prisoner Without a Name, Cell Without a Number Jacobo Timerman, 2002 An Argentine newspaper publisher who dared to criticize his government's policy of cruel repression tells the story of his arrest imprisonment and torture New York Magazine, 1983-05-30 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Beauty's Vineyard Kimberly Vrudny, 2016-05-15 Beauty's Vineyard A Theological Aesthetic of Anguish and Anticipation part spiritual memoir part systematic theology opens with an interpretation of the parable of the tenants and concludes with the parable of the workers in the vineyard In between unfolds a systematic theology of anguish and anticipation in which the author wrestles with the social evils that plague our society and expresses hopeful anticipation for the coming of the kingdom of God about which Jesus spoke a just and peaceful reality in the here and now that will find its ultimate consummation Christians hope in the hereafter A theological understanding of Beauty as the incarnation of the Compassion of God guides the way bringing the metaphysics of Thomas Aquinas into conversation with the liberative theologies of the Global South through treatments of Trinity imago Dei sin Christology salvation theodicy and hope

Seeking Salaam Sandra M. Chait, 2011-12-01 Prolonged violence in the Horn of Africa the northeastern corner of the continent has led growing numbers of Ethiopians Eritreans and Somalis to flee to the United States Despite the enmity created by centuries of conflict they often find themselves living as neighbors in their adopted cities with their children as class mates in school In many ways they are successfully navigating life in their new home however they continue to struggle to bridge old ethnic divisions and find salaam or peace with one another News from home fuels historical grievances and perpetuates tensions within their communities delaying acculturation undermining attempts at reconciliation and sabotaging the opportunity to reach the American Dream In conversations with forty East African immigrants living in Seattle Washington and Portland Oregon Sandra Chait captures the immigrants struggle for identity in the face of competing stories and documents how some individuals have been able to transcend the ghosts from the past and extend a tentative hand to their former enemies Encyclopedia of Twentieth-Century Latin American and Caribbean Literature, 1900-2003 Daniel Balderston, Mike Gonzalez, 2004-02-12 The Encyclopedia of Twentieth Century Latin American and Caribbean Literature 1900 2003 draws together entries on all aspects of literature including authors critics major works magazines genres schools and movements in these regions from the beginning of the twentieth century to the present day With more than 200 entries written by a team of international contributors this Encyclopedia successfully covers the popular to the esoteric The Encyclopedia is an invaluable reference resource for those studying Latin American and or Caribbean literature as well as being of huge interest to those following Spanish or Portuguese language courses

Global Justice and Due Process

Larry May, 2010-12-09 The idea of due process of law is recognised as the cornerstone of domestic legal systems and in this book Larry May makes a powerful case for its extension to international law Focussing on the procedural rights deriving from Magna Carta such as the rights of habeas corpus not to be arbitrarily incarcerated and nonrefoulement not to be sent to a state where harm is likely he examines the legal rights of detainees whether at Guantanamo or in refugee camps He offers a conceptual and normative account of due process within a general system of global justice and argues that due process should be recognised as jus cogens as universally binding in international law His vivid and compelling study will be of interest to a wide range of readers in political philosophy political theory and the theory and practice of international law

Resistance Literature

Barbara Harlow, 2023-03-01 As one of the foundational texts in the field of postcolonial writing Barbara Harlow's Resistance Literature introduced new ground in Western literary studies Originally published in 1987 and now reissued with a new Preface by Mia Carter this powerfully argued and controversial critique develops an approach to literature which is essentially political Resistance Literature introduces the reader to the role of literature in the liberation movements of the developing world during the 20th Century It considers a body of writing largely ignored in the west Although the book is organized according to generic topics poetry narrative prison memoirs thematic topics and the specific historical conditions that influence the cultural and political strategies of various resistance struggles including those of Palestine Nicaragua and South Africa are brought to the fore Among the questions raised are the role of women in the developing world communication in circumstances of extreme atomization literature versus propaganda censorship and the problem of adopting literary forms identified with the oppressor culture

We Are Many

Edward S. Shapiro, 2005-06-03 The topics of Edward Shapiro's book span the gamut of the American Jewish experience from the politics of American Jews the nature of American Jewish identity relations between Jews and blacks and Jews and American capitalism He discusses writer Herman Wouk Patrick Buchanan and the Jews John Higham's interpretation of American anti-Semitism Nathan Glazer's view of American Orthodoxy and the Jewishness of Sidney Hook Of particular interest is the author's exploration of how American Jews have reconciled their dual identities as Americans and as Jews These solutions have shaped the way Jews have voted prayed earned a living married and chosen a profession America Shapiro argues has truly been different for Jews but this difference has shaped the history of America's Jews in unexpected and ironic ways The fact that Jews have risen rapidly up the economic and social ladder and have become politically influential has not eliminated their insecurity and the sense they have of themselves as a marginal group

The Phenomenon of Torture William F. Schulz, 2013-07-17 Torture is the most widespread human rights crime in the modern world practiced in more than one hundred countries including the United States How could something so brutal almost unthinkable be so prevalent The Phenomenon of Torture Readings and

Commentary is designed to answer that question and many others Beginning with a sweeping view of torture in Western history the book examines questions such as these Can anyone be turned into a torturer What exactly is the psychological relationship between a torturer and his victim Are certain societies more prone to use torture Are there any circumstances under which torture is justified to procure critical information in order to save innocent lives for example How can torture be stopped or at least its incidence be reduced Edited and with an introduction by the former Executive Director of Amnesty International USA The Phenomenon of Torture draws on the writings of torture victims themselves such as the Argentinian journalist Jacobo Timerman as well as leading scholars like Elaine Scarry author of The Body in Pain It includes classical works by Voltaire Jeremy Bentham Hannah Arendt and Stanley Milgram as well as recent works by historian Adam Hochschild and psychotherapist Joan Golston And it addresses new developments in efforts to combat torture such as the designation of rape as a war crime and the use of the doctrine of universal jurisdiction to prosecute perpetrators Designed for the student and scholar alike it is in sum an anthology of the best and most insightful writing about this most curious and common form of abuse Juan E M ndez Special Advisor to the United Nations Secretary General on the Prevention of Genocide and himself a victim of torture provides a foreword
